

RY ck to it will ket
ret
EACH ne can cause her tank to sink
y slowly rush the d not g ould be et in to letting the sub me to the bmarine lated by er that must suff
t in the —London seems to once the thel ore

THE
HOME PAPER

ONLY PAPER BETWEEN COLUMBUS AND CINCINNATI RECEIVING THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

NEWS WITHOUT COLOR

VOL. 30 NO. 133

WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO, MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1915

Ten Cents a Week

THE WEATHER—Showers and cooler tonight. Tuesday fair, cooler southeast portion

CLAIM LEMBERG NOW TOTTERING

Austrians Say Investment of Lemberg Imminent and Further Successes Anticipated.

SERIOUS FIGHTING AGAIN UNDER WAY ALONG THE WESTERN FRONT

German Transports and Russ Auxiliary Sent to Bottom in Baltic—Italians Making General Advance Across River Isonzo, and Austrian Resistance Becomes Greater—Turks Make Counter Claims.

London, June 7.—Telegrams from Vienna say that Lemberg, capital of the Austrian crownland of Galicia, now in the hands of the Russians, may be taken at any moment by the Austro-German forces, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company. One message from the Austrian capital says that the Austrians are 25 miles from the town and other advices estimate the distance at only 10 miles.

Udine, Italy, June 7.—A general Italian advance is taking place today across the Isonzo river from Caporetto to the sea, a distance of about 40 miles. The movement is one of importance and hard fighting is taking place at Gradisca and in the vicinity of this town.

The resistance of the Austrians is daily becoming stronger. This, Italian staff officers declare, has had the effect of making their men determined.

Tolmino, on the east side of the Isonzo, is one of the Italian objectives.

Berlin, June 7.—A German submarine on June 4 sank the Russian cruiser Amur near a Baltic port, according to an official announcement here.

The announcement also says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortifications of the Humber on the east coast of England, the naval port of Harwich, England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich.

"They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank, or oil tank, which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railway depot. German airships were shot at vigorously by guns on land and on ships. They were not hit and returned safely."

London, June 7.—It is announced at the Admiralty this afternoon that a Zeppelin visited the east coast of England last night, dropping incendiary and explosive bombs. Five persons were killed and 40 injured. Two fires were caused by the incendiary bombs.

London, June 7.—Contrary to the French and British claims of victory on the Gallipoli Peninsula, the Turkish War Office announces the allies were defeated in the recent heavy fighting, sustaining large losses. A counter attack by the Turkish right wing against positions captured by the allies is said to have been successful.

London, June 7.—Although no official accounts have been received of the recent fighting in the Baltic Sea between Russian and German warships, a Petrograd dispatch indicates that it came as the result of a German attempt to land troops along the Gulf of Riga.

It is reported several German transports and one large vessel were sunk and that the Russians lost an auxiliary.

Apparently the Russian and German battle squadrons were not engaged. It is expected the Germans will renew their effort to land troops on the Baltic coast of Russia.

A French mine layer has been sunk by a mine in the Aegean Sea with the probable loss of 60 men.

German submarines sunk the British steamers Star of the West and Sunlight with no loss of life. Both vessels are small ones.

London, June 7.—Heavy fighting is again in progress at various points along the western front. The War Office today announced the capture of two lines of German trenches over a front of 1200 yards near Hebuterne and the repulse of German attacks north of the Aisne.

The German statement declared the French attacks at Zeeburne were unsuccessful and that the French had been beaten back also in an advance near Soissons, with the exception of one point at which they penetrated the outer German works.

KING AGAIN VERY LOW

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—A telegram received here this afternoon from Athens via Berlin declares the condition of King Constantine of Greece to be very serious.

ZEPPELIN BLOWN UP

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—The Admiralty announced today that a Zeppelin has been blown to pieces over Belgium by British airmen.

The Admiralty statement announcing the destruction of the Zeppelin says an attack was made on the German airship shed at Evere, north of Brussels. Bombs were dropped and the shed was observed to be in flames.

At 3 o'clock this morning, the report declares, a British flight lieutenant attacked a Zeppelin in the air between Ghent and Brussels. At 6,000 feet he dropped 6 bombs and the airship exploded, fell to the ground and burned for a considerable time.

The force of the explosion caused the British monoplane to turn upside down. The pilot succeeded in righting the machine but had to make a forced landing in the enemy's country. However, he was able to restart the machine and, returned safely to the airdrome, the report says.

ENTIRE CREW MEETS DEATH

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at Amsterdam supplies some details of the destruction of a Zeppelin airship between Ghent and Brussels by British aviators in a monoplane. He declares an Amsterdam newspaper has received a dispatch saying that when the Zeppelin came down it landed on an orphanage. Two nuns and two orphans were killed, while many others in the establishment sustained injury. The crew of the Zeppelin, 28 men, lost their lives.

BRITONS RESPOND

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that the response to Field Marshal Earl Kitchener's appeal for 300,000 recruits had been satisfactorily fulfilled.

Announcements of the government's policy regarding recruiting would be made later, the premier said, in response to questions whether conscription would be introduced. Alluding to the intervention of Italy Mr. Asquith said:

"During half a century there never has been a shadow of discord between the two nations. We regard her as one of the custodians of the free traditions of Europe. We warmly grasp the hand of Italy and welcome her gallant sailors and soldiers as fellow comrades in the struggle on which the liberty of the world depends."

No one of the contending nations of Europe can escape the charge of warfare against noncombatants. Air craft of practically all have dropped explosives upon city and village homes, and women and children have been the most frequent victims.

CAPT. W. H. BULLARD
Head of the United States Navy's Wireless System.

Copyright by Clinedinst.

OHIO CROPS ARE BOOMING

By Associated Press.

Columbus, June 7.—The Ohio crop report, showing the condition of growing farm products on June 1, was issued today by the State Agricultural Commission and shows that the prospects for 1915 are equal to, if not better, than the 1914 crop.

The wheat prospect is rated at 99 per cent of a normal yield. Wheat acreage this year is 1,826,151 acres, as against 1,633,554 last year.

PROTESTS FORWARDED TO GOV. WILLIS

By Associated Press.

Columbus, June 7.—Vigorous protests reaching Governor Willis today over his action in vetoing items in the general and sundries appropriations bill, amounting to $935,000—$485,000 of which was on state institutions—led the governor to issue a statement explaining that only a small percentage of the betterments allowed by the bill were disapproved by him.

A wrong impression had gained circulation, the governor declared, that most of the new buildings granted by the legislature to crowded state institutions had been cut off of the appropriation bill by his veto.

Members of the Board of Administration agreed that the items vetoed would not seriously cripple the institutions' work the governor declared.

13,000,000 MEXICANS IN DANGER OF FAMINE

People in Mexico Still Crying for Food—First Relief Train Carries 90 Americans—U. S. Government Awaits Definite Word Over Carranza's Reported Victory—Claims Conflict.

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 7.—Ninety Americans will be among the first refugee party to leave Mexico City today on a special train which the Brazilian minister has secured, acting for the American government. Other refugees, who will later join the party at Vera Cruz, will bring the number of all nationalities to more than 600.

Mail reports from Mexico City declare that sessions of the so-called national convention in Mexico City have been rushed by hordes of hungry men, women and children, shouting "we want corn." Soldiers firing over the heads of the mob failed to check their vain and piteous search for food.

Hundreds in the crowd of thousands were crushed or overcome during the manifestations. It is estimated that unless relief from the outside comes more than 13,000,000 people will be in danger of starvation.

Washington, June 7.—Advice bearing out reports of a victory for Obregon, General Carranza's commander, over Villa and Angeles at Leon were awaited today by administration officials, who are interested in the possible effect of such a turn in the Mexican situation.

It was believed here that if Carranza has been victorious his next step would be an attempt to re-enter Mexico City and establish a government with a view to obtaining recognition by the United States.

Carranza representatives here regarded the unofficial reports as evidence that the Villa movement would soon completely collapse, but Villa representatives, on the other hand, said Villa and Angeles had driven Obregon south of Leon and that the main body of the Carranza army was in a critical position near Trinidad.

Villa Headquarters at Silao, June 5, via Juarez, June 7.—A statement issued by a member of General Villa's staff says:

"Yesterday we stormed and captured Obregon's entire advance trenches. At the same time we captured a great many prisoners. Obregon's army is surrounded by a ring of iron. He must shortly surrender or his forces starve."

DELAYED NOTE IS READY

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 7.—The American note to Germany concerning the sinking of the Lusitania virtually was ready today for transmission to Berlin. President Wilson worked until a late hour last night to complete its phraseology.

The note is said to be a vigorous reiteration of previous demands that Germany exercise a right of visit and search before attacking unarmed merchant ships. The delay in forwarding the note was to enable the president to so phrase it that there would be no room for doubt or further argument concerning the attitude of the United States.

It was expected that the note would be cabled to Berlin tonight or early tomorrow at the latest.

The German ambassador continues optimistic over the situation and believes that as a result of his conference with President Wilson the crisis over the sinking of the Lusitania has now passed.

Secretary Bryan had a conference with the president at noon and is understood to have gone over the final draft of the German note with him.

GUILTY PLEA

By Associated Press.

Columbus, June 7.—Attorney General Turner received word today that Hugh Patterson, former safety director and clerk of council in Steubenville, had pleaded guilty to a charge of certifying false vouchers, in Common Pleas Court at Steubenville this morning.

He was given a suspended penitentiary sentence on his promise to turn state's evidence. Prosecutions against other city officials on charges of bribery and general corruption are pending there.

TRAWLER SUNK

By Associated Press.

London, June 7.—The trawler Artic has been sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine. Five members of her crew were rescued but four lost their lives from the shell fire of the underwater boat.

NAVAL SCHOLARS OFF FOR LONG CRUISE.

Photo by American Press Association.
New York state nautical schoolship Newport sails on 15,385 mile cruise with 110 youthful tars. The most distant point touched will be Honolulu.

Photo by American Press Association.

GENERAL CORNEVA

Leads the Italian Forces Now Invading Austria.

CLAIM LEMBERG
NOW TOTTERING

Austrians Say Investment of Lemberg Imminent and Further Successes Anticipated.

SERIOUS FIGHTING AGAIN UNDER WAY ALONG THE WESTERN FRONT

German Transports and Russ Auxiliary Sent to Bottom in Baltic—Italians Making General Advance Across River Isonzo, and Austrian Resistance Becomes Greater—Turks Make Counter Claims.

London, June 7.—Telegrams from Vienna say that Lemberg, capital of the Austrian crownland of Galicia, now in the hands of the Russians, may be taken at any moment by the Austro-German forces, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

One message from the Austrian capital says that the Austrians are 25 miles from the town and other estimates estimate the distance at only 10 miles.

Udine, Italy, June 7.—A general Italian advance is taking place today across the Isonzo river from Caporetto to the sea, a distance of about 40 miles. The movement is one of importance and hard fighting is taking place at Gradisca and in the vicinity of this town.

The resistance of the Austrians is daily becoming stronger. This, Italian staff officers declare, has had the effect of making their men determined.

Tolmino, on the east side of the Isonzo, is one of the Italian objectives.

Berlin, June 7.—A German submarine on June 4 sank the Russian cruiser Amur near a Baltic port, according to an official announcement here.

GENERAL CORNEVA

Leads the Italian Forces
Now Invading Austria.

Photo by American Press Association.

The announcement also says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortifications of the Humber on the east coast of England, the naval port of Harwich, England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich.

"They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank, or oil tank, which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railway depot. German airships were shot at vigorously by guns on land and on ships. They were not hit and returned safely."

London, June 7.—It is announced at the Admiralty this afternoon that a Zeppelin visited the east coast of England last night, dropping incendiary and explosive bombs. Five persons were killed and 40 injured. Two fires were caused by the incendiary bombs.

London, June 7.—Contrary to the French and British claims of victory on the Gallipoli Peninsula, the Turkish War Office announces the allies were defeated in the recent heavy fighting, sustaining large losses. A counter attack by the Turkish right wing against positions captured by the allies is said to have been successful.

London, June 7.—Although no official accounts have been received of the recent fighting in the Baltic Sea between Russian and German warships, a Petrograd dispatch indicates that it came as the result of a German attempt to land troops along the Gulf of Riga.

It is reported several German transports and one large vessel were sunk and that the Russians lost an auxiliary.

Apparently the Russian and German battle squadrons were not engaged. It is expected the Germans will renew their effort to land troops on the Baltic coast of Russia.

A French mine layer has been sunk by a mine in the Aegean Sea with the probable loss of 60 men.

German submarines sunk the British steamers Star of the West and Sunlight with no loss of life. Both vessels are small ones.

London, June 7.—Heavy fighting is again in progress at various points along the western front. The War Office today announced the capture of two lines of German trenches over a front of 1200 yards near Hebuterne and the repulse of German attacks north of the Aisne.

The German statement declared the French attacks at Zeeburne were unsuccessful and that the French had been beaten back also in an advance near Soissons, with the exception of one point at which they penetrated the outer German works.

KING AGAIN
VERY LOW

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—A telegram received here this afternoon from Athens via Berlin declares the condition of King Constantine of Greece to be very serious.

ZEPPELIN
BLOWN UP

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—The Admiralty announced today that a Zeppelin has been blown to pieces over Belgium by British airmen.

The Admiralty statement announcing the destruction of the Zeppelin says an attack was made on the German airship shed at Evere, north of Brussels. Bombs were dropped and the shed was observed to be in flames.

At 3 o'clock this morning, the report declares, a British flight lieutenant attacked a Zeppelin in the air between Ghent and Brussels. At 6,000 feet he dropped 6 bombs and the airship exploded, fell to the ground and burned for a considerable time.

The force of the explosion caused the British monoplane to turn upside down. The pilot succeeded in righting the machine but had to make a forced landing in the enemy's country. However, he was able to restart the machine and returned safely to the airdrome, the report says.

ENTIRE CREW
MEETS DEATH

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at Amsterdam supplies some details of the destruction of a Zeppelin airship between Ghent and Brussels by British aviators in a monoplane. He declares an Amsterdam newspaper has received a dispatch saying that when the Zeppelin came down it landed on an orphanage. Two nuns and two orphans were killed, while many others in the establishment sustained injury. The crew of the Zeppelin, 28 men, lost their lives.

BRITONS RESPOND

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that the response to Field Marshal Earl Kitchener's appeal for 300,000 recruits had been satisfactorily fulfilled.

Announcements of the government's policy regarding recruiting would be made later, the premier said, in response to questions whether conscription would be introduced. Alluding to the intervention of Italy Mr. Asquith said:

"During half a century there never has been a shadow of discord between the two nations. We regard her as one of the custodians of the free traditions of Europe. We warmly grasp the hand of Italy and welcome her gallant sailors and soldiers as fellow comrades in the struggle on which the liberty of the world depends."

No one of the contending nations of Europe can escape the charge of warfare against noncombatants. Air craft of practically all have dropped explosives upon city and village homes, and women and children have been the most frequent victims.

CAPT. W. H. BULLARD

Head of the United States
Navy's Wireless System.

Copyright by Clineinst.

OHIO CROPS ARE BOOMING

By Associated Press.

Columbus, June 7.—The Ohio crop report, showing the condition of growing farm products on June 1, was issued today by the State Agricultural Commission and shows that the prospects for 1915 are equal to, if not better, than the 1914 crop.

The wheat prospect is rated at 99 per cent of a normal yield. Wheat acreage this year is 1,826,151 acres, as against 1,633,554 last year.

PROTESTS
FORWARDED TO GOV. WILLIS

By Associated Press.

Columbus, June 7.—Vigorous protests reaching Governor Willis today over his action in vetoing items in the general and sundries appropriations bill, amounting to $935,000—$485,000 of which was on state institutions—led the governor to issue a statement explaining that only a small percentage of the betterments allowed by the bill were disapproved by him.

A wrong impression had gained circulation, the governor declared, that most of the new buildings granted by the legislature to crowded state institutions had been cut off of the appropriation bill by his veto.

Members of the Board of Administration agreed that the items vetoed would not seriously cripple the institutions' work the governor declared.

NAVAL SCHOLARS OFF FOR LONG CRUISE.

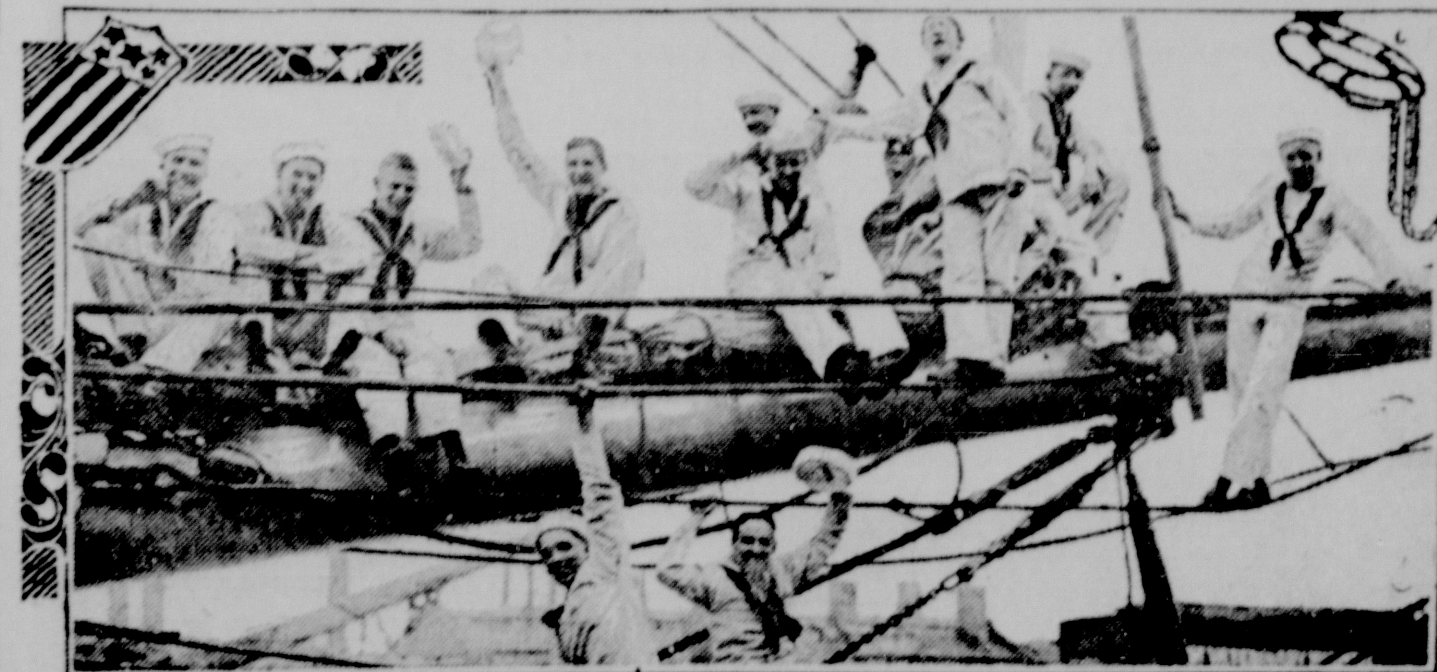

Photo by American Press Association.

New York state nautical schoolship Newport sails on 15,385 mile cruise with 110 youthful tars. The most distant point touched will be Honolulu.

13,000,000 MEXICANS
IN DANGER OF FAMINE

People in Mexico Still Crying for Food—First Relief Train Carries 90 Americans—U. S. Government Awaits Definite Word Over Carranza's Reported Victory—Claims Conflict.

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 7.—Ninety Americans will be among the first refugee party to leave Mexico City today on a special train which the Brazilian minister has secured, acting for the American government. Other refugees, who will later join the party at Vera Cruz, will bring the number of all nationalities to more than 600.

Mail reports from Mexico City declare that sessions of the so-called national convention in Mexico City have been rushed by hordes of hungry men, women and children, shouting "we want corn." Soldiers firing over the heads of the mob failed to check their vain and piteous search for food.

Hundreds in the crowd of thousands were crushed or overcome during the manifestations. It is estimated that unless relief from the outside comes more than 13,000,000 people will be in danger of starvation.

Washington, June 7.—Advice bearing out reports of a victory for Obregon, General Carranza's commander, over Villa and Angeles at Leon were awaited today by administration officials, who are interested in the possible effect of such a turn in the Mexican situation.

It was believed here that if Carranza has been victorious his next step would be an attempt to re-enter Mexico City and establish a government with a view to obtaining recognition by the United States.

Carranza's representatives here regarded the unofficial reports as evidence that the Villa movement would soon completely collapse, but Villa representatives, on the other hand, said Villa and Angeles had driven Obregon south of Leon and that the main body of the Carranza army was in a critical position near Trinidad.

Villa Headquarters at Silao, June 5, via Juarez, June 7.—A statement issued by a member of General Villa's staff says:

"Yesterday we stormed and captured Obregon's entire advance trenches. At the same time we captured a great many prisoners. Obregon's army is surrounded by a ring of iron. He must shortly surrender or his forces starve."

DELAYED NOTE IS READY
GUILTY PLEA

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 7.—The American note to Germany concerning the sinking of the Lusitania virtually was ready today for transmission to Berlin. President Wilson worked until a late hour last night to complete its phraseology.

The note is said to be a vigorous reiteration of previous demands that Germany exercise a right of visit and search before attacking unarmed merchant ships. The delay in forwarding the note was to enable the president to so phrase it that there would be no room for doubt or further argument concerning the attitude of the United States.

It was expected that the note would be cabled to Berlin tonight or early tomorrow at the latest.

The German ambassador continues optimistic over the situation and believes that as a result of his conference with President Wilson the crisis over the sinking of the Lusitania has now passed.

Secretary Bryan had a conference with the president at noon and is understood to have gone over the final draft of the German note with him.

By Associated Press.
Columbus, June 7.—Attorney General Turner received word today that Hugh Patterson, former safety director and clerk of council in Steubenville, had pleaded guilty to a charge of certifying false vouchers, in Common Pleas Court at Steubenville this morning.

He was given a suspended penitentiary sentence on his promise to turn state's evidence. Prosecutions against other city officials on charges of bribery and general corruption are pending there.

TRAWLER SUNK

By Associated Press.
London, June 7.—The trawler Artic has been sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine. Five members of her crew were rescued but four lost their lives from the shell fire of the underwater boat.

PRESIDENT'S STAND IS UNSHANKEN

Washington, June 7.—That Berlin has either lacked adequate reports from the United States or else has completely misread them, was the conclusion reached by many officials here from published dispatches asserting that the German authorities and the public there no longer regarded the submarine issue with the United States as one of serious proportions.

Reports of a similar character have reached this country through official channels, and they are looked upon as the most discouraging feature of the situation. It is felt here that the prospects of a satisfactory response by Germany to the demands of the United States will not be bright until the German government and the German people have come to a realization of the determination of the president to insist upon adequate guarantees for the safety of American lives on the high seas.

That the second note of President Wilson, agreed upon at the cabinet meeting, will go far toward imparting to Germany a clearer understanding of the firm stand of this government, is the expectation in official quarters here. This note will go forward to Berlin in a day or two.

Some surprise was expressed by those close to the administration that it should have been thought that the delay in sending the note to Germany indicated the slightest change in policy. It was asserted that such surmises were absolutely without foundation. The note is still to receive its final polishing. This task the president is to perform himself.

No backward step has been taken by the president. In fact, it is more forceful. If anything, than the first note giving Germany to understand that this government will expect a prompt expression from her as to whether or not she intends to abide by the principles of international law. If Germany fails to give such assurances only one course, in the opinion of most Washington officials, will be open to this country, and that will be a severance of diplomatic relations.

Your Favorite Drink

Whatever it is — Soda, Phosphate, Coco-Cola or anything else—you can get it here and get it better than anywhere else.

Our soda fountain business grows steadily every day because people appreciate the quality of our drinks and the service at our fountain.

We Sell Furnas Ice Cream

BLACKMER

& TANQUARY

Druggists.

The Rexall Store.

MINERS BOOST HOCKING COAL

Athens, O., June 7.—Declaring that the people of Ohio are not using Ohio coal, and for that reason Ohio mines are not working even half their capacity, the miners of the Hocking valley subdistrict are starting a campaign of education. "Burn Hocking Coal" is their slogan. The delegation of Columbus business men who will invade the Hocking valley will be asked why Hocking coal is not popular in Columbus, and the business men of Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo, Cleveland and other cities will be asked the same question.

OHIO BRIEFS

Drug Bill Vetoed.

Columbus, June 7.—On the ground that its operation would entail an immense expense annually, Governor Willis vetoed the Platt bill, which was designed to re-enact and strengthen the laws against the sale of habit forming drugs. By vetoing this measure the state practically will be left without any legal instrument to curb the sale of these drugs and will have to rely solely on federal authorities in enforcing the Harrison anti-narcotic act.

Willis Slashes Appropriations.

Columbus, June 7.—Governor Willis pruned the general and sundry appropriation bills to the extent of a million. The items vetoed in the general appropriation measures total $888,107, and those cut from the sundry appropriation bill $44,442.50, totaling $932,549.50. Various institutions under the control of the state board of administration suffer cuts from their $1,000,000 appropriation for new buildings and betterments during two years.

Assembly Held Inefficient.

Cleveland, June 7.—The Civic League of Cleveland, of which Mayo Fesler is secretary, mailed to its members its bulletin on the Ohio general assembly, in which the league asserts that there is a breakdown in the legislative machinery in Ohio, gross inefficiency in legislative procedure and unfair representation in the lower house.

Auto Turned Over.

Chicago Junction, O., June 7.—A. A. Clark of this city and daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. Crooks of Elyria, were seriously injured when their auto overturned five miles south of Plymouth. Five other occupants of the car were slightly injured. Excessive speed on a sharp curve caused the car to skid and turn over.

Trolley Strikes Automobile.

Alliance, O., June 7.—Mrs. B. E. Bates was seriously injured and three others had a narrow escape from death when an interurban car struck their machine, three miles south of here. The machine was owned and driven by E. C. Bates. All were thrown some distance.

Woman Killed In West.

St. Clairsville, O., June 7.—State Representative John D. Hays of Belmont county was notified that his sister, Mrs. Mary P. Dool, sixty-five, was killed in an auto accident in Los Angeles. Mrs. Thomas Holliday of Wooster is a sister of the dead woman.

PEACE PAGEANT ON THE FOURTH

Toledo, June 7.—Instead of the roaring of cannon and the rattle of musketry on the Fourth of July this year, all the civic bodies and leading officials of the city are behind a move for a peace pageant on the national holiday. The change in the usual form of celebration is proposed on account of the war in Europe.

Want to rent a house?—"Want Ads"

VILLA WOULD END THE WAR IN MEXICO

Washington, June 7.—Information obtained here in official quarters indicates that negotiations may be soon instituted between Carranza and Villa looking to the restoration of order to the republic of Mexico.

The report that Villa is willing to meet Carranza with a view to composing their differences has been confirmed here. Ilizio Arrondendo, the Carranza agent in this city, admitted that he received a suggestion from friends of General Villa to outline some basis on which the two factions might meet in council. Mr. Arrondendo promptly forwarded this communication to Carranza at Vera Cruz.

Villa's apparent willingness to talk peace with his antagonist confirms statements made early last week by friends of Villa that he would accept in principle President Wilson's suggestion that Mexico's troubles be adjusted by other than armed force.

Just what reply Carranza will make to Villa is a matter of lively speculation in Washington. Officials here have felt for weeks that Villa was rapidly losing ground, and that his end as an influential factor in the situation was imminent. Whether Carranza will be disposed at this late day to deal with Villa as suggested in the president's statement is not known here, not even by Carranza representatives. They declined to make any comment on the communication to Vera Cruz or to speculate on the probable reply.

It is the general expectation here that unless there is evidence of peace in Mexico by July 1, preparations will be made for more radical action.

Information that comes from several points along the border have caused grave fears of an epidemic of typhus fever in Mexico. General Evans, commandant at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., reports that cars bearing refugees from Mexico have arrived on the border full of typhus carrying vermin. Surgeons of the public health service and the immigration bureau are co-operating with the army to prevent the spread of the scourge on the American side.

FOUR ARE CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Cleveland, June 7.—Four youths were arrested charged with manslaughter in connection with the killing of Joseph Levinsky in a free-for-all fight in a restaurant. Levinsky, who was thirty-six, was found beaten to death when a dozen policemen dashed in on a riot call and stopped the brawl. Those under arrest are James Denney, Frank Gibbons, John Winters and Joseph Farson.

AUTOMOBILES FOR USE ON THE RURAL ROUTES

Washington, June 7.—The postoffice department issued this statement:

"Without curtailing present mail facilities, readjustment of rural delivery service during the period from April 1 to May 29 resulted in a reduction of operating expenses amounting to $511,262. This sum has been used to establish 710 new rural routes, serving 82,390 additional families, and to extend existing service 642 miles. The extensions reach 5,460 additional families or about 29,800 additional persons.

"Memoranda are now awaiting the postmaster general's signature providing in many localities for rural free delivery service by automobile at compensation not exceeding $1,800 a year. Where roads are good and prospective business justifies it, automobile carriers will serve routes not less than fifty miles in length. This improvement will permit of further extensions of present routes. The appropriation for this service will be available July 1. The first routes of this character will go into operation Aug. 1. The automobile service will also be utilized gradually to install rural routes which will radiate from the large cities. Suburban and rich truck growing areas within twenty-five miles of the great cities when served thus will get the 'local' instead of the first zone rural post rate."

ALWAYS
HEMO
More than Malted Milk
Powerful, concentrated nourishment
Buy it at the drug store

Kelly-Springfield

tires give you their mileage on the road—not in adjustments. The best evidence of this is the fact that in 1914 the total adjustments on Kelly-Springfield tires were less than 1% of sales. In the rare cases where they are required, adjustments are now made on the basis of the following very liberal mileage:

Plain tread, 5,000 miles; Kant Slip, 6,000 miles.
In Ford sizes, plain tread, 6,000 miles; Kant Slip, 7,500 miles.

BACHERT'S GARAGE

Market Street

VATICAN'S WHITE BOOK

Rome, June 7.—The white book of the vatican, explaining the efforts of Pope Benedict toward peace and the initiative taken by him to lessen the effects of the war, such as the exchange of wounded prisoners, is almost ready for publication. It is considered unlikely that the pope's protests against alleged atrocities in Belgium, the arrest of Cardinal Mercier and the sinking of the Lusitania will be included in the white book, the aim of which will be to demonstrate the impartial neutrality of the holy see. For this reason it will contain only documents addressed to all the belligerents. Other documents containing protests which the pope is believed to have addressed to certain powers may be published in another white book after the war.

TO THE POINT

John C. Rice, a widely known comedian, died suddenly at a hotel in Philadelphia. He was fifty-seven years old. Andrew Reisch and Joseph Ruel boys, were drowned at Dayton, O., in Mad river. They were fishing when one fell in and the other jumped in to save his companion's life.

Claude C. Gossett, champion speller of Ohio, announces he will challenge any and all winners in other states which are to hold state spelldowns for the national championship.

Stuart R. Bolin was appointed United States attorney in the southern Ohio district, succeeding Sherman McPherson, resigned. Bolin was formerly city collector of Columbus.

Roy and Mollie Barber, seven and nine, respectively, brother and sister, were drowned at Youngstown, O. They were fishing on the bank of the stream when the girl fell in. The boy went to her aid and both drowned.

RIDS FEET OF CORNS. REMOVES FOOT LUMPS. SURE AND PAINLESS

What any corn needs is the soothing influence of Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor, which in twenty-four hours lifts out every root branch and stem of corns and warts. Just clean riddance to the old offenders—that's the way Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor acts. Refuse a substitute preparation for Putnam's Extractor, 25c, druggists everywhere. adv.

TIES SLIP

In Collars laundered at The Larrimer Laundry Company. Try and see; both phones, Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

JOY RIDERS RUN DOWN POLICE CHIEF

Seranton, Pa., June 7.—Joy riders ran down Chief of Police John Reese, who attempted to stop them in their mad flight through Dickson City. He was dragged some distance under the motorcar, which finally struck a telephone pole, and received internal injuries which caused his death. None of the occupants of the car, with the exception of Miss Myrtle Johnson, was injured.

"STANLEY RAY" IMPROVEMENT

New York, June 7.—Dr. Claude L. Lavinder of the United States public health service has been directed to make an investigation of the workings of an electrical machine invented by Charles H. Stanley of this city, which, it is claimed, produces a new ray that is said to be perfectly harmless and more penetrating than the x-ray. It is said that surgeons will now be able to operate directly in the so called "Stanley ray" without the preliminary photograph of the part. This will make it possible, it is insued, for an operating table at an army base at the front to be fitted up with the new apparatus underneath in such a manner that when the wounded man is laid upon it, the location of a bullet or bit of shrapnel in the body will be at once revealed, so that the surgeon can remove it without further trouble.

WATCH

The well dressed men on the streets of our city, and you will be able to tell The Larrimer Laundry Company's work by the distinctiveness of color and finish; we are also awaiting YOUR call. Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

Palm Beach SUITS

laundered in soft water don't shrink
or change color.

Rothrock LAUNDRY

Family Wash 6c

Wanted---Ten Thousand Labels

From Golden Sun Coffee. We will pay one cent each if mailed to F. C. Ruth, Representative, The Woolson Spice Company, 178 Thirteenth Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, before June 25, 1915. Not less than ten accepted. An opportunity for school boys and girls to earn vacation money. 130t12

Want to rent a house?—"Want Ads"

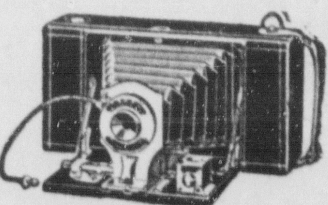

DRESS MAKING

Mrs. Victoria Oatneal
Citiz. Phone 1774 247 Henkle Street

ANSCO CAMERAS and FILM

TAKING pictures with an Ansco is bully good sport that lasts all year round. You simply can't beat it for real fun, as those who've tried it can tell you. The No. 3A Folding Buster Brown camera shown in this ad takes a picture 3x5 1/2 in. (postcard size) and costs $10. There are smaller Folding Buster Browns at $9, $8 and $6. Ansco Camera, Ansco Film, Cyko Paper—that's the All-American team that wins every time. Come in and get a catalog and view the various Ansco models that range in price from $2 up to $55.

Delbert C. Hays
Corner Court and Main

There Is Nothing Flimsy About Quick Meal Stoves

They are made good and solid; they will do good and last a lifetime. They cost a little more than cheap stoves on the start, but you are the gainer in the end.

GLOBE-WERNICKE
BOOKCASES

DALE

PRESIDENT'S STAND IS UNSHANKEN

Washington, June 7.—That Berlin has either lacked adequate reports from the United States or else has completely misread them, was the conclusion reached by many officials here from published dispatches asserting that the German authorities and the public there no longer regarded the submarine issue with the United States as one of serious proportions.

Reports of a similar character have reached this country through official channels, and they are looked upon as the most discouraging feature of the situation. It is felt here that the prospects of a satisfactory response by Germany to the demands of the United States will not be bright until the German government and the German people have come to a realization of the determination of the president to insist upon adequate guarantees for the safety of American lives on the high seas.

That the second note of President Wilson, agreed upon at the cabinet meeting, will go far toward imparting to Germany a clearer understanding of the firm stand of this government, is the expectation in official quarters here. This note will go forward to Berlin in a day or two.

Some surprise was expressed by those close to the administration that it should have been thought that the delay in sending the note to Germany indicated the slightest change in policy. It was asserted that such surmises were absolutely without foundation. The note is still to receive its final polishing. This task the president is to perform himself.

No backward step has been taken by the president. In fact, it is more forceful, if anything, than the first note giving Germany to understand that this government will expect a prompt expression from her as to whether or not she intends to abide by the principles of international law. If Germany fails to give such assurances only one course, in the opinion of most Washington officials, will be open to this country, and that will be a severance of diplomatic relations.

Your Favorite Drink

Whatever it is — Soda, Phosphate, Coco-Cola or anything else—you can get it here and get it better than anywhere else.

Our soda fountain business grows steadily every day because people appreciate the quality of our drinks and the service at our fountain.

We Sell Furnas Ice Cream

BLACKMER & TANQUARY
Druggists.

The Rexall Store.

MINERS BOOST HOCKING COAL

Athens, O., June 7.—Declaring that the people of Ohio are not using Ohio coal, and for that reason Ohio mines are not working even half their capacity, the miners of the Hocking valley subdistrict are starting a campaign of education. "Burn Hocking Coal" is their slogan. The delegation of Columbus business men who will invade the Hocking valley will be asked way Hocking coal is not popular in Columbus, and the business men of Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo, Cleveland and other cities will be asked the same question.

OHIO BRIEFS

Drug Bill Vetoed.

Columbus, June 7.—On the ground that its operation would entail an immense expense annually, Governor Willis vetoed the Platt bill, which was designed to re-enact and strengthen the laws against the sale of habit forming drugs. By vetoing this measure the state practically will be left without any legal instrument to curb the sale of these drugs and will have to rely solely on federal authorities in enforcing the Harrison anti-narcotic act.

Willis Slashes Appropriations.

Columbus, June 7.—Governor Willis pruned the general and sundry appropriation bills to the extent of a million. The items vetoed in the general appropriation measures total $888,107, and those cut from the sundry appropriation bill $44,442.50, totaling $932,549.50. Various institutions under the control of the state board of administration suffer cuts from their $1,000,000 appropriation for new buildings and betterments during two years.

Assembly Held Inefficient.

Cleveland, June 7.—The Civic league of Cleveland, of which Mayo Fessler is secretary, mailed to its members its bulletin on the Ohio general assembly, in which the league asserts that there is a breakdown in the legislative machinery in Ohio, gross inefficiency in legislative procedure and unfair representation in the lower house.

Auto Turned Over.

Chicago Junction, O., June 7.—A. A. Clark of this city and daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. Crooks of Elyria, were seriously injured when their auto overturned five miles south of Plymouth. Five other occupants of the car were slightly injured. Excessive speed on a sharp curve caused the car to skid and turn over.

Trolley Strikes Automobile.

Alliance, O., June 7.—Mrs. B. E. Bates was seriously injured and three others had a narrow escape from death when an interurban car struck their machine, three miles south of here. The machine was owned and driven by E. C. Bates. All were thrown some distance.

Woman Killed in West.

St. Clairsville, O., June 7.—State Representative John D. Hays of Belmont county was notified that his sister, Mrs. Mary P. Dool, sixty-five, was killed in an auto accident in Los Angeles. Mrs. Thomas Holliday of Wooster is a sister of the dead woman.

PEACE PAGEANT ON THE FOURTH

Toledo, June 7.—Instead of the roaring of cannon and the rattle of musketry on the Fourth of July this year, all the civic bodies and leading officials of the city are behind a move for a peace pageant on the national holiday. The change in the usual form of celebration is proposed on account of the war in Europe.

Want to rent a house?—"Want Ads"

VILLA WOULD END THE WAR IN MEXICO

Washington, June 7.—Information obtained here in official quarters indicates that negotiations may be soon instituted between Carranza and Villa looking to the restoration of order to the republic of Mexico.

The report that Villa is willing to meet Carranza with a view to composing their differences has been confirmed here. Ilizio Arrondendo, the Carranza agent in this city, admitted that he received a suggestion from friends of General Villa to outline some basis on which the two factions might meet in council. Mr. Arrondendo promptly forwarded this communication to Carranza at Vera Cruz.

Villa's apparent willingness to talk peace with his antagonist confirms statements made early last week by friends of Villa that he would accept in principle President Wilson's suggestion that Mexico's troubles be adjusted by other than armed force.

Just what reply Carranza will make to Villa is a matter of lively speculation in Washington. Officials here have felt for weeks that Villa was rapidly losing ground, and that his end as an influential factor in the situation was imminent. Whether Carranza will be disposed at this late day to deal with Villa as suggested in the president's statement is not known here, not even by Carranza representatives. They declined to make any comment on the communication to Vera Cruz or to speculate on the probable reply.

It is the general expectation here that unless there is evidence of peace in Mexico by July 1, preparations will be made for more radical action.

Information that comes from several points along the border have caused grave fears of an epidemic of typhus fever in Mexico. General Evans, commandant at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., reports that cars bearing refugees from Mexico have arrived on the border full of typhus carrying vermin. Surgeons of the public health service and the immigration bureau are co-operating with the army to prevent the spread of the scourge on the American side.

FOUR ARE CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Cleveland, June 7.—Four youths were arrested charged with manslaughter in connection with the killing of Joseph Levinsky in a free-for-all fight in a restaurant. Levinsky, who was thirty-six, was found beaten to death when a dozen policemen dashed in on a riot call and stopped the brawl. Those under arrest are James Dennehy, Frank Gibbons, John Winters and Joseph Parson.

AUTOMOBILES FOR USE ON THE RURAL ROUTES

Washington, June 7.—The postoffice department issued this statement:

"Without curtailing present mail facilities, readjustment of rural delivery service during the period from April 1 to May 29 resulted in a reduction of operating expenses amounting to $511,262. This sum has been used to establish 710 new rural routes, serving 82,390 additional families, and to extend existing service 642 miles. The extensions reach 5,469 additional families or about 29,890 additional persons.

"Memoranda are now awaiting the postmaster general's signature providing in many localities for rural free delivery service by automobile at compensation not exceeding $1,800 a year. Where roads are good and prospective business justifies it, automobile carriers will serve routes not less than fifty miles in length. This improvement will permit of further extensions of present routes. The appropriation for this service will be available July 1. The first routes of this character will go into operation Aug. 1. The automobile service will also be utilized gradually to install rural routes which will radiate from the large cities. Suburban and rich truck growing areas within twenty-five miles of the great cities when served thus will get the 'local' instead of the first zone rural post rate."

ALWAYS
HEMO
More than Malted Milk
Powerful, concentrated nourishment
Buy it at the drug store

Kelly-Springfield

tires give you their mileage on the road—not in adjustments. The best evidence of this is the fact that in 1914 the total adjustments on Kelly-Springfield tires were less than 1% of sales. In the rare cases where they are required, adjustments are now made on the basis of the following very liberal mileage:

Plain tread, 5,000 miles; Kant Slip, 6,000 miles.
In Ford sizes, plain tread, 6,000 miles; Kant Slip, 7,500 miles.

BACHERT'S GARAGE

Market Street

VATICAN'S WHITE BOOK

Rome, June 7.—The white book of the vatican, explaining the efforts of Pope Benedict toward peace and the initiative taken by him to lessen the effects of the war, such as the exchange of wounded prisoners, is almost ready for publication. It is considered unlikely that the pope's protests against alleged atrocities in Belgium, the arrest of Cardinal Mercier and the sinking of the Lusitania will be included in the white book, the aim of which will be to demonstrate the impartial neutrality of the holy see. For this reason it will contain only documents addressed to all the belligerents. Other documents containing protests which the pope is believed to have addressed to certain powers may be published in another white book after the war.

TO THE POINT

John C. Rice, a widely known comedian, died suddenly at a hotel in Philadelphia. He was fifty-seven years old. Andrew Resch and Joseph Ruef, boys, were drowned at Dayton, O., in Mad river. They were fishing when one fell in and the other jumped in to save his companion's life.

Claude C. Gossett, champion speller of Ohio, announces he will challenge any and all winners in other states which are to hold state spell-downs for the national championship.

Stuart R. Bolin was appointed United States attorney in the southern Ohio district, succeeding Sherman McPherson, resigned. Bolin was formerly city collector of Columbus.

Roy and Mollie Barber, seven and nine, respectively, brother and sister were drowned at Youngstown, O. They were fishing on the bank of the stream when the girl fell in. The boy went to her aid and both drowned.

RIDS FEET OF CORNS. REMOVES FOOT LUMPS. SURE AND PAINLESS

What any corn needs is the soothing influence of Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor, which in twenty-four hours lifts out every root branch and stem of corns and warts. Just clean riddance to the old offenders—that's the way Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor acts. Refuse a substitute preparation for Putnam's Extractor, 25c, druggists everywhere. adv.

TIES SLIP

In Collars laundered at The Larrimer Laundry Company. Try and see; both phones, Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

JOY RIDERS RUN DOWN POLICE CHIEF

Seranton, Pa., June 7.—Joy riders ran down Chief of Police John Reese, who attempted to stop them in their mad flight through Dickson City. He was dragged some distance under the motorcar, which finally struck a telephone pole, and received internal injuries which caused his death. None of the occupants of the car, with the exception of Miss Myrtle Johnson, was injured.

"STANLEY RAY" IMPROVEMENT

New York, June 7.—Dr. Claude A. Lavinder of the United States public health service has been directed to make an investigation of the workings of an electrical machine invented by Charles H. Stanley of this city, which, it is claimed, produces a new ray that is said to be perfectly harmless and more penetrating than the x-ray. It is said that surgeons will now be able to operate directly in the so called "Stanley ray" without the preliminary photograph of the part. This will make it possible, it is claimed, for an operating table at an army base at the front to be fitted up with the new apparatus underneath in such a manner that when the wounded man is laid upon it, the location of a bullet or bit of shrapnel in the body will be at once revealed, so that the surgeon can remove it without further trouble.

WATCH

The well dressed men on the streets of our city, and you will be able to tell The Larrimer Laundry Company's work by the distinctiveness of color and finish; we are also awaiting YOUR call. Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

Palm Beach SUITS

laundered in soft
water don't shrink
or change color.

Rothrock LAUNDRY

Family Wash 6c

Wanted---Ten Thousand Labels

From Golden Sun Coffee. We will pay one cent each if mailed to F. C. Ruth, Representative, The Woolson Spice Company, 178 Thirteenth Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, before June 25, 1915. Not less than ten accepted. An opportunity for school boys and girls to earn vacation money. 130t12

Want to rent a house?—"Want Ads"

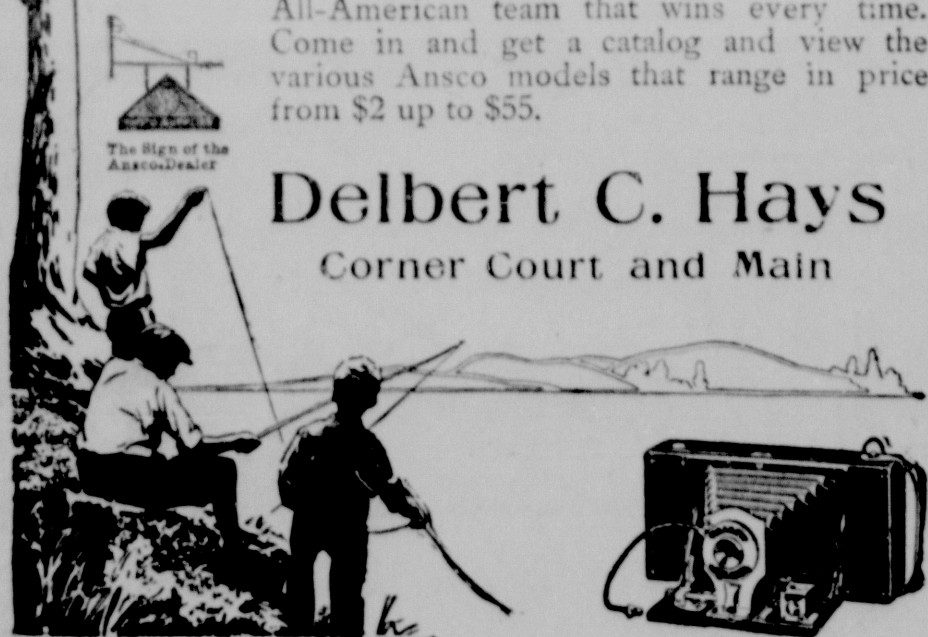

DRESS MAKING

Mrs. Victoria Oatneal
Citiz. Phone 1774 247 Henkle Street

ANSCO CAMERAS and FILM

TAKING pictures with an Ansco is bully good sport that lasts all year round. You simply can't beat it for real fun, as those who've tried it can tell you. The No. 3A Folding Buster Brown camera shown in this ad takes a picture 3 1/2 x 5 1/2 in. (postcard size) and costs $10. There are smaller Folding Buster Browns at $9, $8 and $6. Ansco Camera, Ansco Film, Cyko Paper—that's the All-American team that wins every time. Come in and get a catalog and view the various Ansco models that range in price from $2 up to $55.

Delbert C. Hays
Corner Court and Main

There Is Nothing Flimsy About Quick Meal Stoves

They are made good and solid; they will do good and last a lifetime. They cost a little more than cheap stoves on the start, but you are the gainer in the end.

GLOBE-WERNICKE
BOOKCASES

DALE

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD
 THE HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY.
 W. W. MILLIKAN, President.
 PUBLICATION OFFICE NO. 206 EAST COURT ST., OPP. POST OFFICE.
 AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER.
 Subscriptions: By Carrier 10 Cents a Week. In advance $5.00 for the year. By Mail and on Free Deliveries Cash in Advance $3.00 a year; $1.75, 6 months; $1.00, 3 months; 35c, 1 month.
 ADVERTISING RATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION.
 Obituaries, memorial notices, resolutions and cards of thanks will be charged for at half rates, or 2 1/2 cents per line of six words.
 Entered as Second Class Matter, August 20, 1910, at the Postoffice at Washington, C. H., Ohio, Under the Act of March 3d, 1879.
 TELEPHONES—Home No. 157. Bell, Main No. 170.

An Inconvenience at Least

The contractors now at work rebuilding the streets of Washington to meet modern demands and according to modern ideas should give more consideration to the convenience and the necessity of the public.

The contractors engaged in public work now under construction and the contractors who are to come after them to construct other improvements, should do that on their own initiative and, failing to do so, the city officials should see to it that the work is done with as little inconvenience and loss to the public as is possible in view of the work to be done and the terms of the contract.

The experience which the people of this city and county, especially of the eastern section of the county, have had with the North street paving work has been decidedly unpleasant and, in the opinion of most people who have been compelled to run counter to the inconveniences and delays which that work causes them, not at all necessary.

Every street in the city, north of the creek, running east and west, save only Court street, has been closed to vehicle travel at the North street intersection for weeks. The vehicle travel at the Court street crossing of North street has as a consequence, been unnecessarily congested and dangerous.

There is no reason why all of the street intersections should have been torn up at the same time, in fact there is no reason why the intersections could not have been improved one half at a time thus leaving one half always open for the vehicle travel, on the east and west streets, to cross over at every intersection.

The failure to provide a way for travel to cross at every intersection might be excused, the absolute blocking of one street at a time, or even two, while intersections were being constructed, could be endured with a grace, but when it comes to blocking every one of the east and west streets, save one, for weeks it is such a disregard of the rights of, and such an inconvenience to, those people who must use the streets to get into and out of the city and of those people who must go from east to west within the city that provision should be made in all street work in the future to prevent a recurrence of the trouble.

"Knee Deep in June."

Never before, it is safe to assert, has the vegetation in this section been more luxuriantly beautiful than it is right now.

The absence of late frosts and the long continued cold weather of early spring combined to hold back the budding trees and flowers until warm weather had come to stay.

Since mother nature permitted the blossoms and buds to burst forth sunshine and rain have mingled with a perfect harmony producing the ideal weather conditions.

Never before has the grass been greener and thicker on the ground, never has the foliage of the trees and shrubbery been heavier or of richer shade and the spring flowers—the later ones—have been of such rare beauty and in such profusion as to call forth praise from even the most prosy folks.

Following after the tiny crocuses and the hyacinths of early spring come, now in the first half of June, those hardy old "annual" roses and never were they prettier or more strikingly substantial looking in their loveliness.

Just as the bright yellow roses—the earliest of all to come—began to fade, the deep rich "velvet" red roses, the thousand leafed pink ones, the white ones, the seven sisters, the thousand beauties, the ramblers and a thousand and one other varieties of equally appropriate names and attractive odor and color, burst forth in a riot of bloom. Every isolated bush, every clump and bunch and bower and hedge wherever a rose had been planted or where one had "volunteered" to try and grow, became a joy to the eye and a delight to the nostrils.

Every yard has its own particular show of roses. These are the days—these June days—these days of roses and flowers. When nature puts on her most gorgeous gown of colors hiding every bare place and every scar which the hardships of winter left, that it seems so good to be alive in such a place and privileged to enjoy it all. These are the days when it's a joy to walk about the old home lot and attach to each tree and bush and plant its own particular history—remember the ones who first started them on their way, perhaps gone to their eternal home, and remembering that not to be unmindful of our own duty to preserve that which we have inherited and to start other bowers of beauties for posterity.

"Knee deep in June" time all its wonders of beauty and life carries its lesson and tells the story of nature's might in a language of refinement and peace and plenty.

This is the season when nature attracts and charms human beings.

Poetry For Today

THE ROYAL ROAD.

The Colonel was successful because he was chummy with the bosses.—Newspaper editorial.

Should you wish to be successful from the righteous point of view—To infuse deep moral shadings into tints of double hue, Should you wish to turn the sinner from a Jekyll to a Hyde, You must never, never, never from his greetings step aside. You must never raise your eyebrows with a supercilious stare When he passes with the masses; all his feelings you must share.

If you wish to wear a halo, as a champion of right, You must lead your erring brothers from the darkness to the light, And to do this all quite proper, you must never, never shrink From a skulking up blind alleys where the gangsters love to slink. You must always stoop to conquer; 'tis the statesman's only way. Don't be haughty with the naughty but be chummy; it will pay!

When you find the burglar burgling, you must burgle some yourself Or with righteous mollycoddles you'll be laid upon the shelf. If the hosts of Armageddon you would mould to your sweet will, You must hobnob with the wicked or the victory will be nil. Should you wish to rule the nation, it will never do to cross Every grafter you march after—just be chummy with the boss.

—Life.

Weather Report

Washington, June 7. — Ohio: Fair Monday, except showers in the afternoon or night; Tuesday showers.

Tennessee and Kentucky — Showers and cooler Monday; Tuesday fair.

West Virginia — Fair; showers at night or Tuesday.

Indiana and Lower Michigan — Showers Monday; Tuesday fair.

THE WEATHER

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 7 p. m. Sunday:

	Temp.	Weather.
New York	66	Cloudy
Boston	52	Rain
Buffalo	74	Clear
Washington	70	Cloudy
Columbus	77	Clear
Chicago	84	Clear
Minneapolis	56	Rain
St. Louis	86	Clear
Los Angeles	68	Clear
New Orleans	88	Clear
Seattle	72	Clear
Tampa	78	Clear

Forecast.

Washington, June 7.—Indications for tomorrow: Ohio—Probably showers.

Acknowledgement Stationery.

In cards, plain white—tints—gold edges and initials at 25c per box. Cranes goods are the best and sold at Rodecker's.

With all the Dreadnoughts and super-Dreadnoughts hiding in landlocked home ports the good old days of the United States navy in 1812 are recalled. The naval board wanted to lay up the wooden sloops and frigates for fear England would send them all to the bottom. But the commodores said: "What's the use of having ships if we don't use them? Send us to sea, and if we have got to be sunk we'll give a good account of ourselves first." They went to sea, and history tells how they made good and nearly drove England from the western seas.

Every man's hand is against the fly, but he seems to thrive on it.

Strong Points

OF THE BUCKEYE STATE BUILDING AND LOAN COMPANY, RANKIN BUILDING, 22 W. GAY ST., COLUMBUS, OHIO.

4. Insurance. Our Company is protected by insurance policies against loss by reason of fires, tornado, cyclone, wind-storm, burglary, embezzlement, injuries to our employees, or loss of money in bank. Such protection affords safety to our depositors, who greatly appreciate the care and watchfulness of the officers of the Company. Assets $8,600,000. Five per cent paid on time deposits.

Bits of Byplay

By Luke McLuke

Copyright, 1915, the Cincinnati Enquirer

Bang!

Billy had a little jag; He carried it with grace, Until the sidewalk jumped right up And hit him in the face.

Huh!

"What is the matter with the boob?" asked the wise guy. "He goes around as if he was scared to death about something." "He went to a professor and asked him to trace his ancestry and fix him up a family tree," replied the grouch. "Well, what happened?" asked the wise guy. "Nothing," replied the grouch. "Only he has been paying the professor hush money ever since he saw the family tree."

Sad!

She always longed for wedded bliss, But she's an old maid, she'll admit; For years she has remained a miss Because she cannot make a hit.

The Wise Fool.

"The earth was made for man," observed the sage. "Yes, and every guy you meet imagines he's the man," replied the fool.

Silent.

"What do you buy these fool female magazines for?" demanded Mr. Gabb as he slammed a periodical on the floor. "They are nothing but a mess of mush, lies and fool statements." "What's the matter with the one you were reading?" asked Mrs. Gabb. "Matter!" yelled Mr. Gabb. "Why, it says that a woman is a silent partner in a New York firm."

Ouch!

She tries to get a job in correspondence schools, but fails, For in that kind of schools the teaching's mostly done by mails.

Did This Ever Happen to You?

A peculiar accident is reported from Abbotsford. Fred Wedeking, a young man of that place, slipped and fell on a bowling alley, striking the side of his head against the corner of an electric piano. No one saw the accident, but a few seconds later some one noticed that one of his ears was gone. It was the first he had heard about it; but, sure enough, on making an investigation he found he was minus an ear. The lost member was found lying on the floor near the piano and, with its owner, was taken to Dr. Johnson's office, where it was put back in place, and it is now growing on again.—Rice Lake (Wis.) Chronotype.

Is That So!

Austin is figuring on a hat factory. It is to be hoped that the factory will make hats big enough for everybody.—Andrew McBeath, Judd Mortimer Lewis, Luke McLuke and K'Lamity Bonner included.—Georgetown (Tex.) Commercial.

Things to Worry About.

Przemysl sounds just as bad when you spell it backward.

Our Daily Special.

When in doubt don't say anything.

Luke McLuke Says

When a man starts in to practice economy he figures up a list of about ninety things that his wife could go without, but he can't think of a single thing that he could sacrifice without injuring his health.

When father gets home from a buy a keg party about 3 a. m. he always believes that his wife was mean enough to move the blamed keyhole in the front door so it would take him about five minutes to locate it.

When father goes up to his pet saloon to orate on the European war and discovers that another war orator has beat him to his favorite indoor sport father sulks around and tells the bartender that there is too much gabbling going on to suit him.

A girl can eat sour pickles and be sweeter than ever, but it is different when she eats onions.

A dollar looks about as big around as a dime to a man when he is buying a round of drinks, but when he has to hand it to his wife it looks as big around as an automobile wheel.

Every man knows a few mean things about himself that he doesn't want other people to know.

A man often says that he has changed his mind about doing a thing when he really means that his wife changed it for him.

Ministers are just like the rest of us. We all want to labor in the vineyard where the pay is the best.

Before he gets her life is all roasts. After he gets her life is all roasts.

A youth gets so tired of having to explain to his mother why he was out so late that he goes and gets married and then has to spend the rest of his life explaining to his wife.

The trouble with most people is that when you do them a favor they act as though they were doing you a favor in letting you do it.

The man who shows his love for his wife by bringing her home a few flowers every week has it all over the man who shows his love for his wife by ordering a $20 wreath for her casket when she dies.

The faster a man is the longer it takes him to get home at night.

Every Now and Then

We remind you that the time to do it is NOW. We want to jog up the frail memory that remembers but present things. You said some time ago you were going to start your account here. You put it off. Several times you made the same resolution. You put it off. You can never accomplish what you do not begin. Do it NOW.

—Delay has wrecked more lives and caused more human misery than all the wars the world has ever known.

Fayette County Bank

Hours 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

We pay 3 per cent. interest in our Savings Department or (Certificates of Deposit.)

WAGES WAR ON DISEASES OF EYE

The Ohio Commission for the Blind and Its Work.

PREVENTION ITS FIRST AIM

Seeks by Employment of Experts to Save Sight of Babies and Others Whose Vision is Impaired—Also Provides Instructors for Afflicted Who Desire to Learn to Read and Acquire Skill in Making Household Articles.

The Ohio Commission for the Blind, created by the legislature more than six years ago, has developed into one of the most important of state departments. It was organized for the purpose of waging a campaign for the prevention of blindness and to alleviate the conditions of the blind of Ohio. Through field officers and employees the commission sends teachers to the homes of the blind, where they are taught how to make many useful articles for the home.

The material to make these articles is furnished by the commission, and, after the articles are made up, they are returned to the commission at Columbus, which finds a sale for them. Only the actual cost of the material is deducted from the selling price, the balance being sent to the blind worker. By this method the blind are not compelled to leave their homes to make wages.

The commission does not expect to make all the blind of Ohio self-supporting. This is easy to realize when the fact is considered that fully half of the blind are past middle life. Those who wish to read are encouraged and helped to do so by the home teachers of the state commission.

The commission has a staff of specially trained nurses, who work with the best eye doctors in every county of the state in securing treatment for all cases coming properly within the scope of the work of the commission.

No person who needs the services of a specialist to treat his or her eyes, to save them from going blind, need hesitate to report this fact to the commission because of a lack of funds. Just as soon as the case is reported to the commission an effort to secure proper treatment will be made. The commission is made up of six men appointed by the governor, and since his inauguration Governor Willis has studied the work of the Ohio commission and has promised, during his administration, to do all within his power to extend the work and aid the blind of Ohio.

None of the members of the commission receive any pay for their services, but attend the monthly meetings in Columbus and devote a great deal of their time to the cause.

Every resident of Ohio may have, at some time, an opportunity of aiding the commission in its work. They can do this in two ways: First, by reporting to it promptly any case of a baby having "sore eyes" or any person afflicted with eye trouble that is not having proper attention, and second, by purchasing some of the articles made by the blind.

The commission sells this work through the co-operation of public spirited merchants, who give space in their stores, the press, woman's clubs and private individuals who are generously opening their homes for special exhibitions and sales of the handiwork of the industrious blind home workers.

No profit is made in the merchandising of this work, as the proceeds, above the cost of the material used in the making, go direct to the blind worker. The state pays the expenses of the home teachers, field officers and invests a considerable sum in material with which the blind may be employed in their own homes.

Since the creation of the Ohio Commission for the Blind, the sight of many has been saved, and hundreds of those already blind have found the work of the state pleasant and profitable.

A series of lectures are given by the officers of the commission, when pictures showing the methods of prevention of blindness are shown, and

7 %

Non-Taxable Investments

The Gelger-Jones Co

Henderson & Wright

Representatives

Room 7 Pavey Building

Loans

Arranged on Pianos, House hold Goods, Live Stock & Implements

$25 to $200

AT LEGAL RATES

in weekly or monthly payments

Capitol Loan Co.

Licensed and Bonded.

COLUMBUS, OHIO

Agt in Washington Tuesday Each Week

Passmore Bldg., Washington C. H.

advice as to treatment, etc., are carefully analyzed by experts.

The Ohio Commission for the Blind, in a word, is organized for the benefit of humanity. Its first duty is to prevent blindness wherever possible, and no less a responsibility is that of giving every possible attention and aid to those who have, through accident or otherwise, lost their sight, and are compelled to go through life in darkness.

REMEMBER THIS.

The address of the Ohio Commission for the Blind is Columbus. Any information wanted on the prevention of blindness will be cheerfully furnished free. Don't hesitate about asking for it.

SEND FOR THIS CIRCULAR.

Mother!

Do you want to save your baby from blindness?

That's the name of the circular. Send for it. It's free.

Ohio Commission For the Blind, Columbus, Ohio.

Our reputation has been, and will continue to be, under the present management, Cleanliness, Carefulness and Service. Give us a call on either phone, Bell 188w; Citz. 521. The Larimer Laundry Co.

Railroad accident statistics show casualties in 1914 were fewer than ever before under circumstances at all comparable. The exhibit shows a gradual reduction, the casualties in 1914 being fewer than in 1913, and those in the latter year less than in 1912. And yet wooden coaches are in general use, light and imperfect rails are common, the block system signal is far from universal, and an automatic train stop that never fails is yet to be introduced. While there is much room for improvement in safety appliances, improvement is in sight.

Victoriano Huerta is now a commuter, and when Senora Huerta calls him down for forgetting that errand to the notion shop he'll wish he'd saluted the flag.

POTATO CHIPS

Ask your grocer for "PURITY SARATOGA POTATO CHIPS" made by Charles R. Dalbey and handled by all grocers. Manufactured daily from pure lard. They are Fresh, Crisp and Delicious and have that real "nutty flavor." Insist on your grocer supplying you with "DALBEY CHIPS" which for nine years have been sold here.

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD
THE HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY.
W. W. MILLIKAN, President.
PUBLICATION OFFICE NO. 206 EAST COURT ST., OPP. POST OFFICE.
AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER.
Subscriptions: By Carrier 10 Cents a Week. In advance $5.00 for the year. By Mail and on Free Deliveries Cash in Advance $3.00 a year; $1.75, 6 months; $1.00, 3 months; 35c, 1 month.
ADVERTISING RATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION.
Obituaries, memorial notices, resolutions and cards of thanks will be charged for at half rates, or 2 1/2 cents per line of six words.
Entered as Second Class Matter, August 20, 1910, at the Postoffice at Washington, C. H., Ohio, Under the Act of March 3d, 1879.
TELEPHONES—Home No. 157. Bell, Main No. 176.

An Inconvenience at Least

The contractors now at work rebuilding the streets of Washington to meet modern demands and according to modern ideas should give more consideration to the convenience and the necessity of the public.

The contractors engaged in public work now under construction and the contractors who are to come after them to construct other improvements, should do that on their own initiative and, failing to do so, the city officials should see to it that the work is done with as little inconvenience and loss to the public as is possible in view of the work to be done and the terms of the contract.

The experience which the people of this city and county, especially of the eastern section of the county, have had with the North street paving work has been decidedly unpleasant and, in the opinion of most people who have been compelled to run counter to the inconveniences and delays which that work causes them, not at all necessary.

Every street in the city, north of the creek, running east and west, save only Court street, has been closed to vehicle travel at the North street intersection for weeks. The vehicle travel at the Court street crossing of North street has as a consequence, been unnecessarily congested and dangerous.

There is no reason why all of the street intersections should have been torn up at the same time, in fact there is no reason why the intersections could not have been improved one half at a time thus leaving one half always open for the vehicle travel, on the east and west streets, to cross over at every intersection.

The failure to provide a way for travel to cross at every intersection might be excused, the absolute blocking of one street at a time, or even two, while intersections were being constructed, could be endured with a grace, but when it comes to blocking every one of the east and west streets, save one, for weeks it is such a disregard of the rights of, and such an inconvenience to, those people who must use the streets to get into and out of the city and of those people who must go from east to west within the city that provision should be made in all street work in the future to prevent a recurrence of the trouble.

"Knee Deep in June."

Never before, it is safe to assert, has the vegetation in this section been more luxuriantly beautiful than it is right now.

The absence of late frosts and the long continued cold weather of early spring combined to hold back the budding trees and flowers until warm weather had come to stay.

Since mother nature permitted the blossoms and buds to burst forth sunshine and rain have mingled with a perfect harmony producing the ideal weather conditions.

Never before has the grass been greener and thicker on the ground, never has the foliage of the trees and shrubbery been heavier or of richer shade and the spring flowers—the later ones—have been of such rare beauty and in such profusion as to call forth praise from even the most prosy folks.

Following after the tiny crocuses and the hyacinths of early spring come, now in the first half of June, those hardy old "annual" roses and never were they prettier or more strikingly substantial looking in their loveliness.

Just as the bright yellow roses—the earliest of all to come—began to fade, the deep rich "velvet" red roses, the thousand leafed pink ones, the white ones, the seven sisters, the thousand beauties, the ramblers and a thousand and one other varieties of equally appropriate names and attractive odor and color, burst forth in a riot of bloom. Every isolated bush, every clump and bunch and bower and hedge wherever a rose had been planted or where one had "volunteered" to try and grow, became a joy to the eye and a delight to the nostrils.

Every yard has its own particular show of roses.

These are the days—these June days—these days of roses and flowers. When nature puts on her most gorgeous gown of colors hiding every bare place and every scar which the hardships of winter left, that it seems so good to be alive in such a place and privileged to enjoy it all. These are the days when it's a joy to walk about the old home lot and attach to each tree and bush and plant its own particular history—remember the ones who first started them on their way, perhaps gone to their eternal home, and remembering that not to be un-mindful of our own duty to preserve that which we have inherited and to start other bowers of beauties for posterity.

"Knee deep in June" time all its wonders of beauty and life carries its lesson and tells the story of nature's might in a language of refinement and peace and plenty.

This is the season when nature attracts and charms human beings.

Poetry For Today

THE ROYAL ROAD.

The Colonel was successful because he was chummy with the bosses.—Newspaper editorial.

Should you wish to be successful from the righteous point of view—To infuse deep moral shadings into tints of double hue, Should you wish to turn the sinner from a Jekyll to a Hyde, You must never, never, never from his greetings step aside, You must never raise your eyebrows with a supercilious stare When he passes with the masses; all his feelings you must share.

If you wish to wear a halo, as a champion of right, You must lead your erring brothers from the darkness to the light, And to do this all quite proper, you must never, never shrink From a skulking up blind alleys where the gangsters love to slink, You must always stoop to conquer; 'tis the statesman's only way, Don't be haughty with the naughty but be chummy; it will pay!

When you find the burglar burgling, you must burgle some yourself Or with righteous mollycoddles you'll be laid upon the shelf, If the hosts of Armageddon you would mould to your sweet will, You must hobnob with the wicked or the vict'ry will be nil, Should you wish to rule the nation, it will never do to cross Every grafter you march after—just be chummy with the boss.

—Life.

Weather Report

Washington, June 7. — Ohio: Fair Monday, except showers in the afternoon or night; Tuesday showers. Tennessee and Kentucky — Showers and cooler Monday; Tuesday fair. West Virginia — Fair; showers at night or Tuesday. Indiana and Lower Michigan — Showers Monday; Tuesday fair.

THE WEATHER

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 7 p. m. Sunday:

	Temp.	Weather.
New York	66	Cloudy
Boston	52	Rain
Buffalo	74	Clear
Washington	70	Cloudy
Columbus	77	Clear
Chicago	84	Clear
Minneapolis	56	Rain
St. Louis	86	Clear
Los Angeles	68	Clear
New Orleans	88	Clear
Seattle	72	Clear
Tampa	78	Clear

Forecast.

Washington, June 7.—Indications for tomorrow: Ohio—Probably showers.

Acknowledgement Stationery.

In cards, plain white—tints—gold edges and initials at 25c up per box. Cranes goods are the best and sold at Rodecker's.

With all the Dreadnoughts and super-Dreadnoughts hiding in landlocked home ports the good old days of the United States navy in 1812 are recalled. The naval board wanted to lay up the wooden sloops and frigates for fear England would send them all to the bottom. But the commodores said: "What's the use of having ships if we don't use them? Send us to sea, and if we have got to be sunk we'll give a good account of ourselves first." They went to sea, and history tells how they made good and nearly drove England from the western seas.

Every man's hand is against the fly, but he seems to thrive on it.

Strong Points

OF THE BUCKEYE STATE BUILDING AND LOAN COMPANY, RANKIN BUILDING, 22 W. GAY ST., COLUMBUS, OHIO.

4. Insurance. Our Company is protected by insurance policies against loss by reason of fires, tornado, cyclone, wind-storm, burglary, embezzlement, injuries to our employees, or loss of money in bank. Such protection affords safety to our depositors, who greatly appreciate the care and watchfulness of the officers of the Company. Assets $8,600,000. Five per cent paid on time deposits.

Bits of Byplay

By Luke McLuke

Copyright, 1915, the Cincinnati Enquirer

Bang! Billy had a little jax; He carried it with grace, Until the sidewalk jumped right up And hit him in the face.

Huh! "What is the matter with the boob?" asked the wise guy. "He goes around as if he was scared to death about something."

"He went to a professor and asked him to trace his ancestry and fix him up a family tree," replied the grouch.

"Well, what happened?" asked the wise guy.

"Nothing," replied the grouch. "Only he has been paying the professor hush money ever since he saw the family tree."

Sad! She always longed for wedded bliss, But she's an old maid, she'll admit; For years she has remained a miss Because she cannot make a hit.

The Wise Fool. "The earth was made for man," observed the sage. "Yes, and every guy you meet imagines he's the man," replied the fool.

Silent. "What do you buy these fool female magazines for?" demanded Mr. Gabb as he slammed a periodical on the floor. "They are nothing but a mess of mush, lies and fool statements."

"What's the matter with the one you were reading?" asked Mrs. Gabb.

"Matter!" yelled Mr. Gabb. "Why, it says that a woman is a silent partner in a New York firm."

Ouch! She tries to get a job in correspondence schools, but fails, For in that kind of schools the teaching's mostly done by mails.

Did This Ever Happen to You?

A peculiar accident is reported from Abbotsford. Fred Wedeking, a young man of that place, slipped and fell on a bowling alley, striking the side of his head against the corner of an electric piano. No one saw the accident, but a few seconds later some one noticed that one of his ears was gone. It was the first he had heard about it; but, sure enough, on making an investigation he found he was minus an ear. The lost member was found lying on the floor near the piano and, with its owner, was taken to Dr. Johnson's office, where it was put back in place, and it is now growing on again.—Rice Lake (Wis.) Chronotype.

Is That So?

Austin is figuring on a hat factory. It is to be hoped that the factory will make hats big enough for everybody.—Andrew McBeath, Judd Mortimer Lewis, Luke McLuke and K'Lamity Bonner included.—Georgetown (Tex.) Commercial.

Things to Worry About. Przemysl sounds just as bad when you spell it backward.

Our Daily Special. When in doubt don't say anything.

Luke McLuke Says

When a man starts in to practice economy he figures up a list of about ninety things that his wife could go without, but he can't think of a single thing that he could sacrifice without injuring his health.

When father gets home from a buy a keg party about 3 a. m. he always believes that his wife was mean enough to move the blamed keyhole in the front door so it would take him about five minutes to locate it.

When father goes up to his pet saloon to orate on the European war and discovers that another war orator has beat him to his favorite indoor sport father sulks around and tells the bartender that there is too much gabbing going on to suit him.

A girl can eat sour pickles and be sweeter than ever, but it is different when she eats onions.

A dollar looks about as big around as a dime to a man when he is buying a round of drinks, but when he has to hand it to his wife it looks as big around as an automobile wheel.

Every man knows a few mean things about himself that he doesn't want other people to know.

A man often says that he has changed his mind about doing a thing when he really means that his wife changed it for him.

Ministers are just like the rest of us. We all want to labor in the vineyard where the pay is the best.

Before he gets her life is all toasts. After he gets her life is all roasts.

A youth gets so tired of having to explain to his mother why he was out so late that he goes and gets married and then has to spend the rest of his life explaining to his wife.

The trouble with most people is that when you do them a favor they act as though they were doing you a favor in letting you do it.

The man who shows his love for his wife by bringing her home a few flowers every week has it all over the man who shows his love for his wife by ordering a $20 wreath for her casket when she dies.

The faster a man is the longer it takes him to get home at night.

Every Now and Then

We remind you that the time to do it is NOW. We want to jog up the frail memory that remembers but present things. You said some time ago you were going to start your account here. You put it off. Several times you made the same resolution. You put it off. You can never accomplish what you do not begin. Do it NOW.

—Delay has wrecked more lives and caused more human misery than all the wars the world has ever known.

Fayette County Bank

Hours 8.00 a. m. to 5.00 p. m.

We pay 3 per cent. interest in our Savings Department or (Certificates of Deposit.)

WAGES WAR ON DISEASES OF EYE

The Ohio Commission for the Blind and Its Work.

PREVENTION ITS FIRST AIM

Seeks by Employment of Experts to Save Sight of Babies and Others Whose Vision is Impaired—Also Provides Instructors For Afflicted Who Desire to Learn to Read and Acquire Skill in Making Household Articles.

The Ohio Commission for the Blind, created by the legislature more than six years ago, has developed into one of the most important of state departments. It was organized for the purpose of waging a campaign for the prevention of blindness and to alleviate the conditions of the blind of Ohio. Through field officers and employees the commission sends teachers to the homes of the blind, where they are taught how to make many useful articles for the home.

The material to make these articles is furnished by the commission, and, after the articles are made up, they are returned to the commission at Columbus, which finds a sale for them. Only the actual cost of the material is deducted from the selling price, the balance being sent to the blind worker. By this method the blind are not compelled to leave their homes to make wages.

The commission does not expect to make all the blind of Ohio self-supporting. This is easy to realize when the fact is considered that fully half of the blind are past middle life. Those who wish to read are encouraged and helped to do so by the home teachers of the state commission.

The commission has a staff of specially trained nurses, who work with the best eye doctors in every county of the state in securing treatment for all cases coming properly within the scope of the work of the commission.

No person who needs the services of a specialist to treat his or her eyes, to save them from going blind, need hesitate to report this fact to the commission because of a lack of funds. Just as soon as the case is reported to the commission an effort to secure proper treatment will be made. The commission is made up of six men appointed by the governor, and since his inauguration Governor Willis has studied the work of the Ohio commission and has promised, during his administration, to do all within his power to extend the work and aid the blind of Ohio.

None of the members of the commission receive any pay for their services, but attend the monthly meetings in Columbus and devote a great deal of their time to the cause.

Every resident of Ohio may have, at some time, an opportunity of aiding the commission in its work. They can do this in two ways: First, by reporting to it promptly any case of a baby having "sore eyes" or any person afflicted with eye trouble that is not having proper attention, and second, by purchasing some of the articles made by the blind.

The commission sells this work through the co-operation of public spirited merchants, who give space in their stores, the press, woman's clubs and private individuals who are generously opening their homes for special exhibitions and sales of the handwork of the industrious blind home workers.

No profit is made in the merchandising of this work, as the proceeds, above the cost of the material used in the making, go direct to the blind worker. The state pays the expenses of the home teachers, field officers and invests a considerable sum in material with which the blind may be employed in their own homes.

Since the creation of the Ohio Commission for the Blind, the sight of many has been saved, and hundreds of those already blind have found the work of the state pleasant and profitable.

A series of lectures are given by the officers of the commission, when pictures showing the methods of prevention of blindness are shown, and

7 %

Non-Taxable Investments

The Gelger-Jones Co Henderson & Wright

Representatives

Room 7 Pavey Building

Loans

$25 to $200

AT LEGAL RATES

in weekly or monthly payments

Capitol Loan Co.

Licensed and Bonded.

COLUMBUS, OHIO

Agt in Washington Tuesday Each Week

Passmore Bldg., Washington C. D.

advice as to treatment, etc., are carefully analyzed by experts.

The Ohio Commission for the Blind, in a word, is organized for the benefit of humanity. Its first duty is to prevent blindness wherever possible, and no one's responsibility is that of giving every possible attention and aid to those who have, through accident or otherwise, lost their sight, and are compelled to go through life in darkness.

REMEMBER THIS.

The address of the Ohio Commission for the Blind is Columbus. Any information wanted on the prevention of blindness will be cheerfully furnished free. Don't hesitate about asking for it.

SEND FOR THIS CIRCULAR.

Mother!

Do you want to save your baby from blindness?

That's the name of the circular. Send for it. It's free.

Ohio Commission for the Blind, Columbus, Ohio.

Our reputation has been, and will continue to be, under the present management, Cleanliness, Carefulness and Service. Give us a call on either phone, Bell 188w; Citz. 521. The Larimer Laundry Co.

Railroad accident statistics show casualties in 1914 were fewer than ever before under circumstances at all comparable. The exhibit shows a gradual reduction, the casualties in 1914 being fewer than in 1913, and those in the latter year less than in 1912. And yet wooden coaches are in general use, light and imperfect rails are common, the block system signal is far from universal, and an automatic train stop that never fails is yet to be introduced. While there is much room for improvement in safety appliances, improvement is in sight.

Victoriano Huerta is now a commuter, and when Senora Huerta calls him down for forgetting that errand to the notion shop he'll wish he'd saluted the flag.

POTATO CHIPS

Ask your grocer for "PURITY SARATOGA POTATO CHIPS" made by Charles R. Dalbey and handled by all grocers. Manufactured daily from pure lard. They are Fresh, Crisp and Delicious and have that real "nutty flavor." Insist on your grocer supplying you with "DALBEY CHIPS" which for nine years have been sold here.

MATINEE RACES!

Fayette Co. Fair Grounds

Washington C. H., Ohio

FOUR BIG RACES

Free-For-All Race. Purse $100.00
2:30 Trot. Purse $100.00
Green Pace. Purse $25.00
Green Trot. Purse $25.00
Auspices of Washington Matinee Club
BENEFIT OF WASHINGTON Y. M. C. A. ADMISSION 25c

YOUTHFUL AUTO THIEF IS GIVEN FREEDOM SUNDAY

Harold Hurd, the 15-year-old youth arrested in Wilmington after having stolen the Losson Coil automobile in this city last week, and who has been held in the local jail pending a full investigation of his case, has been released and in company with his father, returned to his home in Cincinnati, where he will be placed under the surveillance of the juvenile court.

The boy's release is the result of a searching investigation which failed to break down the lad's story that he had been induced to steal the machine by one Frank Smith, alias George Simmons, of Cincinnati.

The officials, believing that the youngster's act was that of an impulsive, irresponsible youth, or that he really had been induced to steal the machine, decided that he would probably have better prospects for leading a proper life if he were returned to his parents and also placed under the surveillance of the juvenile court.

ANOTHER MAN ARRESTED MAKES A CONFESSION

Foster Pearson, one of the men arrested as a result of a confession last week by Riley Justis, indicating the existence of an organized band of chicken, corn and hog thieves in the county, is said by the police to have made a statement Monday bearing out some of the more important features of Justis' confession.

All of the six men arrested are still in jail. No others have been taken into custody by the police.

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES IN COMMON PLEAS

Following is the last assignment of cases for trial in common pleas court:

For trial to Judge Clarence Curtin—Monday, June 14—C. P. West et al. vs. Board of Education, etc.; Ozilla Fulton vs. John A. Fulton et al.

Trial to Jury—Tuesday, June 5—Tudie Carr Michael vs. S. H. Carr et al.; John N. Vandeman vs. Almer Hegler, et al.

Wednesday, June 16—Lewis H. Mark vs. Jesse Proffitt; Jesse E. Proffitt vs. Lewis H. Mark.

Thursday, June 17—American Remedy Co. vs. Wm. Relf, et al.

Monday, June 21—American Seedling Machine Co. vs. A. S. Glascock, et al.

COLONIAL THEATRE

TODAY

THIS COUPON GOOD FOR 20 VOTES

In Colonial Theater Popular Girl Voting Contest.

Name

(To be placed in Ballot Box at Theater.)

Lucky Girl to receive pleasure trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Void After June 15.

Anyone May Enter.

A Model Wife 1 reel comedy

A Mixup In Dress Suit Cases 2 reel comedy

5c : : ADMISSION : : 5c

TOMORROW

A Man and His Mate

A 4 reel drama featuring Henry Woodruff, a Mutual masterpiece.

MOTOR OMNIBUS RUNS INTO POST

One of the big Baker busses, carrying a local delegation of about 20 fans to the ball game at Wilmington Sunday afternoon, left the road about three miles from here on the Wilmington pike and drew up in a ditch squarely against a telephone pole. The car was but little damaged and the passengers not at all, but the former was put "hors du combat" for several hours.

Damon Baker had been driving the car, which left here shortly after noon and had turned the wheel over to Grover Carson while he went inside to collect fares. The latter, in taking the side of the road for another vehicle, got too far over and the machine went into the ditch at the side.

Finding that the car could not be continued on its way Mr. Baker walked back to this city and returned in a touring car for the stranded passengers. He made two trips, bringing about ten each time. The big machine was not taken out of the ditch until its "sister ship," which had preceded it in the morning to Wilmington, returned about 6 p. m.

QUIETLY ANSWERS ETERNAL SUMMONS

After several years of invalidism Mrs. Samuel Stuckey answered the eternal summons at the family residence on the White Oak pike, near Blomingsburg, Sunday morning at 10:10 o'clock, aged 65 years.

Her death causes genuine sorrow among a large family connection in this county and many friends and neighbors who deeply sympathize with the husband and two sons, Mr. Simon Stuckey, near Blomingsburg, and Prof. Loren Stuckey, of Des Moines, Iowa, who have lost a devoted wife and mother.

Mrs. Stuckey was always interested in everything that pertained to the better things of life, and ranked among that band of women known as the Crusaders. She was especially active as far as her health would permit in the work of the Presbyterian church, of Blomingsburg.

Funeral services will be held in the Presbyterian church at Blomingsburg, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial in the Blomingsburg cemetery.

DECISION OF LOWER COURT IS SUSTAINED

In the Jasper township school case styled State of Ohio ex. rel. Fred Clemens against James H. Thompson, which was argued in the Supreme Court some two weeks ago, a decision has been handed down sustaining the decree of the Court of Appeals, which held that Mr. Clemens is entitled to his seat on the Jasper township school board, and that the Board of Education of Fayette county had no power to remove him.

The question of the constitutionality of the School Code, so far as known, was not involved in the decision handed down by the Supreme Court.

Under the decision Mr. Clemens is entitled to continue in office on the board of education in Jasper township, and the defendant is unseated as member of the board to which he was chosen by the county board.

COUNCIL TO MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

The city council meets in regular session tonight at 7:30 and more street improvement legislation is expected.

As usual quite a number of interested citizens are expected to be present.

MARTINSBURG NINE DEFEATS BLOOMINGTON

The New Martinsburg ball team Sunday afternoon defeated Bloomington in an easy 8 to 3 game at Martinsburg. Fetherlon and Boyer were the batteries for the local team.

Safety first means to think first. Have you given your shirts and collars to The Larrimer Laundry Company this week? Call on either phone Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

The Palace Theatre

Presents Tuesday, June 8th,

"THE IDLER."

With Charles Richman and Catharine Countiss

And an All-Star Cast including Claire Whitney, Stuart Holmes, Walter Hitchcock and Maud Turner Gordon

Never in the history of the photographic drama has such a cast been assembled as that which makes "THE IDLER" the greatest film ever thrown on the screen. It is a powerful play, perfectly picturized, and written by C. Haddon Chambers.

A Photo-Play Up To The Standard of The Palace

MATINEE at 2:30. Admission, Adults 15c Children 10c

YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED IN KENTUCKY

Miss Mamie G. Hagerty and Mr. Charles C. Kregg, of Columbus, surprised their friends by being quietly married in Covington, Ky., Saturday. The pretty young bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Ryan, of East Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, but has been making her home for some time with Mr. David Hopkins in this city. She is a niece of Mrs. Jesse Blackmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Kregg will return to this city for a short visit with Mr. Hopkins before taking a wedding trip and expect to make Mr. Hopkins' home their future residence.

Mr. Kregg is traveling salesman with a well known Columbus house and shares with his bride in the best wishes of many friends.

CONCRETE MIXER AGAIN STARTED

After much delay due to the wet weather, the concrete mixer at the extreme north end of North street was placed in operation Monday morning, and within the next few days it is hoped to lay the remainder of the concrete base for the street.

The brick have been laid as far as the base has been completed, and the grouting work was taken up Monday morning.

Residents on the street are becoming anxious to have the thoroughfare opened to traffic.

HORSE THIEVES HELD TO COURT

Information from Xenia is to the effect that Alfred Butler, of this city, and Lee or Ralph Taylor, of Cedarville, the men arrested in Bainbridge for stealing a horse and buggy and disposing of the stolen outfit in Bainbridge, were bound over to the Greene county grand jury.

The rig was stolen from Brough Rife, of Clifton, who had driven into Cedarville.

STOP!

BALLOTING IN POPULAR GIRL CONTEST IS CLOSE

The balloting in the voting contest of the Colonial Theater for the most popular girl in the city, the winner of which is to get a trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, is close and exciting. The voting began last week and the result to date is announced as follows: Katherine Rothrock, 540; Chloe Anderson, 480; Esther Leland, 420; Mabel Larrimer, 350; Jean Hollingsworth, 210. The voting will continue until the first of August.

Fayette Chapter No. 103 R. A. M. There will be work in the Mark and Past M. degrees on Monday evening, May 7th, at 7:30 o'clock. Companions please be present.

F. H. DIKE, H. P. EDW. D. PINE, Sect.

Buy Better at Washington Stores.

FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Fish and Game Association will meet at the probate judge's office tonight at 7:30.

Business of importance is to be transacted, including arrangements for the annual picnic of the association.

CLASSIFIED

LOST—Door key, Saturday night. Finder call Citizens phone 1655. 1331t

LOST—Black Poland China sow, weight 275 lbs., strayed from pasture on Beck's farm, near Staunton. Reward for return of hog. Adam Beck. 1331t

FOR SALE—Child's bed with mattress. Also two high chairs, in good condition. Mrs. Henry Sparks, Citiz. phone 526. 1331t

STUTSON'S JUNE SPECIAL!

A beautiful assortment of

Cut Glass!

MAYONAISE SETS, ICE BOATS, SUGAR AND CREAMS AND ALL SHAPED ODD PIECES

In Effective Cuts and Beautiful Patterns

AT A UNIFORM PRICE OF

$1.00

Many of them worth double

FRANK L. STUTSON.

MATINEE RACES!

Fayette Co. Fair Grounds

Washington C. H., Ohio

FOUR BIG RACES

Free-For-All Race.	Purse	$100.00
2:30 Trot.	Purse	$100.00
Green Pace.	Purse	$25.00
Green Trot.	Purse	$25.00
Auspices of Washington Matinee Club
BENEFIT OF WASHINGTON Y. M. C. A.		ADMISSION 25c

YOUTHFUL AUTO THIEF IS GIVEN FREEDOM SUNDAY

Harold Hurd, the 15-year-old youth arrested in Wilmington after having stolen the Losson Coil automobile in this city last week, and who has been held in the local jail pending a full investigation of his case, has been released and in company with his father, returned to his home in Cincinnati, where he will be placed under the surveillance of the juvenile court.

The boy's release is the result of a searching investigation which failed to break down the lad's story that he had been induced to steal the machine by one Frank Smith, alias George Simmons, of Cincinnati.

The officials, believing that the youngster's act was that of an impulsive, irresponsible youth, or that he really had been induced to steal the machine, decided that he would probably have better prospects for leading a proper life if he were returned to his parents and also placed under the surveillance of the juvenile court.

Sunday the lad was taken out Clinton avenue to see if he could point out the spot where the man Simmons met him while the youngster was leaving the city with the machine. Young Hurd picked out the spot where he claimed Simmons had climbed the fence, and marks on the fence indicated that someone had climbed the fence. However, there was no definite assurance that the man Simmons was the man.

Hurd's father was in the city Saturday night and Sunday, and after all efforts failed to bring more light on the case, the boy was given his freedom.

Owing to the unusual nature of the case the authorities were greatly puzzled as to the best method of dealing with the young culprit.

It is believed by some that the boy was the victim of a well organized set of automobile thieves, while others still hold to the belief that he took the machine in order to get back to Cincinnati.

MOTOR OMNIBUS RUNS INTO POST

One of the big Baker busses, carrying a local delegation of about 20 fans to the ball game at Wilmington Sunday afternoon, left the road about three miles from here on the Wilmington pike and drew up in a ditch squarely against a telephone pole. The car was but little damaged and the passengers not at all, but the former was put "hors du combat" for several hours.

Damon Baker had been driving the car, which left here shortly after noon and had turned the wheel over to Grover Carson while he went inside to collect fares. The latter, in taking the side of the road for another vehicle, got too far over and the machine went into the ditch at the side.

Finding that the car could not be continued on its way Mr. Baker walked back to this city and returned in a touring car for the stranded passengers. He made two trips, bringing about ten each time. The big machine was not taken out of the ditch until its "sister ship," which had preceded it in the morning to Wilmington, returned about 6 p. m.

QUIETLY ANSWERS ETERNAL SUMMONS

After several years of invalidism Mrs. Samuel Stuckey answered the eternal summons at the family residence on the White Oak pike, near Bloomingburg, Sunday morning at 10:10 o'clock, aged 65 years.

Her death causes genuine sorrow among a large family connection in this county and many friends and neighbors who deeply sympathize with the husband and two sons, Mr. Simon Stuckey, near Bloomingburg, and Prof. Loren Stuckey, of Des Moines, Iowa, who have lost a devoted wife and mother.

Mrs. Stuckey was always interested in everything that pertained to the better things of life, and ranked among that band of women known as the Crusaders. She was especially active as far as her health would permit in the work of the Presbyterian church, of Bloomingburg.

Funeral services will be held in the Presbyterian church at Bloomingburg, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

DECISION OF LOWER COURT IS SUSTAINED

In the Jasper township school case styled State of Ohio ex. rel. Fred Clemens against James H. Thompson, which was argued in the Supreme Court some two weeks ago, a decision has been handed down sustaining the decree of the Court of Appeals, which held that Mr. Clemens is entitled to his seat on the Jasper township school board, and that the Board of Education of Fayette county had no power to remove him.

The question of the constitutionality of the School Code, so far as known, was not involved in the decision handed down by the Supreme Court.

Under the decision Mr. Clemens is entitled to continue in office on the board of education in Jasper township, and the defendant is unseated as member of the board to which he was chosen by the county board.

COUNCIL TO MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

The city council meets in regular session tonight at 7:30 and more street improvement legislation is expected.

As usual quite a number of interested citizens are expected to be present.

MARTINSBURG NINE DEFEATS BLOOMINGTON

The New Martinsburg ball team Sunday afternoon defeated Bloomingburg in an easy 8 to 3 game at Martinsburg. Fetherlon and Boyer were the batteries for the local team.

The Palace Theatre

Presents Tuesday, June 8th,

"THE IDLER."

With Charles Richman and Catharine Countiss

And an All-Star Cast including Claire Whitney, Stuart Holmes, Walter Hitchcock and Maud Turner Gordon

Never in the history of the photographic drama has such a cast been assembled as that which makes "THE IDLER" the greatest film ever thrown on the screen. It is a powerful play, perfectly picturized, and written by C. Haddon Chambers.

A Photo-Play Up To The Standard of The Palace

MATINEE at 2:30. Admission, Adults 15c Children 10c

ANOTHER MAN ARRESTED MAKES A CONFESSION

Foster Pearson, one of the men arrested as a result of a confession last week by Riley Justis, indicating the existence of an organized band of chicken, corn and hog thieves in the county, is said by the police to have made a statement Monday bearing out some of the more important features of Justis' confession.

All of the six men arrested are still in jail. No others have been taken into custody by the police.

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES IN COMMON PLEAS

Following is the last assignment of cases for trial in common pleas court:

For trial to Judge Clarence Curtin—Monday, June 14—C. P. West et al. vs. Board of Education, etc.; Ozilia Fulton vs. John A. Fulton et al.

Trial to Jury—Tuesday, June 15—Tudie Carr Michael vs. S. H. Carr et al.; John N. VanDeman vs. Almer Hegler, et al.

Wednesday, June 16—Lewis H. Mark vs. Jesse Proffitt; Jesse E. Proffitt vs. Lewis H. Mark.

Thursday, June 17—American Remedy Co. vs. Wm. Reif, et al.

Monday, June 21—American Seedling Machine Co. vs. A. S. Glascock.

WELL KNOWN FARMER CALLED BY DEATH

Mr. Samuel Van Pelt, well known and highly respected farmer of Paint township, died Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, at his home six miles north of Bloomingburg.

Mr. Van Pelt was one of those kindly big hearted men who win friends everywhere and his death has been leared with deep regret by a host of relatives and friends throughout the county. He is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mrs. A. R. Core, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. Alva Skinner, of London, and Mrs. David Whiteside, of Yatesville. The latter two were with him in his last hours and Mrs. Core arrived from Pittsburg Monday.

Mr. Van Pelt also leaves a sister, Mrs. Hetty Stitt, in Los Angeles, and a brother, John Van Pelt, in Kansas.

Funeral services will be held at the residence Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

STEAM SHOVEL IS NOW IN OPERATION

Monday morning the big steam shovel was placed in operation on Washington avenue to excavate for the new paving. The work of the shovel is attracting quite a little attention.

COLONIAL THEATRE

TODAY

THIS COUPON GOOD FOR 20 VOTES

In Colonial Theater Popular Girl Voting Contest.

Name

(To be placed in Ballot Box at Theater.)

Lucky Girl to receive pleasure trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Void After June 15.

Anyone May Enter.

A Model Wife 1 reel comedy

A Mixup In Dress Suit Cases 2 reel comedy

5c : : ADMISSION : : 5c

TOMORROW

A Man and His Mate

A 4 reel drama featuring Henry Woodruff, a Mutual masterpiece.

YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED IN KENTUCKY

Miss Mamie G. Hagerty and Mr. Charles C. Kregg, of Columbus, surprised their friends by being quietly married in Covington, Ky., Saturday.

The pretty young bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Ryan, of East Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, but has been making her home for some time with Mr. David Hopkins in this city. She is a niece of Mrs. Jesse Blackmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Kreggs will return to this city for a short visit with Mr. Hopkins before taking a wedding trip and expect to make Mr. Hopkins' home their future residence.

Mr. Kreggs is traveling salesman with a well known Columbus house and shares with his bride in the best wishes of many friends.

CONCRETE MIXER AGAIN STARTED

After much delay due to the wet weather, the concrete mixer at the extreme north end of North street was placed in operation Monday morning, and within the next few days it is hoped to lay the remainder of the concrete base for the street.

The brick have been laid as far as the base has been completed, and the grouting work was taken up Monday morning.

Residents on the street are becoming anxious to have the thoroughfare opened to traffic.

HORSE THIEVES HELD TO COURT

Information from Xenia is to the effect that Alfred Butler, of this city, and Lee or Ralph Taylor, of Cedarville, the men arrested in Bainbridge for stealing a horse and buggy and disposing of the stolen outfit in Bainbridge, were bound over to the Greene county grand jury.

The rig was stolen from Brough Rife, of Clifton, who had driven into Cedarville.

STOP!

Safety first means to think first. Have you given your shirts and collars to The Larrimer Laundry Company this week? Call on either phone Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

BALLOTING IN POPULAR GIRL CONTEST IS CLOSE

The balloting in the voting contest of the Colonial Theater for the most popular girl in the city, the winner of which is to get a trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, is close and exciting. The voting began last week and the result to date is announced as follows: Katherine Rothrock, 540; Chloe Anderson, 480; Esther Leland, 420; Mabel Larrimer, 350; Jean Hollingsworth, 210. The voting will continue until the first of August.

Fayette Chapter No. 103 R. A. M. There will be work in the Mark and Past M. degrees on Monday evening, May 7th, at 7:30 o'clock. Companions please be present.

F. H. DIKE, H. P. EDW. D. PINE, Sect.

Buy Better at Washington Stores.

FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Fish and Game Association will meet at the probate judge's office tonight at 7:30.

Business of importance is to be transacted, including arrangements for the annual picnic of the association.

CLASSIFIED

LOST—Door key, Saturday night. Finder call Citizens phone 1655. 13341

LOST—Black Poland China sow, weight 275 lbs., strayed from pasture on Beck's farm, near Staunton. Reward for return of hog. Adam Beck. 13346

FOR SALE—Child's bed with mattress. Also two high chairs, in good condition. Mrs. Henry Sparks, Citiz. phone 526. 13346

STUTSON'S JUNE SPECIAL!

A beautiful assortment of

Cut Glass!

MAYONAISE SETS, ICE BOATS, SUGAR AND CREAMS AND ALL SHAPED ODD PIECES

In Effective Cuts and Beautiful Patterns

AT A UNIFORM PRICE OF

$1.00

Many of them worth double

FRANK L. STUTSON.

In Social Circles

The following account of the joyous wedding from the Portsmouth Times will be of interest to Washington friends of the bride who has frequently been the guest of Miss Edith Hamm, in this city.

Miss Edith Hamm, of Washington C. H., was bridesmaid.

The young people were the recipients of numerous and beautiful gifts.

At 4:23 they left over the Norfolk & Western for Columbus, whence they will go to Detroit, Chicago and other lake points.

About the first of July Mr. and Mrs. Joy will be at home to their friends in a cozy home in Columbus.

Mrs. Otto Tritschler honored her house guest, Mrs. Frank Parrett, of Washington C. H., with a bridge party on Thursday afternoon.

Three tables were formed, and after the spirited play, a delightful two course luncheon was served at the small tables.

Mrs. Loy Hoyt won the prize for the highest score.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Tritschler entertained with a second bridge party, in honor of Mrs. Parrett.

Two tables were formed for the spirited play, Mrs. Parrett gaining the best score. She was awarded a dainty prize by the hostess.

A two-course luncheon was served.

Scioto Gazette.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Jesse Blackmer has returned to a visit in Marrenango.

Mary Boylan visited relatives in Columbus Sunday.

Mrs. A. G. Blessing and Mrs. Georgia Blessing, of Marion, O., were the guests of Mrs. Frank Blessing Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Boynton Gage left Monday morning for Huron, N. Dakota, where he delivers the commencement exercises at Huron College, joining his wife at Okoboji Lake, Iowa, for summer vacation.

Harry Fitzgerald was called to Columbus Saturday evening by the illness of her father, Mr. W. Loofborow.

Miss Elizabeth and Laura Smith Sunday in Columbus, and visited Grace Miller, who continues to improve at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Robert Murray was down from Columbus spending Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Murray.

Berte Coffman has been spending several days at Maple Grove.

Mrs. James Leist and son, Kingston, were the guests of Mr. W. R. Dalbey, over Sunday. Dalbey accompanied her sister to spend the week.

Mrs. Bruce Pine and Mrs. Clifton were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClimans family, at Danville.

T. P. Watts and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eusley, at Sterling, Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Kerr went to Columbus Monday to attend a banquet given by the anti-tubercular society at the Chittenden Hotel.

Mrs. Brown, of Jamestown, is visiting her cousin, Miss Alice Coleman.

Mrs. Robert Baker and daughter, Marjorie, left Saturday for a visit in Sidney.

Dr. Whitford and wife and Mrs. Byron Whitford were shopping visitors here from Sedalia today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Penn and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Holmes were motoring guests in Columbus Sunday.

Misses Helen and Mary Head and Miss Clara Bell De Voss, of Greenfield, were shopping guests in this city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Aumiller, Mrs. John Eddington and daughter Hazel, Mrs. Sam Hanley and son John, of Nelsonville, were week end guests of the Misses Skinner and Mr. Bruce Skinner. On Sunday Misses Lida and May Skinner, with Mr. and Mrs. Aumiller and Mrs. Eddington motored to Circleville to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith have returned from a visit in Columbus, driving down in their new "Dodge" five passenger car. Mrs. Paul Jones of Columbus, accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmid and daughter Katharine May, motored to Columbus Sunday to be the guests of Mr. Russell Evick and family.

The enjoyable family reunion at the Kerr home over Sunday was broken up Monday by the return of Dr. and Mrs. George Kerr and little daughter to Lily Chapel; Mr. W. J. Galvin to Jamestown and Mr. John Zollinger to Piqua. Mrs. Galvin, Mrs. Zollinger and little son will remain till the last of the week.

Mr. V. J. Dahl spent Sunday at Maple Grove Springs.

Mr. John Wright, of Lancaster, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jos. N. Willson, over Sunday, enroute from Cortez, Florida, where he spent the winter. Mr. Tom Wright, motored over Monday to be the Willson's guest for the day and to take Mr. Wright back with him.

Miss Senneth Kellough has returned from a visit in Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chaffin of Jamestown, visited Mr. Chaffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chaffin, Sunday.

Mr. George Kelly and family motored over from Xenia spending Sunday with Washington friends.

County Commissioners Weaver, Brown and Perrill were business visitors in Columbus Monday.

Mrs. Charles Passmore, of St. Louis, Mo., arrives today to be the guest of Mrs. Mary Passmore and daughter.

BIRTHDAY SUPPER.
A very delightful birthday supper was given Mr. Conde S. Ellis, residing 9 miles south of this city, Friday evening. Those who partook of the repast were: Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hook, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Ellis, and little grandson Edward McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fortier.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES
The building was not large enough to accommodate the throng of people who appeared for the Children's Day Service Sunday night. Many were turned away for want of room. The program, "In Cherry Blossom Land," was well rendered, under the direction of Miss Mabel Jones, Bible school superintendent.

The offering for Foreign Missions, thus far, amounts to $30.00. It is expected that this will be increased to $50 within a week.

The official board of the church will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at 7:30, at the church.

The Queen Esther Class of Loyal Women will hold their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Lemons, S. Main street.

The Loyal Daughters class will meet Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Herbert Leach on N. North St.

The Young Men's Bible Class will meet Tuesday evening with their teacher, Miss Kate Williams, on N. North street.

The pastor is arranging a special service for the young people of the church, for Sunday night, June 13. The subject of sermon and program will be announced later in the week. "Is the Bible True?" is the topic for discussion at the mid-week meeting Thursday night, 7:30.

VACUUM CLEANER WEEK! AT CRAIG BROS.

Throughout this week we shall demonstrate on our second floor, (Rug department) both hand and electric cleaners, as follows:—

- Craig Bros' Special hand power $6.50
- Sweeper Vac hand power : $8.50
- Doty Electric : $19.50
- Eureka Electric : $29.50

The above mentioned have been chosen after a complete survey of the various makes on the market, and we are convinced that in their respective classes they stand alone.

We will allow a credit of $1.50 on any sweeper purchased for any vacuum sweeper you may have and wish to dispose of. This offer for this week only.

Vacuum cleaners are no longer luxuries—they are necessities. In labor-saving and sanitary values they are worth many times their cost.

Come In This Week and See Our Demonstration

CRAIG BROS

JUNE PROGRAM WELL PRESENTED

Conservatory pupils made a fine showing at the recital given last Saturday afternoon. The readers were unusually interesting; Virginia Freid, Mary Hagler, Helen Lemmons and Gwendolyn Spangler in bright character sketches, Doris Willis in a beautiful reading with effective piano accompaniment by Helen McKee, and Miss Helen McCoy in a delightfully given Cooke monologue.

An excellent program of music was rendered by piano students, Frank Tracey and Raymond Flee deserve especial mention for the progress made in the few weeks of study.

Among those in the next grade who did careful and commendable work, observing particularly position and phrasing, were Dorothy Post, Virginia and Gwendolyn Baughn.

Alice Reece, Helen Sheridan and Stella West showed careful study, while the interpretation of Doris Kelley and Rosalee Slagle was unusual. The older girls, Gertrude Miller, Helen McKee, Martha McCoy, Mary Baughn, Dorothy Bush, Charlotte Baker and Faye Wood contributed several brilliant numbers from the classics, giving promise of a very enjoyable evening at the Senior Recital, Wednesday, June 16.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO STEAL AN AUTO

An attempt to steal an automobile from the main part of the city was reported Saturday night, but the man who endeavored to get away with the machine barely had time to make good his escape when the owner of the machine suddenly appeared on the scene.

The police are keeping a lookout for auto thieves, and owners of machines are urged to take all precautions to prevent their machines being taken. It is hinted that youthful joy riders have been making use of machines.

PYTHIAN SISTERS.
Regular meeting of Washington Temple No. 380, Tuesday night, June 8th, at 7:30 o'clock.
JANE A. GARDNER, M. E. C.
IDA C. GILLESPIE, M. of R. & C.

OUT OF WORKHOUSE RIGHT BACK TO JAIL

Pat Doorley was arrested Monday night by Officer Bell and received $5 and costs when arraigned on a charge of drunkenness before the mayor Monday. He will work out his penalty on the streets.

Doorley was just released Thursday from the Xenia workhouse where he served out two fines of the same character.

LEAPS UPON CAR SUFFERS INJURIES

A lad of some ten years nearly met with serious injury, Monday morning, by falling from a passing automobile upon which he had leaped to steal a ride.

The lad was removed to the office of a physician, who gave him attention.

The police expect to keep a lookout for boys who are in the habit of leaping upon passing machines, and to punish them according to the law governing the offense.

STATE LEVY SAME AS THAT OF 1914

Auditor Henkle has received from Auditor of State A. V. Donahey, the certification of the State Tax Levy, which is identical to that of last year when a sharp reduction was made in the rate.

The levy is divided up as follows:

Sinking Fund0025
University Fund0925
State common school fund055
State highway improvement300
Total45

TIES SLIP
In Collars laundered at The Larrimer Laundry Company. Try and see; both phones, Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

THE PALACE THEATRE

TONIGHT
CHARLIE CHAPLIN
The highest salaried comedian in motion pictures, in
THE TRAMP 2 reels of Comedy
That is Comedy
"PERE GOREIT," A Biograph Drama in two parts

The Airdome

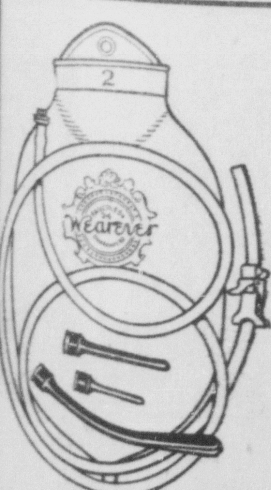

TONIGHT
HARRY MYERS and ROSEMARY THEBY
In a Two-Part Victor
Playing With Fire
Change in Lovers |Drama
Elko Comedy

KEEP COOL

Buy a
Rezer Electric Fan
8 inch Fans $6.50.

VACUUM CLEANERS

For Rent
75c a Day
Johnson Electric Co.
Cor. Court and Hinde Sts.

Christopher
Opposite Court House

"WEAREVER" Fountain Syringes

A good fountain syringe is a summer necessity, it prevents minor disorders due to hot weather and changes in drinking water and atmosphere when you go away.

The No. 24 "WEAREVER" is our leading value. Moulded-Seamless construction. No seams or bindings. Maroon color; smooth, sanitary finish and high grade in every respect. Complete outfit, including tubing, pipes and shut-off. Fully guaranteed. Full 2 quart capacity, only $1.50

Drugs
That's My Business

In Social Circles

The following account of the joyous wedding from the Portsmouth Times will be of interest to Washington friends of the bride, who has frequently been the guest of Miss Edith Hamm, in this city.

Unassuming, but beautiful, the wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 2:30, at the pleasant South home of Editor and Mrs. J. W. Waverly.

At that hour Dr. J. C. Jackson, of the rectory, recited the ceremony united in marriage Miss Carsa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Joy of Detroit.

The parlor of the home was appropriately decorated with June flowers and wild ferns. Preparation for the ceremony, Miss Pauline Waverly, sang "Be- God Gives Me You," to a accompaniment by Mrs. How- Slitt, of Washington C. H.

Forty guests were present from Detroit, Columbus, Lancaster, Portsmouth, Washing- H. Chillicothe and Jackson. H. Johnson, editor of the Ohio Herald, and brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Jesse Blackmer has returned a visit in Marrengo.

Mary Boylan visited relatives Columbus Sunday.

Mrs. A. G. Blessing and Miss Georgia Blessing, of personville, were the guests of and Mrs. Frank Blessing Sun-

Mr. Wm. Boynton Gage left Mon- morning for Huron, N. Dakota, he delivers the commencement at Huron College, joining his later at Okoboji Lake, Iowa, for summer vacation.

Harry Fitzgerald was called Columbus Saturday evening by the illness of her father, Mr. Loofborow.

Elizabeth and Laura Smith Sunday in Columbus, and visit- Grace Miller, who continues approve at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Robert Murray was down from Co- spending Sunday with his Mrs. and Mrs. Art Murray.

Berte Coffman has been spend- several days at Maple Grove

Mrs. James Leist and son, dagston, were the guests of Mr. Mrs. W. R. Dalbey, over Sunday. Dalbey accompanied her sister to spend the week.

Mrs. Bruce Pine and Mrs. Clifton were the Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClimans family, at Danville.

T. P. Watts and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eusley, Sterling, Sunday.

KEEP COOL

Buy a

Rezer Electric Fan

8 inch Fans $6.50.

VACUUM CLEANERS

For Rent

75c a Day

son Electric Co.

or. Court and Hinde Sts.

"WEAREVER"

Fountain Syringes

A good fountain syringe is a summer necessity, it prevents minor disorders due to hot weather and changes in drinking water and atmosphere when you go away.

The No. 24 "WEAREVER" is our leading value. Moulded-Seamless construction. No seams or bindings. Ma- roon color, smooth, sanitary finish and high grade in every respect. Complete outfit, including tubing, pipes and shut-off. Fully guaranteed. Full 2 quart capacity, only $1.50

Christopher

Drugs

Opposite Court House

That's My Business

Mrs. Josephine Kerr went to Co- lumbus Monday to attend a banquet given by the anti-tubercular society at the Chittenden Hotel.

Mrs. Brown, of Jamestown, is visiting her cousin, Miss Alice Cole- man.

Mrs. Robert Baker and daughter, Marjorie, left Saturday for a visit in Sidney.

Dr. Whitford and wife and Mrs. Byron Whitford were shopping visit- ors here from Sedalia today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Penn and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Holmes were motoring guests in Co- lumbus Sunday.

Misses Helen and Mary Head and Miss Clara Bell De Voss, of Green- field, were shopping guests in this city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Aumiller, Mrs. John Eddington and daughter Hazel, Mrs. Sam Hanley and son John, of Nelsonville, were week end guests of the Misses Skinner and Mr. Bruce Skinner. On Sunday Misses Lida and May Skinner, with Mr. and Mrs. Aumiller and Mrs. Eddington motor- ed to Circleville to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith have returned from a visit in Columbus, driving down in their new "Dodge" five passenger car. Mrs. Paul Jones of Columbus, accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmid and daughter Katharine May, motored to Columbus Sunday to be the guests of Mr. Russell Evick and family.

The enjoyable family reunion at the Kerr home over Sunday was broken up Monday by the return of Dr. and Mrs. George Kerr and little daughter to Lily Chapel; Mr. W. J. Galvin to Jamestown and Mr. John Zollinger to Piqua. Mrs. Galvin, Mrs. Zollinger and little son will re- main till the last of the week.

Mr. V. J. Dahl spent Sunday at Maple Grove Springs.

Mr. John Wright, of Lancaster, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jos. N. Wilson, over Sunday, enroute from Cortez, Florida, where he spent the winter. Mr. Tom Wright, motor- ed over Monday to be the Willson's guest for the day and to take Mr. Wright back with him.

Miss Senneth Kellough has return- from a visit in Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chaffin of Jamestown, visited Mr. Chaffin's par- ents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chaffin, Sun- day.

Mr. George Kelly and family motored over from Xenia spending Sunday with Washington friends.

County Commissioners Weaver, Brown and Perrill were business visitors in Columbus Monday.

Mrs. Charles Passmore, of St. Louis, Mo., arrives today to be the guest of Mrs. Mary Passmore and daughter.

BIRTHDAY SUPPER.
A very delightful birthday supper was given Mr. Conde S. Ellis, resid- ing 9 miles south of this city, Fri- day evening. Those who partook of the repast were: Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hook, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Ellis, and little grandson Edward McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fortier.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES
The building was not large enough to accommodate the throng of peo- ple who appeared for the Children's Day Service Sunday night. Many were turned away for want of room. The program, "In Cherry Blossom Land," was well rendered, under the direction of Miss Mabel Jones, Bible school superintendent.

The offering for Foreign Missions, thus far, amounts to $30.90. It is expected that this will be increased to $50 within a week.

The official board of the church will hold its regular monthly meet- ing this evening at 7:30, at the church.

The Queen Esther Class of Loyal Women will hold their monthly meet- ing Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Lemons, S. Main street.

The Loyal Daughters class will meet Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Herbert Leach on N. North St.

The Young Men's Bible Class will meet Tuesday evening with their teacher, Miss Kate Williams, on N. North street.

The pastor is arranging a special service for the young people of the church, for Sunday night, June 13. The subject of sermon and program will be announced later in the week.

"Is the Bible True?" is the topic for discussion at the mid-week meet- ing Thursday night, 7:30.

VACUUM CLEANER WEEK!

AT CRAIG BROS.

Throughout this week we shall demonstrate on our second floor, (Rug department) both hand and electric cleaners, as follows:—

Craig Bros' Special hand power $6.50

Sweeper Vac

hand power : $8.50

Doty Elec- tric : $19.50

Eureka Elec- tric : $29.50

The above mentioned have been chosen after a com- plete survey of the various makes on the market, and we are convinced that in their respective classes they stand alone.

We will allow a credit of $1.50 on any sweeper pur- chased for any vacuum sweeper you may have and wish to dispose of. This offer for this week only.

Vacuum cleaners are no longer luxuries—they are necessities. In labor- saving and sanitary values they are worth many times their cost.

Come In This Week and See Our Demonstration

CRAIG BROS

JUNE PROGRAM WELL PRESENTED
Conservatory pupils made a fine showing at the recital given last Sat- urday afternoon. The readers were unusually interesting; Virginia Freid, Mary Hagler, Helen Lemmons and Gwendolyn Spangler in bright character sketches, Doris Willis in a beautiful reading with effective piano accompaniment by Helen Mc- Kee, and Miss Helen McCoy in a delightfully given Cooke monologue.

An excellent program of music was rendered by piano students. Frank Tracey and Raymond Flee de- serve special mention for the pro- gress made in the few weeks of study. Among those in the next grade who did careful and commendable work, observing particularly position and phrasing, were Dorothy Post, Vir- ginia and Gwendolyn Baughn.

Alice Reece, Helen Sheridan and Stella West showed careful study, while the interpretation of Doris Kelley and Rosalee Slagle was un- usual. The older girls, Gertrude Miller, Helen McKee, Martha Mc- Coy, Mary Baughn, Dorothy Bush, Charlotte Baker and Faye Wood con- tributed several brilliant numbers from the classics, giving promise of a very enjoyable evening at the Sen- ior Recital, Wednesday, June 16.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO STEAL AN AUTO
An attempt to steal an automobile from the main part of the city was reported Saturday night, but the man who endeavored to get away with the machine barely had time to make good his escape when the owner of the machine suddenly appeared on the scene.

The police are keeping a lookout for auto thieves, and owners of ma- chines are urged to take all precau- tions to prevent their machines be- ing taken. It is hinted that youth- ful joy riders have been making use of machines.

PYTHIAN SISTERS.
Regular meeting of Washington Temple No. 380, Tuesday night, June 8th, at 7:30 o'clock.

JANE A. GARDNER, M. E. C.
IDA C. GILLESPIE, M. of R. & C.

OUT OF WORKHOUSE RIGHT BACK TO JAIL
Pat Doorley was arrested Monday night by Officer Bell and received $5 and costs when arraigned on a charge of drunkenness before the mayor Monday. He will work out his penalty on the streets.

Doorley was just released Thurs- day from the Xenia workhouse where he served out two fines of the same character.

LEAPS UPON CAR SUFFERS INJURIES
A lad of some ten years nearly met with serious injury, Monday morning, by falling from a passing automobile upon which he had leaped to steal a ride.

The lad was removed to the office of a physician, who gave him atten- tion.

The police expect to keep a look- out for boys who are in the habit of leaping upon passing machines, and to punish them according to the law governing the offense.

STATE LEVY SAME AS THAT OF 1914

Auditor Henkle has received from Auditor of State A. V. Donahey, the certification of the State Tax Levy, which is identical to that of last year when a sharp reduction was made in the rate.

The levy is divided up as follows:

Sinking Fund9925
University Fund9925
State common school fund655
State highway improvement309
Total45

TIES SLIP
In Collars laundered at The Larrimer Laundry Company. Try and see; both phones, Bell 188w; Citiz. 521.

THE PALACE THEATRE

TONIGHT

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

The highest salaried comedian in motion pictures, in

THE TRAMP

2 reels of Comedy That is Comedy

"PERE GOREIT,"

A Biograph Drama in two parts

The Airdome

TONIGHT

HARRY MYERS and ROSEMARY THEBY

In a Two-Part Victor

Playing With Fire

Change in Lovers

Elko Comedy

WHO PAYS?

The LOVE & EDWIN LIARS BLISS

(Copyright, 1915, by Pathe Exchange, Inc. All Rights Reserved.)

FOURTH STORY

The door of No. 492 trembled violently, then lunged from its hinges and the two policemen leaped into the office. The clod that had been Charles Leed, investment broker, sprawled in a swivel chair, his head and the right hand, still gripping the revolver, reaching nervously out upon the littered desk.

The desk blotter was still a bit damp. A newspaper scare head there had been heavily marked by a 6B lead pencil:

"TITAN SHIP COMPANY FORCED TO WALL."

"War smashes Gigantic Enterprise—Mysterious Unknown Financier Behind T. S. Co. Loses Entire Investment."

A tiny memorandum slip, torn hurriedly from a book, with the names of the city's twelve principal banks and trust companies lay upon the floor. And that was all.

The Mirror's police reporter slipped into their puzzled conference.

"Sergeant told me a man 'phoned in he was going to kill himself here," he explained. "What do you boys make of it?"

"Well, you've got to hand it to the guy—he made good," Officer Carney answered. "Ought to make a big story, Harvey. Leed was dirty with money—wasn't he?"

The reporter smiled at the inference that a suicide never takes the biggest jump until his money is gone. Inwardly, he was laughing at their bewilderment. A good story? Why, it was a whale, a triple-decker of a story! And a story plainly written!

Charles Leed, the eminently wealthy investment broker, had been the Mysterious Unknown who shoveled millions so carelessly into the smashed ship company. With the last glimmering of hope he had written the wealthy heiress, Miss Selma Ashton, that her millions had been a part of those swept away. But why Selma Ashton, unless she had made a recent demand for money that hastened the climax? The blotter, turned upside down against the mirror, had spelled out the substance of the broker's last note. He consulted again the memorandum slip. Undoubtedly, he had it correctly.

Leed was the mysterious backer of the Titan company. The Titan company smashed. Selma Ashton inconveniently required money. Leed tackled the banks and trust companies mentioned on the slip for aid but without success. Then—a subject for the coroner.

Mrs. Pressley's lips compressed as she read David Dwight's note. The thought of his marriage to the beautiful creature just across the tea things was repugnant to her.

Selma Ashton checked the laugh upon her lips, a roguish gleam fighting her eyes. Under lowered lashes she mused aloud.

"He's a dear, old man," she murmured as though to herself, studying the shades of disgust upon Mrs. Pressley's countenance with infinite relish. "He's got simply millions and his wife would get it all, and they say a private physician devotes all his time to keeping him alive from hour to hour."

Mrs. Pressley's nose upturned.

"He's so sweet and kindly," Selma sighed. "And even though he is old and feeble you can see for yourself the flame of love burns strong in his heart. Right on the heels of his note he announces he will come to put his important question. A perfect Loch-invar, my dear!"

She threw back her head, bursting into peal after peal of ringing laughter. Mrs. Pressley drew herself erect, uncertain whether to assume an air of injured dignity or to join in the mirth.

"You dear old thing!" Selma gasped. "Of course, I haven't any idea of marrying him. In the first place he's old, and in the second place he's not the man I want, and in the third place he isn't the man I want to marry and never could be. But you were so funny when you thought me in earnest. Just for that I'll forgive your scolding about my asking Mr. Leed to send me a hundred thousand dollars. Now, we must be ready to receive the eager wooer."

Her companion ordered the butler to clear the tea table, then slowly followed the beautiful girl up the stairs. She could hear Selma dismissing her maid and moved into the hall, accompanying her to the drawing room. She hurriedly started to withdraw at a flutter of the door-bell but halted inquiringly as the butler entered with a note for his mistress.

The companion gazed with increasing wonderment at the young heiress. A few moments before she had walked down the stairs with the radiant creature, the happy, care-free girl. And now, in the space of time it took for her eyes to travel across the lines of a briefly scrawled note, all the girl's face had faded away, leaving the hard speculative expression there of a cold, calculating, scheming woman.

All Moving Picture Rights and all Foreign Rights Reserved.

Mrs. Pressley took the note from the outstretched hand. It was brief, cruelly brief and arrogant, the note of the suicide broker who seemed to think his atonement made by the mere snuffing out of his own existence. Everything the girl possessed wiped out by the smash of the Titan Ship company!

The door bell pealed and she started violently. Her eyes fastened appealingly, half afraid, upon the girl. But Selma Ashton did not see her, immersed in her own thoughts. At the sound of the bell, her shoulders had straightened.

She turned slowly toward the door, half rising as the butler announced David Dwight. Her eyes met those of her companion, and there was a defiant expression in them, defiant yet triumphant. A nod of the head, sharp, decisive, dismissed the woman who started to protest against the sacrifice she could see the girl had determined to make.

David Dwight had not gained his millions through procrastination. He had come decisively to the point. And yet there was something splendid about him that made the older woman's heart go out to him. She repressed a little cry of pain as she caught the tremolo that all unconsciously crept into his voice.

"I do not want you to marry me, Selma, unless you love me. I want you more than anything in the world—but not that much. Not without love, Selma, for I—I know what love means—now."

Came a scuffle at the door, following the bell. She could hear the butler's voice raised in protest against some intrusion, then the awkward scraping of feet immediately preceding an intruder's rush toward the room where the pair were. Mrs. Pressley peered through the portieres curiously. The newcomer was very young and very breathless and very disheveled from his encounter with the butler, who was hurriedly pursuing his hand outstretched as though to grasp the intruder by the arm. Dwight rose angrily.

"Mirror reporter, Miss Ashton! Charles Leed is a suicide after misappropriating your fortune to prop up the Titan Ship company. Anything to say?"

With superb art, the girl half rose from the divan. She reached out her hands as though to support herself, then sank gently back, staring incredulously at the reporter. The butler had his hand upon the fellow's shoulder and David Wright seized the other, hustling him toward the door.

It Was a Whale of a Story the Reporter Found.

Mrs. Pressley could not forego a final glance. Selma Ashton was smiling, but the smile died away as, patting his waistcoat which had become disarranged in the struggle, Dwight re-entered the room and stood looking down at her.

"You did not know, Selma?" He put the question softly, as though fearful of asking but eager for the answer. "You did not know before?"

"I understood—what you mean—" she said, quietly, but with a cutting incisiveness that showed the depth of her hurt. "You mean—that?" Her voice trembled, broke completely, as she found herself unable to voice the remainder of her sentence.

III. There is no poison more subtle nor effective than self-indulgence. Like a narcotic it grips the moral sense and submerges completely every feeling of obligation. But, as with all drugs, there are moments when the effect is bound to wear off and then all the spectral horrors that gape and grin at the addict have their hour.

Times there were when this hour visited Selma, driving her into deceptions for which she hated herself but which caused an intense, unreasoning loathing to rise within her against the price she had paid whereby to drug herself.

There was that terrible time when David Dwight asked her to drink to their future happiness. Clear as a deep-toned bell, two words only of the marriage ritual dinned at her ears, throbbed at her stupefied brain. Until death—Until death—Until death—

At her new home she bore herself regally as she met the servants, and was introduced to Doctor Holland, the young man who was in constant attendance on her husband. As his hand touched hers she felt an instant, unexplained sympathy for him.

Week trod upon the heels of week until Selma became conscious that she was keeping track of time, was counting days. She knew in her heart, yet would not admit to herself that time could never begin for her until she was freed from David Dwight.

Came the fear that something of this thought might be apparent to the man. And so by look, word and act she strove the more zealously to deceive him.

It was the third month that she came upon him in the library, came upon him and paused swiftly to retreat if her entrance had not been observed. She caught the rustle of skirts and, looking up, saw Mrs. Pressley and Doctor Holland in a corner of the room. The expression upon the companion's face was peculiarly accusing and yet triumphant, while that upon the countenance of Doctor Holland, as their eyes met, was half-pity, half—she trembled violently as she tried to analyze exactly what the remainder of that expression told.

Though she had fought bitterly against it, there was something so virile, so young, so intrepid about the man's fight that she had admired him, even though she knew the thing he fought for made him the bitterest enemy she could have owned. This admiration she knew was more than reciprocated.

Dwight turned in his chair and she moved toward him. There was the light of a great happiness in his eyes, an expression which seemed to glorify the man. There was something so tremendously splendid about her husband and something so delicately fine and sensitive that seemed continually asserting itself in his face, causing such hot self-recrimination to arise within herself that she hated him for the torture he innocently caused.

There was something electrical in the very air of the room, something that caused her to be afraid. Dwight took her hand, resting it upon his chest, fondling it tenderly. The physician and Mrs. Pressley moved softly from the room. She looked at the millionaire's face more intently, her heart fluttering as she saw some great change there. And now, with a great wave of self-hatred at the criminality of the thought, she read it for what it was.

David Dwight, her husband, this man to whom she was bound for life, was a well man. David Dwight had regained his health. That life which for so long a time had been aflutter was now fixed and rigidly in place.

Even as he drew her soft cheek to his own, kissing her softly, tenderly, she felt herself go cold. She knew he was about to speak, about to tell her of the miracle and felt that she could stand no more now. She was stifling. She must get away before she betrayed herself.

Muttering an excuse she lunged blindly up the stairs to her own room.

Snatching a scarf she groped her way to the garden, fighting down the bitterness within her heart. She seated herself on a bench in the little summer house, staring sightlessly before her, fighting desperately.

She looked up quickly at slow footsteps, her eyes lighting as Doctor Holland strolled down the walk, a book in his hand. For just a second she thought him about to pass on, after bowing to her, then, with a little shrug he seated himself beside her. She did not wish him there and still she was glad of his presence. She could not understand the conflict of absolutely antithetical emotions the man stirred up within her. Looking furtively at his troubled face she could see he was in no mood for chatter on trivialities.

In the flurry of the moment she reached out to take the book from his hands. It rested beside her, but her nerves seemed stunned, anesthetized. Something had seemed to break within the very soul of her at the contact of his fingers. She could not move from that magnetic touch.

Slowly, gently, so slightly as to be almost imperceptible, his fingers closed upon her own—just enough so she was aware the man knew what he was doing. She lifted her eyes, desperately, pleadingly.

Some power from outside herself caught and held her, breathless and afraid. Doctor Holland rose swiftly, his face wearing the expression of one who has looked upon deadly danger and wishes, yet is afraid, to embrace it. Without a word he turned upon his heel and strode toward the house.

With lips parted, Selma stared before her. She knew now that the great doctor had come to her with his demand for payment in full. And she knew that evasion of the debt was—

The rustle of a petticoat caused her to look up in quick anger. Mrs. Pressley stood before her, an accusing, righteous expression on her face that told the young wife instantly the scene that had just transpired was no secret to the companion. In a fit of anger, Selma dismissed her from her service and she went straight to the husband, with her story.

IV.

Dwight looked up from the note Mrs. Pressley had just thrust into his hands, a little puzzled. He had not known before that the suicide broker had notified Selma of the embezzlement of her fortune. Still, what of it now? And why was the unusually good-natured lady in such a towering rage?

"But, my dear Mrs. Pressley, why do you give this to me?" he queried. "It merely states what you and I and all the world know—that Mrs. Dwight's fortune was embezzled. Oh, I see," he cried, a great glow of understanding coming upon him, "the note reached your hands and you kept it from Selma, fearing the shock."

Caressing the Husband She Does Not Love.

"The note, Mr. Dwight, came before you asked Mrs. Dwight to marry you," the companion interrupted sharply. "You had written a trifle earlier that you intended proposing that evening. Miss Ashton told me that she intended refusing you. Then came this word from Leed—and she married you."

Dwight smiled incredulously, though grim lines had formed about the corners of his mouth.

You—had—better—go—immediately—" He clipped off the words like steel particles. Mrs. Pressley turned in her hurried retreat but there was something in those eyes that checked her.

For a long time the millionaire stood there, his arm rigidly outstretched as though he would drive from the room the evil thoughts the desperate woman had left behind. Then he laughed, laughed with an attempt at lightness. The crumpled ball of paper fell to the floor from his hand.

Slowly, slowly he reached down and picked it up, tucking it in his pocket carefully. Then he sank back in the big chair, thinking, thinking.

It was a month after the discharge of Mrs. Pressley that he stealthily moved from his chair in the library as Selma slipped out into the night air, followed shortly by Doctor Holland. He had tried to convince himself that the change in manner toward him on his wife's part was due to some intuition of reading of his thoughts. Even now he fought against the impulse which caused him to spy on the pair.

Clearly silhouetted against the night he made out her figure. Her face was covered with her hands and he could see she was sobbing silently to herself. Doctor Holland was strolling toward her, yet Dwight was aware that the physician had not seen her. He slipped quickly behind a stone pillar.

He caught the uncertainty, the surprise of the doctor as he caught sight of the woman. He caught the impulse of the man to comfort her, saw the fighting down of that impulse. Then Doctor Holland placed his hand upon her shoulder, his voice but the gentlest whisper of a sound as he called her name. She turned and looked up at him, then swiftly, some iron band of self-restraint within her snapped, and she flung her arms about his neck.

With her head resting upon his chest he murmured words which thundered back to the millionaire behind the pillar, killing something inside the very soul of the man, even as it quickened the life in his body.

Suddenly Selma drew away, crouching, fearful, as she regarded the man toward whom she had gone in her hour of weakness. Dwight leaned forward the better to listen. Her voice was broken, wild with a passionate despair as it rang in his ears.

"No—No—You must not. You must go. I will—I must be true to him while he lives. You must go—you must—"

David Dwight turned quickly and groped his way back to the house. In the hall he paused uncertainly, his hand upon the knob of the library door as though he had just come from there. Selma entered and he called softly, tenderly to her, putting his arm about her, kissing her tenderly, even as he reached out and clasped the hand of Dr. Holland, who came in immediately after her.

Slowly the pair moved up the stairs

(Continued on Page Seven.)

Casserole Coupon

worth ten cents and Samples of Perfection Bluing Tablets will be given you Free, by your Grocer-Ask him

TEUTONS PRESS TOWARD LEMBERG

London, June 7.—The two Austro-German armies which are pressing in two directions toward Lemberg, the last Russian base in the province, are meeting a desperate resistance at the hands of the czar's troops. Though the official statements issued in Berlin and Petrograd disagree, both give indications of hard struggles which promise that the final settlement of the issue will be delayed several days at least.

From Petrograd comes the announcement that the Austro-German attacks on Russian positions near the village of Krutsk, eight miles south of Moscia, have been repulsed with heavy losses to the Teutons. The further announcement is made that the Russians have captured several German trenches on the right bank of the San, between the Lubaczowka and Sklo rivers, in the neighborhood of Korzenica.

A further advance by the Russians is indicated by the announcement that they have retaken the village of Starzawa, on the left bank of the Wislnia, which the Teutonic forces captured soon after the evacuation of Przemyśl. Petrograd does not assume to believe that anything like a definite check has been administered to General Von Mackensen, for the official statement adds that "the Germans still maintain a hold on the neighboring heights." According to Berlin the Russians have been forced as far as Moscia.

ITALIANS MAKE MORE PROGRESS

Rome, June 7.—While the military operations on the entire front of the Trentino frontiers are limited to artillery duels, the Italians are making progress at every point, according to a report from General Cadorna, the chief of the general staff. The report says the Italian artillery is vastly superior to that of the Austrians.

The first official information of the movements of the Italian fleet since the opening of hostilities was given out when the ministry of marine told of a raid by a naval division on the coast of Dalmatia. Lighthouses were bombarded and destroyed and serious damage was caused to the railway from Ragusa to Cattaro, which has been supplying munitions to the Austrian garrison in the latter port, besieged for ten months by the Montenegrins.

Austrian troops have been withdrawn from Trieste and the police are making no effort to prevent looting. The streetcars have ceased running, and the trolley wires and other copper fittings have been requisitioned for the army. The railroad between Trieste and Kobarina has been cut. Food is lacking in the city.

Vienna reports that the Italian troops on the frontier have refrained from approaching the Austrian positions.

GRECIAN KING UNDER THE KNIFE

Athens, June 7.—The operation on King Constantine was performed under local anesthesia and took fifty minutes. About two and three-fourths inches of the eighth rib on the right side was removed to assist in the discharge from the pleura. The king suffered considerable pain after the operation.

Fertilizers for Lawns, Flowers, Trees and Gardens. Florence S. Ustick, Sales Agent. Goods in stock at C. F. Bonham's.

NYAL'S Sarsaparilla!

We Recommend and Guarantee to Purify The Blood.

For Pimples, Pustulas, Tet-ter or Salt Rheum, Blotches, Tumors, Boils, Ring Worm, Ulcers and Scrofula,

If you need a good Blood Tonic try this

BALDWIN'S DRUG STORE

Arlington Hotel Block. Both Phones 52.

CRITICISED U. S. CAN'T COME HOME

Berlin, June 7.—The passports of two American citizens living at Dresden, Leon Raines and Karl Racknagel, have been ordered revoked by the American embassy, on instructions from the state department at Washington. The men, it is said, adversely criticised the American government in the present crisis and declared in a newspaper article that they were ashamed of their citizenship.

CINCINNATI RAISES HOW

Cincinnati, June 7.—Cincinnati organizations prepared to voice a protest to President Wilson and the department of justice against the removal of the office of the district attorney from this city to Columbus. Hardly had the news of the announcement of District Attorney-Elect Stuart R. Bolin to the effect that he would make Columbus his headquarters reached here than a movement was started to urge a reconsideration.

THE OLD RELIABLE STILL IN THE LEAD

Sugar peas—they are extra fine 10c per pound.
Green beans 10c per lb.
Cucumbers 5c each
New tomatoes 10c per lb; 3 lbs, 25c
New beets, 3 bunches for 10c
Oranges, pineapples, bananas, new potatoes, radishes, lettuce, green onions, asparagus.
Green currants per qt 10c
No. 1 Ryo coffee per lb. 12c
Fancy dried peaches per lb 10c
Will have plenty of strawberries Saturday. Nice old potatoes.

J. W. DUFFEE & CO., The Old Reliable Cash Grocer. Both phones NO. 77.

ALBERT R. McCO Funeral Director and Embalmer. Office 222 E. Court St. Bell office, 27; residence, 9 R. City office, 27; residence 541.

WHO PAYS?

The LOVE & LIARS

EDWIN BLISS

(Copyright, 1915, by Pathe Exchange, Inc. All Rights Reserved.)

FOURTH STORY

The door of No. 492 trembled violently, then lunged from its hinges and the two policemen leaped into the office. The clod that had been Charles Leed, investment broker, sprawled in a swivel chair, his head and the right hand, still gripping the revolver, reaching nervelessly out upon the littered desk.

The desk blotter was still a bit damp. A newspaper scare head there had been heavily marked by a 6B lead pencil:

"TITAN SHIP COMPANY FORCED TO WALL."

"War smashes Gigantic Enterprise—Mysterious Unknown Financier Behind T. S. Co. Loses Entire Investment."

A tiny memorandum slip, torn hurriedly from a book, with the names of the city's twelve principal banks and trust companies lay upon the floor. And that was all.

The Mirror's police reporter slipped into their puzzled conference.

"Sergeant told me a man phoned in he was going to kill himself here," he explained. "What do you boys make of it?"

"Well, you've got to hand it to the guy—he made good," Officer Carney answered. "Ought to make a big story, Harvey. Leed was dirty with money—wasn't he?"

The reporter smiled at the inference that a suicide never takes the biggest jump until his money is gone. Inwardly, he was laughing at their bewilderment. A good story? Why, it was a whale, a triple-decker of a story! And a story plainly written!

Charles Leed, the eminently wealthy investment broker, had been the Mysterious Unknown who shoveled millions so carelessly into the smashed ship company. With the last glimmering of hope he had written the wealthy heiress, Miss Selma Ashton, that her millions had been a part of those swept away. But why Selma Ashton, unless she had made a recent demand for money that hastened the climax? The blotter, turned upside down against the mirror, had spelled out the substance of the broker's last note. He consulted again the memorandum slip. Undoubtedly, he had it correctly.

Leed was the mysterious backer of the Titan company. The Titan company smashed. Selma Ashton inconveniently required money. Leed tackled the banks and trust companies mentioned on the slip for aid but without success. Then—a subject for the coroner.

Mrs. Pressley's lips compressed as she read David Dwight's note. The thought of his marriage to the beautiful creature just across the tea things was repugnant to her.

Selma Ashton checked the laugh upon her lips, a roguish gleam lighting her eyes. Under lowered lashes she mused aloud.

"He's a dear, old man," she murmured as though to herself, studying the shades of disgust upon Mrs. Pressley's countenance with infinite relish. "He's got simply millions and his wife would get it all, and they say a private physician devotes all his time to keeping him alive from hour to hour."

Mrs. Pressley's nose upturned.

"He's so sweet and kindly," Selma sighed. "And even though he is old and feeble you can see for yourself the flame of love burns strong in his heart. Right on the heels of his note he announces he will come to put his important question. A perfect Loch-anvar, my dear!"

She threw back her head, bursting into peal after peal of ringing laughter. Mrs. Pressley drew herself erect, uncertain whether to assume an air of injured dignity or to join in the mirth.

"You dear old thing!" Selma gasped. "Of course, I haven't any idea of marrying him. In the first place he's old, and in the second place he's not the man I want, and in the third place he isn't the man I want to marry and never could be. But you were so funny when you thought me in earnest. Just for that I'll forgive your scolding about my asking Mr. Leed to send me a hundred thousand dollars. Now, we must be ready to receive the eager wooer."

Her companion ordered the butler to clear the tea table, then slowly followed the beautiful girl up the stairs.

She could hear Selma dismissing her maid and moved into the hall, accompanying her to the drawing room. She hurriedly started to withdraw at a flutter of the door-bell but halted inquiringly as the butler entered with a note for his mistress.

The companion gazed with increasing wonderment at the young heiress. A few moments before she had walked down the stairs with the radiant creature, the happy, care-free girl. And now, in the space of time it took for her eyes to travel across the lines all the spectral horrors that gape and grin at the addict have their hour. Times there were when this hour visited Selma, driving her into deceptions for which she hated herself but which caused an intense, unreasoning loathing to rise within her against the price she had paid whereby to drug herself.

There was that terrible time when David Dwight asked her to drink to their future happiness. Clear as a deep-toned bell, two words only of the marriage ritual dinned at her ears, throbbed at her stupefied brain. Until death—Until death—Until death—

At her new home she bore herself regally as she met the servants, and was introduced to Doctor Holland, the young man who was in constant attendance on her husband. As his hand touched hers she felt an instant, unexplained sympathy for him.

Week trod upon the heels of week until Selma became conscious that she was keeping track of time, was counting days. She knew in her heart, yet would not admit to herself that time could never begin for her until she was freed from David Dwight.

Came the fear that something of this thought might be apparent to the man. And so by look, word and act she strove the more zealously to deceive him.

It was the third month that she came upon him in the library, came upon him and paused swiftly to retreat if her entrance had not been observed. She caught the rustle of skirts and, looking up, saw Mrs. Pressley and Doctor Holland in a corner of the room. The expression upon the companion's face was peculiarly accusing and yet triumphant, while that upon the countenance of Doctor Holland, as their eyes met, was half-pity, half—she trembled violently as she tried to analyze exactly what the remainder of that expression told.

Though she had fought bitterly against it, there was something so virile, so young, so intrepid about the man's fight that she had admired him, even though she knew the thing he fought for made him the bitterest enemy she could have owned. This admiration she knew was more than reciprocated.

Dwight turned in his chair and she moved toward him. There was the light of a great happiness in his eyes, an expression which seemed to glorify the man. There was something so tremendously splendid about her husband and something so delicately fine and sensitive that seemed continually asserting itself in his face, causing such hot self-recrimination to arise within herself that she hated him for the torture he innocently caused.

There was something electrical in the very air of the room, something that caused her to be afraid. Dwight took her hand, resting it upon his chest, fondling it tenderly. The physician and Mrs. Pressley moved softly from the room. She looked at the millionaire's face more intently, her heart fluttering as she saw some great change there. And now, with a great wave of self-hatred at the criminality of the thought, she read it for what it was.

David Dwight, her husband, this man to whom she was bound for life, was a well man. David Dwight had regained his health. That life which for so long a time had been aflutter was now fixed and rigidly in place.

Even as he drew her soft cheek to his own, kissing her softly, tenderly, she felt herself go cold. She knew he was about to speak, about to tell her of the miracle and felt that she could stand no more now. She was stilling. She must get away before she betrayed herself.

Muttering an excuse she lunged blindly up the stairs to her own room. Snatching a scarf she groped her way to the garden, fighting down the bitterness within her heart. She seated herself on a bench in the little summer house, staring listlessly before her, fighting desperately.

She looked up quickly at slow footsteps, her eyes lighting as Doctor Holland strolled down the walk, a book in his hand. For just a second she thought him about to pass on, after bowing to her, then, with a little shrug he seated himself beside her. She did not wish him there and still she was glad of his presence. She could not understand the conflict of absolutely antithetical emotions the man stirred up within her. Looking furtively at his troubled face she could see he was in no mood for chatter on trivialities.

In the flurry of the moment she reached out to take the book from his hands. It rested beside her, but her nerves seemed stunned, anesthetized. Something had seemed to break within the very soul of her at the contact of his fingers. She could not move from that magnetic touch.

Slowly, gently, so slightly as to be almost imperceptible, his fingers closed upon her own—just enough so she was aware the man knew what he was doing. She lifted her eyes, desperately, pleadingly.

Some power from outside herself caught and held her, breathless and afraid. Doctor Holland rose swiftly, his face wearing the expression of one who has looked upon deadly danger and wishes, yet is afraid, to embrace it. Without a word he turned upon his heel and strode toward the house.

With lips parted, Selma stared before her. She knew now that the great doctor had come to her with his demand for payment in full. And she knew that evasion of the debt was—

The rustle of a petticoat caused her to look up in quick anger. Mrs. Pressley stood before her, an accusing, righteous expression on her face that told the young wife instantly the scene that had just transpired was no secret to the companion. In a fit of anger, Selma dismissed her from her service and she went straight to the husband, with her story.

IV.

Dwight looked up from the note Mrs. Pressley had just thrust into his hands, a little puzzled. He had not known before that the suicide broker had notified Selma of the embezzlement of her fortune. Still, what of it now? And why was the unusually good-natured lady in such a towering rage?

"But, my dear Mrs. Pressley, why do you give this to me?" he queried. "It merely states what you and I and all the world know—that Mrs. Dwight's fortune was embezzled. Oh, I see," he cried, a great glow on understanding coming upon him, "the note reached your hands and you kept it from Selma, fearing the shock."

Caressing the Husband She Does Not Love.

"The note, Mr. Dwight, came before you asked Mrs. Dwight to marry you," the companion interrupted sharply. "You had written a trifle earlier that you intended proposing that evening. Miss Ashton told me that she intended refusing you. Then came this word from Leed—and she married you."

Dwight smiled incredulously, though grim lines had formed about the corners of his mouth.

You—had—better—go—immediately—" He clipped off the words like steel particles. Mrs. Pressley turned in her hurried retreat but there was something in those eyes that checked her.

For a long time the millionaire stood there, his arm rigidly outstretched as though he would drive from the room the evil thoughts the desperate woman had left behind. Then he laughed, laughed with an attempt at lightness. The crumpled ball of paper fell to the floor from his hand.

Slowly, slowly he reached down and picked it up, tucking it in his pocket carefully. Then he sank back in the big chair, thinking, thinking.

It was a month after the discharge of Mrs. Pressley that he stealthily moved from his chair in the library as Selma slipped out into the night air, followed shortly by Doctor Holland. He had tried to convince himself that the change in manner toward him on his wife's part was due to some intuitional reading of his thoughts. Even now he fought against the impulse which caused him to spy on the pair.

Clearly silhouetted against the night he made out her figure. Her face was covered with her hands and he could see she was sobbing silently to herself. Doctor Holland was strolling toward her, yet Dwight was aware that the physician had not seen her. He slipped quickly behind a stone pillar.

He caught the uncertainty, the surprise of the doctor as he caught sight of the woman. He caught the impulse of the man to comfort her, saw the fighting down of that impulse. Then Doctor Holland placed his hand upon her shoulder, his voice but the gentlest whisper of a sound as he called her name. She turned and looked up at him, then swiftly, some iron band of self-restraint within her snapped, and she flung her arms about his neck.

With her head resting upon his chest he murmured words which thundered back to the millionaire behind the pillar, killing something inside the very soul of the man, even as it quickened the life in his body.

Suddenly Selma drew away, crouching, fearful, as she regarded the man toward whom she had gone in her hour of weakness. Dwight leaned forward the better to listen. Her voice was broken, wild with a passionate despair as it rang in his ears.

"No—No—You must not. You must go. I will—I must be true to him while he lives. You must go—you must—"

David Dwight turned quickly and groped his way back to the house. In the hall he paused uncertainly, his hand upon the knob of the library door as though he had just come from there. Selma entered and he called softly, tenderly to her, putting his arm about her, kissing her tenderly, even as he reached out and clasped the hand of Dr. Holland, who came in immediately after her.

Slowly the pair moved up the stairs (Continued on Page Seven.)

Casserole Coupon

worth ten cents and

Samples of Perfection

Bluing Tablets

will be given you Free, by your Grocer-Ask him

TEUTONS PRESS TOWARD LEMBERG

London, June 7.—The two Austro-German armies which are pressing in two directions toward Lemberg, the last Russian base in the province, are meeting a desperate resistance at the hands of the czar's troops. Though the official statements issued in Berlin and Petrograd disagree, both give indications of hard struggles which promise that the final settlement of the issue will be delayed several days at least.

From Petrograd comes the announcement that the Austro-German attacks on Russian positions near the village of Krutskice, eight miles south of Mosciska, have been repulsed with heavy losses to the Teutons. The further announcement is made that the Russians have captured several German trenches on the right bank of the San, between the Lubaczowka and Sklo rivers, in the neighborhood of Korzenica.

A further advance by the Russians is indicated by the announcement that they have retaken the village of Starzawa, on the left bank of the Wislnia, which the Teutonic forces captured soon after the evacuation of Przemyśl. Petrograd does not assume to believe that anything like a definite check has been administered to General Von Mackensen, for the official statement adds that "the Germans still maintain a hold on the neighboring heights." According to Berlin the Russians have been forced as far as Mosciska.

ITALIANS MAKE MORE PROGRESS

Rome, June 7.—While the military operations on the entire front of the Trentino frontiers are limited to artillery duels, the Italians are making progress at every point, according to a report from General Cadorna, the chief of the general staff. The report says the Italian artillery is vastly superior to that of the Austrians.

The first official information of the movements of the Italian fleet since the opening of hostilities was given out when the ministry of marine told of a raid by a naval division on the coast of Dalmatia. Lighthouses were bombarded and destroyed and serious damage was caused to the railway from Rakusa to Cattaro, which has been supplying munitions to the Austrian garrison in the latter port, besieged for ten months by the Montenegrins.

Austrian troops have been withdrawn from Trieste and the police are making no effort to prevent looting. The streetcars have ceased running, and the trolley wires and other copper fittings have been requisitioned for the army. The railroad between Trieste and Kobarina has been cut. Food is lacking in the city.

Vienna reports that the Italian troops on the frontier have refrained from approaching the Austrian positions.

GRECIAN KING UNDER THE KNIFE

Athens, June 7.—The operation on King Constantine was performed under local anesthesia and took fifty minutes. About two and three-fourths inches of the eighth rib on the right side was removed to assist in the discharge from the pleura. The king suffered considerable pain after the operation.

Fertilizers for Lawns, Flowers, Trees and Gardens. Florence S. Ustick, Sales Agent. Goods in stock at C. F. Bonham's.

NYAL'S Sarsaparilla!

We Recommend and Guarantee to Purify The Blood.

For Pimples, Pustulas, Tet-ter or Salt Rheum, Blotches, Tumors, Boils, Ring Worm, Ulcers and Scrofula,

If you need a good Blood Tonic try this

BALDWIN'S DRUG STORE

Arlington Hotel Block. Both Phones 52.

CRITICISED U. S. CAN'T COME HOME

Berlin, June 7.—The passports of two American citizens living at Dresden, Leon Raines and Karl Racknagel, have been ordered revoked by the American embassy, on instructions from the state department at Washington. The men, it is said, adversely criticised the American government in the present crisis and declared in a newspaper article that they were ashamed of their citizenship.

CINCINNATI RAISES HOW

Cincinnati, June 7.—Cincinnati organizations prepared to voice a protest to President Wilson and the department of justice against the removal of the office of the district attorney from this city to Columbus. Hardy had the news of the announcement of District Attorney-Elect Stuart R. Bolln to the effect that he would make Columbus his headquarters reached here than a movement was started to urge a reconsideration.

THE OLD RELIABLE STILL IN THE LEAD

Sugar peas—they are extra fine 10c per pound.
Green beans 10c per lb.
Cucumbers 5c each
New tomatoes 10c per lb; 3 lbs, 25c
New beets, 3 bunches for 10c
Oranges, pineapples, bananas, new potatoes, radishes, lettuce, green onions, asparagus.
Green currants per qt 12c
No. 1 Ryo coffee per lb. 12c
Fancy dried peaches per lb 10c
Will have plenty of strawberries Saturday. Nice old potatoes.

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.
The Old Reliable Cash Grocer.
Both phones NO. 77.

ALBERT R. MCCOY
Funeral Director and Embalmer
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell office, 27; residence, 9 R. City office, 27; residence 541.

ALLIES ARE UNABLE TO HOLD GAINS

London, June 7. — The general advance attempted by the allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula last week, heralded by correspondents, and of which hopes were raised by Winston Spencer Churchill's remark in his Dundee speech that the allies there were "within a few miles of a victory such as the war had not yet seen," netted a gain of 500 yards on a front of nearly three miles. But it appears from the official statement given out regarding these operations that various divisions of the allies, after making more gains by dint of great gallantry, were unable fully to hold these gains because of the activity of the Turkish artillery and on account of the fierce counter attacks.

The statement is a narrative of desperate assaults by British, French, territorial and Indian troops, carrying their point successfully, and then being forced to fall back again because some other part of the line had not been able to keep up with the advance. The Indian troops especially were subjected to a disappointment of this kind, losing two trenches they had gained by a magnificent advance because the troops on their right were held up by barbed wire and thus the Indians were left open to an enflading fire.

The official press bureau gives out the following dispatch from General Nixon regarding the operations on the Tigris: "General Townsend with a small gunboat flotilla received the surrender of Amarah, in Mesopotamia, with thirty officers and 700 men, on June 3. We now occupy Amarah. The force captured comprised the Turkish advance guard retreating from Persian territory."

FRENCHMEN HOLD GROUND

Paris, June 7.—The German forces north of Arras began a violent attack along the Ablain-Souchez-Neuville front, bent upon regaining some of the ground they have lost there. Not only was this entire front assailed by artillery fire of an extremely hot character, but infantry attacks were made with great energy at numerous places. The bombardment and the frequent infantry charges continued without interruption throughout the day and night. The French war office announces that the attack continues without the French forces having been dislodged from a single one of the many new positions which they have recently captured in this region. New positions have been wrested from the Germans. The slow and hard fought investment of the village of Neuville-St. Vaast has been advanced by the capture of new positions in the interior of the town and in the northern part. Furthermore, at the center and to the south of the labyrinth, where the fighting has been extremely bitter, the trenches have been taken by the French. Fighting is reported north of the Aisne. East of Tracy Lemont, on the heights close by the Moulin-Sous-rouvent, French troops captured two successive lines of trenches in a single charge.

YOUR FAMILY WASHING.
These gloomy days is a burden to you; we will call for and deliver it back to your home for the small sum of Six Cents a Pound, with all of your Tablecloths, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Towels, Etc., ironed ready for use. The Larimer Laundry Company, Bell 188w; Citz. 521.

HIGH SCHOOL
Monogram stationary in gold and blue—cards and note paper in bulk. Cranes Swiss Linen stock, best for acknowledgements. Sold at Rod-ecker's.

Touches The Spot—Without a Peer

RIVAL BREAD

at Rival for your stomach's sake. Accept no substitute.

Flowers Baking Co.

ANY GROCER CAN SUPPLY YOU

BASEBALL

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	24	17	.585	St. Louis	22	22	.500
Philadelphia	22	19	.537	Pittsburgh	19	21	.475
Boston	22	19	.537	Cincinnati	17	22	.435
Brooklyn	21	20	.512	N. York	16	21	.432

AT ST. LOUIS— R. H. E.
Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 4 3
St. Louis 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—3 11 1
Batteries—Chambers, Demaree and Killifer; Doak and Snyder.

AT CINCINNATI— R. H. E.
Cincinnati 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 6 2
Boston 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 6 10 1
Batteries—Lear and Dooin; Ragon and Whiting.

AT CHICAGO— R. H. E.
New York 0 0 0 2 0 1 2 1 0—6 10 0
Chicago 0 2 2 0 0 3 0 0—8 13 2
Batteries—Tosreau, Schauer, Ritter-Schupp and McLean and Smith; Vaughn and Bresnahan.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	28	16	.636	Washington	17	20	.459
Detroit	29	17	.629	Cleveland	18	22	.450
Boston	20	16	.556	St. Louis	17	25	.405
N. York	19	20	.487	Philadelphia	15	27	.357

AT DETROIT— R. H. E.
Detroit 0 0 4 1 0 0 1 0—4 12 1
New York 1 1 0 0 0 0 1 1 0—4 14 0
Batteries—Cavet and McKee; Donovan, Cottrell and Nunamaker.

FEDERAL LEAGUE.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Pittsburgh	25	19	.568	Chicago	24	22	.522
K. City	25	19	.568	Brooklyn	21	21	.500
Newark	23	19	.548	Baltimore	16	24	.478
St. Louis	22	18	.556	Buffalo	16	20	.444

Chicago, 10; Pittsburgh, 5.
Kansas City, 3; St. Louis, 2.
Newark, 3; Buffalo, 6. Second game: Newark, 2; Buffalo, 4.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Indianapolis	29	16	.644	St. Paul	22	21	.512
Louisville	24	19	.558	Cleveland	17	22	.432
Milwaukee	24	20	.545	Columbus	16	26	.381
K. City	22	20	.524	Minneapolis	15	25	.375

Indianapolis, 3; Kansas City, 2.
Louisville, 4; Minneapolis, 3.
Milwaukee, 5; Cleveland, 6.
Columbus, 3; St. Paul, 4.

LOCAL STANDINGS.

Games	W.	L.	Pct.
Athletics	8	4	.667

Sunday School League.

Presbyterian	2	2	0.100
Christians	2	1	.667
Methodists	2	1	.667
Wesley Chapel	2	0	1.000

Game Schedule.
Tuesday, June 8—Methodists vs. Presbyterians.
Sunday, June 13—Athletics vs. Xenia Reserves (here).

DON KLARK WINS HUNDRED-MILE RACE

Columbus, June 7. — Don Klark of Detroit won the 100-mile motorcycle race at the Driving park. His time was just seven seconds under the world's record, being 92 minutes 12.15 seconds. He negotiated the 100 miles without a stop. Veriel, who substituted for Dell, breezed through the five-mile professional race and hung up a state record, making the five laps in 4:04 1-5.

ROUMANIAN'S CRY FOR WAR

Bucharest, June 7.—There was a big demonstration here in favor of Roumania's entering the war. The demonstration was similar to that of May 30, when crowds went through the streets shouting for war against Austria.

FIVE MORE SHIPS ARE BLOWN UP

London, June 7.—Five more trawlers have been sunk by German submarines. The attacks took place off Peterhead, and the Dogberry and Barndolph of Hull, Persimmon of Grimsby and Gazehound and Curlew of Sunderland were the victims. The crews of all were saved.

Fertilizers for Corn, Alfalfa and all spring crops in stock at C. F. Bonham's. Florence S. Ustick, Sales Agent.

Liquid blue is a weak solution, avoid it. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, the blue that's all blue.

WHO PAYS?

(Continued from Page Six.)

and David Dwight watched them from beside the library door. He was cold now. Something had died within him. He frowned, a bit puzzled at the effort at identification. He had it—it was his soul that had been killed. That was why he had laughed inwardly as he placed his arms where those of Holland had been but a scant few moments before, as he felt the instinctive shrinking away of the woman he had married. That was why he had been so gleeful as Holland's hand returned no pressure to his own. With a murdered soul, David Dwight found hatred had become joy.

V.

As Dwight looked about the laboratory and in the bedroom for Doctor Holland he was a bit disappointed to find the young man out.

Lately his jealous hatred had grown to such an abnormal extent that he dreaded losing sight of either of the guilty pair for one moment, lest they had fled the agony they were enduring. And today he proposed finally showing his hand, on this first anniversary of his marriage.

He had not quite decided what humiliation he would heap upon Holland, Selma's was already arranged, a humiliation that lacked nothing of refinement and dignified, courteous cruelty. He smiled as he tapped his coat pocket where a jeweler's little box lodged which was to be his present to her.

As he started to leave the room, the title, Toxicology, seemed fairly to leap from the cover of the opened book lying amid the table litter and strike him between the eyes. He picked it up curiously, turning it over in his hands, reading fragments here and there at the place where it had been opened. Then he examined the little vial with the red skull and crossbones on its label that had rested beside the book.

A grayish shadow turned his healthy color to a dull leaden compromise of hue, as he slowly replaced the little bottle. For a moment he stood there undecided, then, with a shrug of his shoulders, turned and closed the door softly behind him.

"While he lives—I shall be true to him." That was what Selma had said that night in the garden when he had seen her abjure the love she admittedly desired. "While he lives."

Dwight resumed his library chair, pondering this new phase of the situation in his household. Yes, were he in Holland's place he would probably see to it that his rival did not live long. What had ailed the doctor that he had postponed the act this length of time?

Impatiently he looked at his watch. The time had dragged terribly, the hour before the guests arrived for the banquet, the hour immediately before which he intended unnerving his wife so the feast would be torment to her.

Slowly he rose, pausing a moment to compose his expression into the one of tender solicitude he had used as a mask for a long time now. He moved up the stairs, light as a boy, tapping softly at his wife's door and dismissing the maid with a nod. She submitted to his caresses wearily, the fresh beauty of her a trifle drooping.

He had intended speaking a few commonplaces first, but as his eyes took in the drooping corners to her mouth, the haggard lines about the eyes and realized what had put them there, he could not trust his self-control. She opened the box wearily, trying to simulate a delight at the present which she knew she could not feel. Once she looked up and caught his eyes upon her eager, cruel, gloating.

Her fingers trembled as, instead of a bit of jewelry, she found a crumpled note, opening it slowly. She did not tremble, did not cry out as again she lifted her eyes to Dwight's, after reading the letter from Charles Leed, telling her that her fortune had been wiped away. Her dulled brain refused to work, her aching heart refused to regard the question of where he obtained possession of that note as of any importance.

He motioned her to pick up the card that remained in the box and she turned it over and over in her hand: "A reminder from your husband that you lied to him and that you have only served the first year of a long sentence." She read it aloud the second time. Then her lips parroted the words slowly, as would a child learning his lesson. And gradually the threat dawned upon her and she looked hurriedly about her as though seeking some means of escape.

That note from Leed—He knew that she had married him for his money. But what else did he know, this man of superlative cruelty? Did he know of Holland?

VI.

Dwight peered over the balustrade into the dining room, then drew back, even though his eyes looked the more keenly into the place. He saw his wife touch the physician on the arm, saw her lips move, caught the nervous start of the man, then the light laugh with which he answered as he replaced a vial in his pocket.

But David Dwight laughed also. For he had seen the sinister red of the skull and cross bones—the same vial he had seen in the doctor's laboratory earlier in the day. Charming courtesy was his manner as he received the guests already arriving.

—and the man to whom I trust my health and happiness will propose

the first toast."

Even as their friends applauded rapturously at this tribute from the millionaire, Selma turned sharply toward him. In a flash she divined that Dwight knew everything, knew of her love for Holland quite as well as he did the reason for her marrying him. It was in his voice.

The maternal instinct within her told her the man proposed another revenge. Her eyes met his and she shrank away before the cruel glint there. He bowed gracefully for silence then extended his glass slightly as he continued:

"And as a further token of my esteem, Doctor Holland shall drink from my glass."

And then she understood, understood even as the man she loved received the wine glass from the man to whom she was bound. The instinct to cry out aloud a warning was upon her but she repressed it. She turned away with a shudder, conscious that Holland was speaking. She could not catch the words.

And suddenly she realized that she loathed this man too. Revenge—revenge—was that all man thought of, lived for, died for? The man she loved had been caught in his own trap and was merely showing himself a thoroughbred. And when he fell dead, who did they think was to pay for the scandal—who was to pay?

She half rose from her chair, even as the doctor's elbow crooked to sip at the wine. A second she remained there, then slumped heavily against the arm holding the glass, her eyes closing in feigned swoon. David Dwight's arms were about her, lifting her, carrying her to the library and placing her upon the couch. When he left the room, after turning her over to the maid, she listened to the excited chatter, the murmur of suppressed anxiety from the departing guests, lulled by her husband's soothing tones. Out of the corners of her eyes she had seen Holland heavily ascending the stairs, could feel herself listening for some sound that would tell her what he was doing.

David Dwight stood in the hallway, shaking hands with the last of the guests when she saw the doctor coming down the stairs, a suit case in his hand. She half rose upon the couch, then moved out into the room, her breath coming in a little hissing sound. She could hear the voices of the men, then, for the first time in their married life, was aware from the shrill note in the millionaire's voice that he was losing his temper. A second later came the scuffle of feet and Dwight and Holland burst into the room. At sight of her the husband regained control of himself, dropping his hold upon the younger man and laughing.

"And so you thought you would leave my house, doctor? You thought you would dodge the collector, eh? You thought you would take what you wished and then evade the payment, my young friend?"

Selma drew closer. It seemed to her she had heard the words before.

"Well, leave the house, doctor, if you wish. Leave the house and I shall brand you everywhere as the man who tried to kill his patient so he could steal his wife—or rather take the wife he already had stolen. You are at liberty to leave the house, Doctor Holland."

Fearing His Love for the Bride, Doctor Holland Decides to Leave.

Suddenly the laughter died out of his voice and his face grew grim and terrible, deadly, implacable.

"Of course, you cannot leave the house. Neither of you can leave the house. I am a millionaire and I did not get those millions by leaving things undone, by permitting bills to go uncollected. I gained my money—by buying it; I gained my wife—by purchase; I bought my health."

"Health—that I bought; Life—that I bought from you, Holland. Woman—of purchase—when I bought you, Selma. And in my vaults you shall stay—both of you. Here in this house you shall remain with me until death, by natural means, comes to release you. Here in this house you shall live, both of you, and you shall look upon each other, you shall long for one another—but the jailer will be here in this debtor's prison also."

"A nun and a monk—and a jailer. An unwilling nun, an unwilling monk—and a jailer. And there shall be no whisper of that love; there shall be no caress that shows that love. For I shall be a good jailer. And you shall see to it that I live long, Doctor Hol-

Classified Advertisements

The People's Column

RATES PER WORD.
1 time in Daily Herald..... 1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register... 3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register... 4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register... 6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register... 10c
Additional time 1c per word per week
Minimum charges: 1t, 15c; 6t, 30c.

FOR RENT.
FOR RENT—5 room house, Briar avenue; gas and electric lights. Chas. L. Kissling, Millwood ave. 128t6

FOR RENT—House of 6 rooms; all modern conveniences. Florence Ogile. Citz. Phone 133. 128t6

FOR RENT—About May 20, half new house 5 rooms and bath; good location; good yard, $12.50. Inquire Bentz's Grocery. 113t6

FOR RENT—Half of double house on Washington Ave. Modern in every respect. Citz. phone 4719. 89t6

FOR RENT—5 rooms in east half of double house on Columbus Ave. Mrs. Mary Passmore, Ogile street. Citz. phone 330. 81t6

FOR SALE.
FOR SALE—Ford runabout in good condition. P. F. Ortman Motor Co. 130t6

FOR SALE—$35.00 mantle folding bed, good as new, $15.00. C. A. Shasteen, corner Temple and Forest. 128t6

FOR SALE—Ford Runabout, new, only been driven about 1200 miles. Equipped with Temco shock absorbers, one extra new casing, two extra inner tubes, large tool box on running board, tire chains and complete set of tools. For information address Box 162, Residence 326 E. Paint street, Washington C. H., Ohio. 128t6

FOR SALE—White Wyandotts and Rose Comb R. I. Red cocks, 75c each. G. H. Lloyd. 123t12 land. And you shall see to it that your husband is made comfortable, Selma. For you are paying the price."

WHO PAYS?
(End of the Fourth Story.)
The title of the next story is "Unto Herself Alone."

See these Pictures every Wednesday night at Colonial Theatre

THE COLONEL IN THE SOUTH

New Orleans, June 7.—Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt arrived here today and were met by John Parker, an old friend of the former president. As Mr. Parker's guests they will go to Pass Christian, where they will board Mr. Parker's yacht. For several days they will cruise about the islands which have been set aside as bird refuges.

GET READY FOR ZEPPELIN RAID

London, June 7.—Every police man in the metropolitan area of London is now provided with a list of surgeons, district nurses and appointed hospitals as a preliminary precaution against a Zeppelin raid and the possible injury to a large number of persons.

ENRAGED HOG ATTACKS BOY

Napoleon, O., June 7.—Entering a pen to see a litter of pigs, Henry, aged five, son of Harmon Drewes of near Pidgeville, was so badly bitten by the mother of the pigs that he will probably die.

John W. Higgins

At Arlington Hotel. Both phones.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND.
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold wrapper. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHICHESTER'S PILLS. 25 years known to Best, Safest, Always Reliable. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Gas Specialist

Have your gas stoves and gas appliances tested. I clean up, regulate, stop smoking, and guarantee to make coal stoves with burners in them hot enough to bake in 10 or 15 minutes.

John W. Higgins

At Arlington Hotel. Both phones.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND.
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold wrapper. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHICHESTER'S PILLS. 25 years known to Best, Safest, Always Reliable. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE often lies in the brassiere. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Bien-Jolie Brassiere for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline fashion decries.

The Secret of a Good Figure

BIEN-JOLIE BRASSIERES
are the simplest, most serviceable garments imaginable. Only the best of materials are used—for instance, "Wolohn," a flexible bonding of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal.

They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If he does not carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are in high favor.

BENJAMIN & JOHNES
50 Warren Street Newark, N. J.

ALLIES ARE UNABLE TO HOLD GAINS

London, June 7. — The general advance attempted by the allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula last week, heralded by correspondents, and of which hopes were raised by Winston Churchill's remark in his Dundee speech that the allies there were "within a few miles of a victory such as the war had not yet seen," netted a gain of 500 yards on a front of nearly three miles. But it appears from the official statement given out regarding these operations that various divisions of the allies, after making more gains by dint of great gallantry, were unable fully to hold these gains because of the activity of the Turkish artillery and on account of the fierce counter attacks.

The statement is a narrative of desperate assaults by British, French, territorial and Indian troops, carrying their point successfully, and then being forced to fall back again because some other part of the line had not been able to keep up with the advance. The Indian troops especially were subjected to a disappointment of this kind, losing two trenches they had gained by a magnificent advance because the troops on their right were held up by barbed wire and thus the Indians were left open to an enfilading fire.

The official press bureau gives out the following dispatch from General Nixon regarding the operations on the Tigris: "General Townsend with a small gunboat flotilla received the surrender of Amarah, in Mesopotamia, with thirty officers and 700 men, on June 3. We now occupy Amarah. The force captured comprised the Turkish advance guard retreating from Persian territory."

FRENCHMEN HOLD GROUND

Paris, June 7.—The German forces north of Arras began a violent attack along the Ablain-Souchez-Neuville front, bent upon regaining some of the ground they have lost there. Not only was this entire front assailed by artillery fire of an extremely hot character, but infantry attacks were made with great energy at numerous places. The bombardment and the frequent infantry charges continued without interruption throughout the day and night. The French war office announces that the attack continues without the French forces having been dislodged from a single one of the many new positions which they have recently captured in this region. New positions have been wrested from the Germans. The slow and hard fought investment of the village of Neuville-St. Vaast has been advanced by the capture of new positions in the interior of the town and in the northern part. Furthermore, at the center and to the south of the labyrinth, where the fighting has been extremely bitter, the trenches have been taken by the French. Fighting is reported north of the Aisne. East of Tracy Lemont, on the heights close by the Moulin-Souvent, French troops captured two successive lines of trenches in a single charge.

YOUR FAMILY WASHING.
These gloomy days is a burden to you; we will call for and deliver it back to your home for the small sum of Six Cents a Pound, with all of your Tablecloths, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Towels, Etc., ironed ready for use. The Larimer Laundry Company, Bell 188w; Citz. 521.

HIGH SCHOOL
Monogram stationary in gold and blue—cards and note paper in bulk. Cranes Swiss Linen stock, best for acknowledgements. Sold at Red-ecker's.

Touches The Spot—Without a Peer

RIVAL BREAD

at Rival for your stomach's sake. Accept no substitute.

Flowers Baking Co.

ANY GROCER CAN SUPPLY YOU

BASEBALL

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	24	17	.585	St. Louis	22	22	.500
Phila.	22	19	.537	Pittsburgh	19	21	.475
Boston	22	19	.537	Cin.	17	22	.435
Brooklyn	21	20	.512	N. York	16	21	.432

AT ST. LOUIS— R. H. E.
Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 4 3
St. Louis 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—3 11 1
Batteries—Chambers, Demaree and Killfer; Donk and Snyder.

AT CINCINNATI— R. H. E.
Cincinnati 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 6 2
Boston 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 5 10 1
Batteries—Lear and Doolin; Ragon and Whaling.

AT CHICAGO— R. H. E.
New York 0 0 0 2 6 1 2 1 0—6 10 9
Chicago 0 2 3 0 0 3 0 0—8 13 2
Batteries—Tosreau, Schauer, Ritter, Schupp and McLean and Smith; Vaughn and Bresnahan.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	28	16	.636	Wash'tn.	17	20	.459
Detroit	25	17	.593	Cleveland	18	22	.450
Boston	20	16	.556	St. Louis	17	25	.405
N. York	19	20	.487	Phila.	15	27	.357

AT DETROIT— R. H. E.
Detroit 0 0 4 1 0 0 1 0—6 12 1
New York 1 1 0 0 0 0 1 1 0—4 14 0
Batteries—Cavett and McKee; Donovan, Cottrell and Nunamaker.

FEDERAL LEAGUE.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Pittsburgh	25	19	.568	Chicago	21	22	.482
K. City	25	19	.568	Brooklyn	21	21	.500
Newark	23	19	.548	Balto.	16	24	.478
St. Louis	22	18	.550	Buffalo	16	30	.348

Chicago, 10; Pittsburgh, 5.
Kansas City, 3; St. Louis, 2.
Newark, 3; Buffalo, 6. Second game.
Newark, 2; Buffalo, 4.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	P.C.
Ind'ns	29	16	.644	St. Paul	22	21	.512
Louisville	24	19	.558	Cleveland	17	22	.432
Milwaukee	24	20	.545	Columbus	16	26	.381
K. City	22	20	.524	Minne.	15	25	.375

Indianapolis, 3; Kansas City, 2.
Louisville, 4; Minneapolis, 3.
Milwaukee, 5; Cleveland, 6.
Columbus, 3; St. Paul, 4.

LOCAL STANDINGS.

Games	W	L	Pct.
Athletics	8	4	.500

Sunday School League.

Presbyterian	2	2	1000
Christians	2	1	500
Methodists	2	1	500
Wesley Chapel	2	0	2 000

Game Schedule.
Tuesday, June 8—Methodists vs. Presbyterians.
Sunday, June 13—Athletics vs. Xenia Reserves (here).

DON KLARK WINS HUNDRED-MILE RACE

Columbus, June 7.—Don Klark of Detroit won the 100-mile motorcycle race at the Driving park. His time was just seven seconds under the world's record, being 92 minutes 12 1/2 seconds. He negotiated the 100 miles without a stop. Verlel, who substituted for Dell, breezed through the five-mile professional race and hung up a state record, making the five laps in 4:04 1/5.

ROUMANIAN'S CRY FOR WAR

Bucharest, June 7.—There was a big demonstration here in favor of Roumania's entering the war. The demonstration was similar to that of May 30, when crowds went through the streets shouting for war against Austria.

FIVE MORE SHIPS ARE BLOWN UP

London, June 7.—Five more trawlers have been sunk by German submarines. The attacks took place off Peterhead, and the Dogberry and Bar-dolph of Hull, Persimmon of Grimsby and Gazehound and Curlew of Sunderland were the victims. The crews of all were saved.

Fertilizers for Corn, Alfalfa and all spring crops in stock at C. F. Bonham's. Florence S. Ustick, Sales Agent.

Liquid blue is a weak solution, avoid it. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, the blue that's all blue.

WHO PAYS?

(Continued from Page Six.)

and David Dwight watched them from beside the library door. He was cold now. Something had died within him. He frowned, a bit puzzled at the effort at identification. He had it—it was his soul that had been killed. That was why he had laughed inwardly as he placed his arms where those of Holland had been but a scant few moments before, as he felt the instinctive shrinking away of the woman he had married. That was why he had been so gleeful as Holland's hand returned no pressure to his own.

With a murdered soul, David Dwight found hatred had become joy.

As Dwight looked about the laboratory and in the bedroom for Doctor Holland he was a bit disappointed to find the young man out.

Lately his jealous hatred had grown to such an abnormal extent that he dreamed losing sight of either of the guilty pair for one moment, lest they had fled the agony they were enduring. And today he proposed finally showing his hand, on this first anniversary of his marriage.

He had not quite decided what humiliation he would heap upon Holland, Selma's was already arranged, a humiliation that lacked nothing of refinement and dignified, courteous cruelty. He smiled as he tapped his coat pocket where a jeweler's little box lodged which was to be his present to her.

As he started to leave the room, the title, Toxicology, seemed fairly to leap from the cover of the opened book lying amid the table litter and strike him between the eyes. He picked it up curiously, turning it over in his hands, reading fragments here and there at the place where it had been opened. Then he examined the little vial with the red skull and cross-bones on its label that had rested beside the book.

A grayish shadow turned his healthy color to a dull leaden compromise of hue, as he slowly replaced the little bottle. For a moment he stood there undecided, then, with a shrug of his shoulders, turned and closed the door softly behind him.

"While he lives—I shall be true to him." That was what Selma had said that night in the garden when he had seen her abjure the love she admittedly desired. "While he lives."

Dwight resumed his library chair, pondering this new phase of the situation in his household. Yes, were he in Holland's place he would probably see to it that his rival did not live long. What had ailed the doctor that he had postponed the act this length of time?

Impatiently he looked at his watch. The time had dragged terribly, the hour before the guests arrived for the banquet, the hour immediately before which he intended unnerving his wife so the feast would be torment to her.

Slowly he rose, pausing a moment to compose his expression into the one of tender solicitude he had used as a mask for a long time now. He moved up the stairs, light as a boy, tapping softly at his wife's door and dismissing the maid with a nod. She submitted to his caresses wearily, the fresh beauty of her a trifle drooping.

He had intended speaking a few commonplaces first, but as his eyes took in the drooping corners to her mouth, the haggard lines about the eyes and realized what had put them there, he could not trust his self-control. She opened the box wearily, trying to simulate a delight at the present which she knew she could not feel. Once she looked up and caught his eyes upon her eager, cruel, gloating.

Her fingers trembled as, instead of a bit of jewelry, she found a crumpled note, opening it slowly. She did not tremble, did not cry out as again she lifted her eyes to Dwight's, after reading the letter from Charles Leed, telling her that her fortune had been wiped away. Her dulled brain refused to work, her aching heart refused to regard the question of where he obtained possession of that note as of any importance.

He motioned her to pick up the card that remained in the box and she turned it over and over in her hand.

"A reminder from your husband that you lied to him and that you have only served the first year of a long sentence." She read it aloud the second time. Then her lips parroted the words slowly, as would a child learning his lesson. And gradually the threat dawned upon her and she looked hurriedly about her as though seeking some means of escape.

That note from Leed—He knew that she had married him for his money. But what else did he know, this man of superlative cruelty? Did he know of Holland?

VI.

Dwight peered over the balustrade into the dining room, then drew back, even though his eyes looked the more keenly into the place. He saw his wife touch the physician on the arm, saw her lips move, caught the nervous start of the man, then the light laugh with which he answered as he replaced a vial in his pocket.

But David Dwight laughed also. For he had seen the sinister red of the skull and cross bones—the same vial he had seen in the doctor's laboratory earlier in the day. Charming courtesy was his manner as he received the guests already arriving.

"—and the man to whom I trust my health and happiness will propose

the first toast."

Even as their friends applauded rapturously at this tribute from the millionaire, Selma turned sharply toward him. In a flash she divined that Dwight knew everything, knew of her love for Holland quite as well as he did the reason for her marrying him. It was in his voice.

The maternal instinct within her told her the man proposed another revenge. Her eyes met his and she shrank away before the cruel glint there. He bowed gracefully for silence then extended his glass slightly as he continued:

"And as a further token of my esteem, Doctor Holland shall drink from my glass."

And then she understood, understood even as the man she loved received the wine glass from the man to whom she was bound. The instinct to cry out aloud a warning was upon her but she repressed it. She turned away with a shudder, conscious that Holland was speaking. She could not catch the words.

And suddenly she realized that she loathed this man too. Revenge—revenge—was that all man thought of, lived for, died for? The man she loved had been caught in his own trap and was merely showing himself a thoroughbred. And when he fell dead, who did they think was to pay for the scandal—who was to pay?

She half rose from her chair, even as the doctor's elbow crooked to sip at the wine. A second she remained there, then slumped heavily against the arm holding the glass, her eyes closing in feigned swoon. David Dwight's arms were about her, lifting her, carrying her to the library and placing her upon the couch. When he left the room, after turning her over to the maid, she listened to the excited chatter, the murmur of suppressed anxiety from the departing guests, lulled by her husband's soothing tones. Out of the corners of her eyes she had seen Holland heavily ascending the stairs, could feel herself listening for some sound that would tell her what he was doing.

David Dwight stood in the hallway, shaking hands with the last of the guests when she saw the doctor coming down the stairs, a suit case in his hand. She half rose upon the couch, then moved out into the room, her breath coming in a little hissing sound. She could hear the voices of the men, then, for the first time in their married life, was aware from the shrill note in the millionaire's voice that he was losing his temper. A second later came the scuffle of feet and Dwight and Holland burst into the room. At sight of her the husband regained control of himself, dropping his hold upon the younger man and laughing.

"And so you thought you would leave my house, doctor? You thought you would dodge the collector, eh? You thought you would take what you wished and then evade the payment, my young friend?"

Selma drew closer. It seemed to her she had heard the words before.

"Well, leave the house, doctor, if you wish. Leave the house and I shall brand you everywhere as the man who tried to kill his patient so he could steal his wife—or rather take the wife he already had stolen. You are at liberty to leave the house, Doctor Holland."

Fearing His Love for the Bride, Doctor Holland Decides to Leave.

Suddenly the laughter died out of his voice and his face grew grim and terrible, deadly, implacable.

"Of course, you cannot leave the house. Neither of you can leave the house. I am a millionaire and I did not get those millions by leaving things undone, by permitting bills to go uncollected. I gained my money—by buying it; I gained my wife—by purchase; I bought my health."

"Health—that I bought; Life—that I bought from you, Holland. Woman—of purchase—when I bought you, Selma. And in my vaults you shall stay—both of you. Here in this house you shall remain with me until death, by natural means, comes to release you. Here in this house you shall live, both of you, and you shall look upon each other, you shall long for one another—but the jailer will be here in this debtor's prison also."

"A nun and a monk—and a jailer. An unwilling nun, an unwilling monk—and a jailer. And there shall be no whisper of that love; there shall be no caress that shows that love. For I shall be a good jailer. And you shall see to it that I live long, Doctor Hol-

Classified Advertisements

The People's Column

RATES PER WORD.

1 time in Daily Herald	1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register	3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register	4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register	6c
62t in Herald & 8t in Register	10c
Additional time 1c per word per week
Minimum charges:	1t, 15c; 6t, 30c

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—5 room house, Briar avenue; gas and electric lights. Chas. L. Kissling, Millwood ave.	12816
--	-------

FOR RENT—House of 6 rooms; all modern conveniences. Florence Ogle, Citz. Phone 133.

12816

FOR RENT—About May 20, half new house 5 rooms and bath; good location; good yard, $12.50. Inquire Bentz's Grocery.

1131f

FOR RENT—Half of double house on Washington Ave. Modern in every respect. Citz. phone 4719.

891f

FOR RENT—5 rooms in east half of double house on Columbus Ave. Mrs. Mary Passmore, Ogle street. Citz. phone 330.

811f

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford runabout in good condition. P. F. Ortman Motor Co.

13016

FOR SALE—$35.00 mantle folding bed, good as new, $15.00. C. A. Shasteen, corner Temple and Forest.

12816

FOR SALE—Ford Runabout, new, only been driven about 1200 miles. Equipped with Temco shock absorbers, one extra new casing, two extra inner tubes, large tool box on running board, tire chains and complete set of tools. For information address Box 162, Residence 326 E. Paint street, Washington C. H., Ohio.

12816

FOR SALE—White Wyandotts and Rose Comb R. I. Red cocks, 75c each. G. H. Lloyd.

123112

land. And you shall see to it that your husband is made comfortable, Selma. For you are paying the price.

WHO PAYS?
(End of the Fourth Story.)
The title of the next story is "Un-to Herself Alone."

See these Pictures every Wednesday night at Colonial Theatre

THE COLONEL IN THE SOUTH

New Orleans, June 7.—Colonel and Mrs. Horner arrived here today and were met by John Parker, an old friend of the former president. As Mr. Parker's guests they will go to Pass Christian, where they will board Mr. Parker's yacht. For several days they will cruise about the islands which have been set aside as bird refuges.

GET READY FOR ZEPPELIN RAID

London, June 7.—Every police force in the metropolitan area of London is now provided with a list of surgeons, district nurses and appointed hospitals as a preliminary precaution against a Zeppelin raid and the possible injury to a large number of persons.

ENRAGED HOG ATTACKS BOY

Napoleon, O., June 7.—Entering a pen to see a litter of pigs, Henry, aged five, son of Harmon Brewes of near Pidgeville, was so badly bitten by the mother of the pigs that he will probably die.

No thoughtful person uses liquid blue. It's a pinch of blue in a large bottle of water. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue.

The Secret of a Good Figure

often lies in the brassiere. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Bien-Jolie Brassiere for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline fashion desires.

BIEN-JOLIE BRASSIERES

are the daintiest, most serviceable garments imaginable. Only the best of materials are used—for instance, "Walton," a flexible bonding of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal.

They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If he does not carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are in high favor.

BENJAMIN & JOHNES
50 Warren Street Newark, N. J.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND

Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold wrapper. Take one after each of your Druggists. Ask for CHICHESTER'S PILLS in Red and Gold wrapper. Sold by DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

John W. Higgins
At Arlington Hotel. Both phones.

Gas Specialist

Have your gas stoves and gas appliances tested. I clean up, regulate, stop smoking, and guarantee to make coal stoves with burners in them hot enough to bake in 10 or 15 minutes.

LOCALS LOSE TO WILMINGTON CLINTONS IN LAST INNING

Hundreds of Fans, Many From Washington, See Game at Wilmington Sunday—Hungeling Out of Game With Broken Ankle.

Everything was just sailing along beautifully and Washington had a good strong lead with every indication of an easy victory when the Athletics' pet jinx, for a long time absent and thought to be dead, slipped into the balloon shed, cut loose the air bag and up she went. In the eighth inning, with the Athletics leading by a score of 5 to 2, the Wilmington Clintons took advantage of Linson's weakening and slipped three across at North End park, Wilmington, Sunday afternoon. With the game tied the Clintons put another over in the ninth and closed the game.

Hundreds of fans thronged the grounds, and of these at least 250 were from Washington. The weather was good and despite some pretty rank errors the game for the most part was fast.

Local fans were decidedly disappointed when it was learned that Hungeling, Washington's new prize catcher, had suffered a fracture of the right ankle in a game at Dayton Saturday, which will probably keep him out of baseball for the balance of the season. Rumpf, backstop for the Dayton Victors, came in Hungeling's place but his work was very ordinary and in no way compared with Hung's.

Washington began the scoring in the first frame. Noon lined out a pretty three bagger, with two men down, and scored. Runnels reached first on an error by Bott.

Wilmington started its tallying in the second. F. Haley singled past third. C. Haley sloughed the pill for two bases, advancing Haley to third. Taylor singled, scoring F. Haley. Taylor stole second. Boots fanned. Arthur was out at first. C. Haley scoring. Heironimus grounded to Corwin and was thrown out at first. Three hits, two runs.

The Athletics scored again in the third. Linson came up first and fanned. Corwin was hit by a pitched ball and went down to second when Reed rolled one down to third. Runnels belted the horsehide for two bases, scoring Corwin. Noon popped a foul to Arthur. Rumpf to Frye to Arthur.

The locals slipped two over with ease in the fourth and another in the sixth and the score stood 5 to 2 when Wilmington started its massacre in the decidedly "fatal" eighth.

Heironimus was up first for Wilmington in the eighth and grounded out. Frye was safe on an error. Pohlmeier walked, advancing Frye.

Adams, former local first baseman, laid on the ball for a clean three sacker, scoring Frye and Pohlmeier. F. Haley singled, scoring Adams. Mobley dropped C. Haley's fly and the Hayleys occupied the first and second sacks. Cotterill relieved Linson at the slab. Reed muffed Taylor's grounder to third and the bases were full. Cott settled down and struck out Denehey, pinch hitter, and Hagerty handled Arthur's hot grounder. Three runs.

With the score even and one down in the last half of the ninth Heironimus got to first on a wild throw by Runnels, and went to second on a passed ball through catcher. He advanced to third on a sacrifice by Frye. Pohlmeier then laid a warm one down along the third base line, just inside the sack. Reed let it go through his legs without attempting to field it, judging it as a foul. Heironimus scored the winning run.

The box score follows:

Wash.	C. H.	AB	H	R	PO	A	E
Corwin, ss	4	1	1	2	4	5
Reed, 3b	5	0	0	0	0	1
Runnels, 2b	4	1	1	0	5	2
Noon, lf	3	2	0	2	0	0
Rumpf, c	4	0	0	4	0	1
Mobley, rf	4	0	0	0	0	1
Jones, cf	4	2	2	1	0	0
Hagerty, 1b	3	1	1	15	1	0
Linson, p	2	1	0	1	3	0
Cotterill, p	1	0	0	0	0	0

Totals

34	8	5	25	13	5
----	---	---	----	----	---	--

Wilmington	AB	H	R	PO	A	E
Frye, ss	5	1	1	3	3	1
Pohlmeier, 2b	4	1	1	0	5	1
Adams, c	4	2	1	6	0	0
F. Haley, cf	4	2	1	1	0	1
C. Haley, rf	4	1	1	3	0	0
Taylor, lf	4	1	0	0	0	1
Boths, 3b	2	0	0	0	1	1
Denehey, 3b	2	0	0	0	0	0
Arthur, 1b	4	0	0	13	2	0
Heironimus, p	4	1	1	1	0

Totals

37	9	6	27	12	4
----	---	---	----	----	---	--

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
W. C. H.	1	0	1	0	2	0	0	0
Wilm.	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	3

Struck out by Heironimus, 5; by Linson; by Cotterill 1.

Base on balls by Heironimus, 2; by Linson, 1.

Hit by Heironimus, 1. Wild pitch Linson, 2.

Two-base hits, Runnels, Corwin, Noon.

Three-base hits, Noon, Jones, Adams.

Double play, Hagerty to Linson. Umpire—Swain, of Cincinnati.

THINGS DOING AT THE MOVIES

PALACE.
Charles Chaplin has been secured by the Palace for Monday in "The Tramp," and if every Charlie Chaplin appeared in a play especially adapted to his wonderful ability as a comedian this is it. Chaplin is the newcomer in comedy photoplay that has made the country sit up and look twice and his name and likeness have consumed more square feet of lithograph than perhaps any one of his contemporaries.

"The Idler" is booked for Tuesday and will be the feature bill of the week. It is a World Corporation out with Charles Richman and Catherine Courtiss. This is a strong combination.

Friday, King Baggett, the old reliable, will be back in a mystifying Universal entitled "The City of Terrible Night."

COLONIAL.
The big feature of the week at the Colonial will be "The Devil" a reproduction in movies of the great stage and novel success of a few years ago written by Franz Molnar. This picture will be shown Thursday. It is a four reeler with Ed Connelly and Bessie Bouseah in the leads.

The Colonial starts its week's features Tuesday with "A Man and His Mate," a strong play with Henry Woodruff.

Wednesday the Colonial presents another of the instructive and entertaining "Who Pays" series, starring Ruth Roland and Harry King. "The Love Liar" is the title of this installment.

WONDERLAND.
May Irwin, famous many-season star of the legitimate stage, will be seen in Washington this week in a happy, rollicking movie production, "Mrs. Black is Back," at the Wonderland Friday. The piece is one of the George Hobart collection and is especially fitted to its star.

The last, and naturally the best, of the Elaine series, winding up the mystery of the Clutching Hand, will be shown Tuesday. Manager Johnson announces that the new Exploits of Elaine series, which are making an even greater hit than the first, if that were possible, have been secured and will start a week from Tuesday.

Adele Farrington, supported by Hobart Bosworth, who will be remembered as the inimitable Wolf Larsen of Jack London's pictured "Sea Wolf," will be seen Wednesday in "The Country Mouse," put on by the Bosworth Company.

AIRDOME.
The Airdome opened Saturday night for the summer season with a good attendance at all shows. The management has announced that special attention will be paid to the securing of high class productions for the Airdome this season.

A feature for this week will be "The Dutchess," from the novel of that name, starred by Cleo Madison. The play is a gripping Irish drama in four reels.

Tuesday "The Gentleman From Mississippi," a World film with Tom Wise in the title role, has been scheduled.

Markets

Close of Markets Today

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Chicago, June 7 — Hogs — Receipts 34000 — Market slow—Light yorkers $7.45@7.75; heavy yorkers $7.10@7.65; pigs $5.75@7.40.

Cattle — Receipts 17000—Market weak — Native steers $6.75@9.30; western steers $6.80@8.05; cows and heifers $3.20@8.75; calves $7.50@10.25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 10000 —Market steady — Sheep, natives $6.40@7.20; lambs, natives $7.75@10.75.

Pittsburg, June 7. — Hogs—Receipts 6500—Market 20 cents higher —Yorkers $8.05@8.10; pigs $7.75@7.90.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 2000 —Market higher—Top sheep $6.75; top lambs $10.25.

Calves—Receipts 1000 — Market 25 cents higher—Top $10.25.

Cattle — Receipts 800 — Market 15 cents higher—Top $9.50.

THE LOCAL MARKET.

Corrected Daily at 3 P. M.

Wheat	$1.20
Corn	70c
Oats	50c

Prices Paid for Produce.

Hens	12c
Eggs	17c
Butter	42c
Potatoes	70c
Lard	10c

Close of Markets Saturday

(By American Press)

CHICAGO.

Cattle—Native beef steers, $6.90@9.25; western steers, $6.80@8.10; cows and heifers, $3.20@8.75; calves, $7.50@10.

Hogs—Light, $7.45@7.75; mixed, $7.25@7.50; heavy, $7.05@7.35; rough, $7.05@7.25; pigs, $5.75@7.35.

Sheep and Lambs—Sheep, $6.40@7.20; lambs, $7.50@10.60.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.27@1.28. Corn—No. 2 yellow, 72½¢@72¾¢. Oats—No. 3 white, 49½¢@49¾¢.

CLEVELAND.

Cattle—Choice fat steers, $8.00@8.75; butcher steers, $7.25@8.25; heifers, $6.50@7.25; bulls, $6.50@7.25; cows, $4.00@4.75.

Hogs — Mediums, Yorkers and Lights, $7.85; pigs, $7.75; roughs, $6.45; stags, $5.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Wethers, $6.60@7.50; ewes, $5.50@6.60; lambs, $9.00@9.50.

CINCINNATI.

Cattle—Steers, $5.25@8.50; heifers, $5.75@8.75; cows, $5.75@6.60; calves, $5.25@9.25.

Hogs — Packers and butchers, $7.60@7.75; common to choice, $5.25@6.80; pigs and lights, $5.50@7.75; stags, $4.25@5.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Sheep, $3.25@5; lambs, $6.50@11.50.

PITTSBURGH.

Cattle—Top cattle, $9.10; top calves, $10.

Hogs—Heavies, $7.80@7.85; Yorkers, $7.90; pigs $7.50@7.60.

Sheep and Lambs—Top sheep, $6.50; top lambs, $9.75.

BOSTON.

Wool—Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces, Delaine washed, 32¢@33¢; half blood combing, 34¢; three-eighths blood combing, 36¢; delaine unwashed, 29¢@30¢.

TOLEDO.

Wheat, $1.32½; corn, 71½¢; oats, 49½¢@50¢, clover seed, $8.

Waterloo has stood for a hundred years as the synonym of an ideal battle result. It was clean cut and decisive. From that time up to a very recent date the hope of a general has been to draw his foe into an open fight to a finish. Maneuvering at Waterloo placed the French army under Napoleon into a situation where it must fight without delay. Delay would enable the British and Prussian commanders to unite their isolated commands and crush the French. Pursuit of the Waterloo ideal, however, has often led to a campaign coming to naught because the opposing commanders both waited to get their foe "on the hip." The place of Waterloo was nothing; the climax to the clash of armed men there was what made it great. Recent wars have taught armies to depend upon field defenses and artillery in naturally strong positions, so that the decisive battle in the open has become almost a thing of the past.

The first order for Huerta's family of thirty mouths, when it reached the Long Island bungalow, was forty-five steaks and fifty chickens. If the dealer takes Huerta Mexican bonds in payment he's in for the biggest gamble of his life.

S. S. Cockerill & Son

Groceries and Queensware

Special This Week on Clicquot Club Ginger Ale, Root Beer and Birch Beer

12c bottle

65c per one-half dozen

$1.25 per dozen

Rebate of 2c each on empty bottles

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale (pronounced Click-O) is without exception the most delicious and pure Ginger Ale produced. If you could see with what scientific care and epicurean judgment we make and bottle this beverage, you would use it exclusively. It is always the same—conforming to the pure food laws of every state.

LEMON SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY

Fancy large 300 size California Lemons
15c dozen
If the weather remains warm you may expect higher prices on lemons.

Welch Grape Juice Special For This Week

One-half pint bottles, regular price 15c, special 13c
One pint bottles, regular price 25c, special 22c
One quart bottles, regular price 50c, special 40c

MASS MEETING WELL ATTENDED

The meeting held at Grace church Sunday afternoon, and addressed by Rev. Albert Sidney Gregg, Superintendent of American Civil Reform Union, was well attended.

Rev. Gregg spoke on "A Girl and Her Perils" pointing out the dangers confronting the average girl. Rev. Gregg spoke plainly upon the subject chosen.

O. W. U. GRADUATES FROM FAYETTE

The seventy-first annual commencement of Ohio Wesleyan University will be held June 11-16. A joint concert of the choral and glee clubs will be held on Friday evening, June the 11th, as the opening of the commencement festivities, and they will close with the commencement exercises on Wednesday the 16th.

Fayette county will be represented in the 1915 commencement by three graduates, Winchell McKendrie Craig and Morris Sharp Baker, of this city, and Almer Daniel Rittenour, of Jeffersonville.

Winchell Craig and Almer Rittenour take the Bachelor of Arts degree and Morris Sharp Baker the Bachelor of Science degree.

FARMERS ANXIOUS TO KEEP AT WORK

After two weeks delay the farmers of Fayette county are back in the fields once more and hope to have a week or two of uninterrupted work in cultivating their corn and looking after their crops generally.

Prospects for a good corn crop are very bright, and the wheat prospects are splendid in most sections of the county.

Other crops are growing rapidly since the rains.

McFadden's Cash Grocery.

THE WEATHER CALLS FOR ICE TEA

Butter Fly—80c grade	60c per pound
Imperial—60c grade	50c per pound
Mixed—60c grade	48c per pound
English Breakfast—60c grade	45c per pound
Young Hyson	65c. 55c.
Young Hyson in ¼-pound boxes	15c. 2 for 25c

Both Phones—Citiz. 29 Bell 281 M Union Delivery

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"THE YELLOW FRONT."

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS.

Cantaloupes

We expect our first shipment of fancy California Cantaloupes tomorrow morning.

Price 10c each.

Home Grown Strawberries

Will be at their best this week now is the time for preserving & canning. Our price will be as low as good berries can be bought. Price today 10c and 12½c quart.

Pineapples are now in the height of their season. Now is the time to buy for canning as they are full ripe and delicious flavors. Price each 15c or 2 for 25c.

Preserving Kettles

Extra large 10 quart size made of Aluminum, you will need one of these during the berry season.

Price each $1 25.

Home grown Veg-tables of all kinds tomorrow morning.

VALENCIA ORANGES	35c per dozen.
MESSINA LEMONS	30c per dozen.

The House that cut the high cost of living in Washington, is open and still doing business at the same old stand but will be known hereafter as

Glenn Allen's Grocery

The spotlight of to day is on the house that gives you Value.

THAT'S WHERE WE SHINE ::::

We will carry at all times a full line staple and fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables.

It Pays to Buy Of GLENN ALLEN

Because we buy and sell more Fruits and vegetables than any firm in Washington. We buy more because we sell more and we sell more because we sell cheaper, and we sell cheaper because we buy cheaper. Come and see us, it's to your interest

Highest market prices for Country Produce
Corner Main and East Streets. Union Delivery.
BOTH PHONES

LOCALS LOSE TO WILMINGTON CLINTONS IN LAST INNING

Hundreds of Fans, Many From Washington, See Game at Wilmington Sunday—Hungeling Out of Game With Broken Ankle.

Everything was just sailing along beautifully and Washington had a good strong lead with every indication of an easy victory when the Athletics' pet jinx, for a long time absent and thought to be dead, slipped into the balloon shed, cut loose the air bag and up she went. In the eighth inning, with the Athletics leading by a score of 5 to 2, the Wilmington Clintons took advantage of Linson's weakening and slipped three across at North End park, Wilmington, Sunday afternoon. With the game tied the Clintons put another over in the ninth and closed the game.

Hundreds of fans thronged the grounds, and of these at least 250 were from Washington. The weather was good and despite some pretty rank errors the game for the most part was fast.

Local fans were decidedly disappointed when it was learned that Hungeling, Washington's new prize catcher, had suffered a fracture of the right ankle in a game at Dayton Saturday, which will probably keep him out of baseball for the balance of the season. Rumpf, backstop for the Dayton Victors, came in Hungeling's place but his work was very ordinary and in no way compared with Hung's.

Washington began the scoring in the first frame. Noon lined out a pretty three bagger, with two men down, and scored. Runnels reached first on an error by Bott.

Wilmington started its tallying in the second. F. Haley singled past third. C. Haley sloughed the pill for two bases, advancing Haley to third. Taylor singled, scoring F. Haley. Taylor stole second. Boots fanned. Arthur was out at first. C. Haley scoring. Heironimus grounded to Corwin and was thrown out at first. Three hits, two runs.

The Athletics scored again in the third. Linson came up first and fanned. Corwin was hit by a pitched ball and went down to second when Reed rolled one down to third. Runnels belted the horseshide for two bases, scoring Corwin. Noon popped a foul to Arthur. Rumpf to Frye to Arthur.

The locals slipped two over with ease in the fourth and another in the sixth and the score stood 5 to 2 when Wilmington started its massacre in the decidedly "fatal" eighth.

Heironimus was up first for Wilmington in the eighth and grounded out. Frye was safe on an error.

Pohlmeier walked, advancing Frye. Adams, former local first baseman, laid on the ball for a clean three sacker, scoring Frye and Pohlmeier. F. Haley singled, scoring Adams. Mobley dropped C. Haley's fly and the Haleys occupied the first and second sacks. Cotterill relieved Linson at the slab. Reed muffed Taylor's grounder to third and the bases were full. Cott settled down and struck out Denehey, pinch hitter, and Hagerty handled Arthur's hot grounder. Three runs.

With the score even and one down in the last half of the ninth Heironimus got to first on a wild throw by Runnels, and went to second on a passed ball through catcher. He advanced to third on a sacrifice by Frye. Pohlmeier then laid a warm one down along the third base line, just inside the sack. Reed let it go through his legs without attempting to field it, judging it as a foul. Heironimus scored the winning run.

The box score follows:

	Wash.	C. H.	AB	H	R	PO	A	E
Corwin, ss	4	1	1	2	4	5
Reed, 3b	5	0	0	0	0	1
Runnels, 2b	4	1	1	0	5	2
Noon, lf	3	2	0	2	0	0
Rumpf, c	4	0	0	4	0	1
Mobley, rf	4	0	0	0	0	1
Jones, cf	4	2	2	1	0	0
Hagerty, lb	3	1	1	15	1	0
Linson, p	2	1	0	1	3	0
Cotterill, p	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	8	5	25	13	5

	Wilmington	AB	H	R	PO	A	E
Frye, ss	5	1	1	3	3	1
Pohlmeier, 2b	4	1	1	0	5	1
Adams, c	4	2	1	6	0	0
F. Haley, cf	4	2	1	1	0	1
C. Haley, rf	4	1	1	3	0	0
Taylor, lf	4	1	0	0	0	0
Boths, 3b	2	0	0	0	1	1
Denehey, 3b	2	0	0	0	0	0
Arthur, lb	4	0	0	13	2	0
Heironimus, p	4	1	1	1	1	0
Totals	37	9	6	27	12	4

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
W. C. H.	1	0	1	2	0	1	0	0
Wilm.	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	3

Struck out by Heironimus, 5; by Linson 3; by Cotterill 1.

Base on balls by Heironimus, 2; by Linson, 1.

Hit by Heironimus, 1. Wild pitch Linson, 2.

Two-base hits, Runnels, Corwin, Noon.

Three-base hits, Noon, Jones, Adams.

Double play, Hagerty to Linson. Umpire—Swain, of Cincinnati.

THINGS DOING AT THE MOVIES

PALACE.

Charles Chaplin has been secured by the Palace for Monday in "The Tramp," and if every Charlie Chaplin appeared in a play especially adapted to his wonderful ability as a comedian this is it. Chaplin is the newcomer in comedy photoplay that has made the country sit up and look twice and his name and likeness have consumed more square feet of lithograph than perhaps any one of his contemporaries.

"The Idler" is booked for Tuesday and will be the feature bill of the week. It is a World Corporation output with Charles Richman and Catherine Countiss. This is a strong combination.

Friday, King Baggott, the old reliable, will be back in a mystifying Universal entitled "The City of Terrible Night."

COLONIAL.

The big feature of the week at the Colonial will be "The Devil" a reproduction in movies of the great stage and novel success of a few years ago written by Franz Molnar. This picture will be shown Thursday. It is a four reeler with Ed Connelly and Bessie Bouseab in the leads.

The Colonial starts its week's features Tuesday with "A Man and His Mate," a strong play with Henry Woodruff.

Wednesday the Colonial presents another of the instructive and entertaining "Who Pays" series, starring Ruth Roland and Harry King. "The Love Liar" is the title of this installment.

WONDERLAND.

May Irwin, famous many-season star of the legitimate stage, will be seen in Washington this week in a happy, rollicking movie production, "Mrs. Black is Back," at the Wonderland Friday. The piece is one of the George Hobart collection and is especially fitted to its star.

The last, and naturally the best, of the Elaine series, winding up the mystery of the Clutching Hand, will be shown Tuesday. Manager Johnson announces that the new Exploits of Elaine series, which are making an even greater hit than the first, if that were possible, have been secured and will start a week from Tuesday.

Adele Farrington, supported by Hobart Bosworth, who will be remembered as the inimitable Wolf Larsen of Jack London's pictured "Sea Wolf," will be seen Wednesday in "The Country Mouse," put on by the Bosworth Company.

AIRDOME.

The Airdome opened Saturday night for the summer season with a good attendance at all shows. The management has announced that special attention will be paid to the securing of high class productions for the Airdome this season.

A feature for this week will be "The Dutchess," from the novel of that name, starred by Cleo Madison. The play is a gripping Irish drama in four reels.

Tuesday "The Gentleman From Mississippi," a World film with Tom Wise in the title role, has been scheduled.

Markets

Close of Markets Today

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Chicago, June 7.—Hogs.—Receipts 34000.—Market slow—Light Yorkers $7.45@7.75; heavy Yorkers $7.10@7.65; pigs $5.75@7.40.

Cattle.—Receipts 17000.—Market weak.—Native steers $6.75@9.30; western steers $6.80@8.05; cows and heifers $3.20@8.75; calves $7.50@10.25.

Sheep and Lambs.—Receipts 10000.—Market steady.—Sheep, natives $6.40@7.20; lambs, natives $7.75@10.75.

Pittsburg, June 7.—Hogs.—Receipts 6500.—Market 20 cents higher.—Yorkers $8.95@8.10; pigs $7.75@7.90.

Sheep and Lambs.—Receipts 2000.—Market higher.—Top sheep $6.75; top lambs $10.25.

Calves.—Receipts 1000.—Market 25 cents higher.—Top $10.25.

Cattle.—Receipts 800.—Market 15 cents higher.—Top $9.50.

THE LOCAL MARKET.

Corrected Daily at 3 P. M.

Wheat $1.20
Corn 70c
Oats 50c

Prices Paid for Produce.

Hens 12c
Eggs 17c
Butter 22c
Potatoes 70c
Lard 10c

Close of Markets Saturday

(By American Press.)

CHICAGO.

Cattle.—Native beef steers, $6.20@9.25; western steers, $6.80@8.10; cows and heifers, $3.20@8.70; calves, $7.50@10.

Hogs.—Light, $7.45@7.75; mixed, $7.35@7.75; heavy, $7.05@7.65; rough, $7.05@7.35; pigs, $5.75@7.35.

Sheep and Lambs.—Sheep, $6.40@7.20; lambs, $7.50@10.40.

Wheat.—No. 2 red, $1.27@1.28. Corn.—No. 2 yellow, 72½¢@72¾¢. Oats.—No. 3 white, 49½¢@49¾¢.

CLEVELAND.

Cattle.—Choice fat steers, $8.00@8.75; butcher steers, $7.25@8.25; heifers, $6.50@7.25; bulls, $6.50@7.25; cows, $4.00@6.50; calves, $8.50@9.

Hogs.—Mediums, Yorkers and lights, $7.85; pigs, $7.75; roughs, $6.45; stags, $5.50.

Sheep and Lambs.—Wethers, $6.00@6.75; ewes, $5.50@6; lambs, $9.00@9.50.

CINCINNATI.

Cattle.—Steers, $5.25@8.50; heifers, $5.75@8.75; cows, $3.75@6.50; calves, $5.25@9.25.

Hogs.—Packers and butchers, $7.60@7.75; common to choice, $5.25@6.80; pigs and lights, $5.50@7.75; stags, $4.25@5.50.

Sheep and Lambs.—Sheep, $3.00@5; lambs, $6.50@11.50.

PITTSBURGH.

Cattle.—Top cattle, $9.10; top calves, $10.

Hogs.—Heavy, $7.80@7.85; Yorkers, $7.90; pigs $7.50@7.60.

Sheep and Lambs.—Top sheep, $6.50; top lambs, $9.75.

BOSTON.

Wool.—Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces, Delaine washed, 22½¢@23¢; half blood combing, 24¢; three-eighths blood combing, 26¢; delaine unwashed, 25¢@26¢.

TOLEDO.

Wheat, $1.23¼; corn, 71½¢; oats, 49½¢@50¢; clover seed, 48¢.

Waterloo has stood for a hundred years as the synonym of an ideal battle result. It was clean cut and decisive. From that time up to a very recent date the hope of a general has been to draw his foe into an open fight to a finish. Maneuvering at Waterloo placed the French army under Napoleon into a situation where it must fight without delay. Delay would enable the British and Prussian commanders to unite their isolated commands and crush the French. Pursuit of the Waterloo ideal, however, has often led to a campaign coming to naught because the opposing commanders both waited to get their foe "on the hip." The place of Waterloo was nothing; the climax to the clash of armed men there was what made it great. Recent wars have taught armies to depend upon field defenses and artillery in naturally strong positions, so that the decisive battle in the open has become almost a thing of the past.

The first order for Huerta's family of thirty mouths, when it reached the Long Island bungalow, was forty-five steaks and fifty chickens. If the dealer takes Huerta Mexican bonds in payment he's in for the biggest gamble of his life.

S. S. Cockerill & Son

Groceries and Queensware

Special This Week on Clicquot Club Ginger Ale, Root Beer and Birch Beer

12c bottle

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

65c per one-half dozen

$1.25

per dozen

Rebate of 2c each on empty

bottles

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale (pronounced Click-O) is without exception the most delicious and pure Ginger Ale produced.

If you could see with what scientific care and epicurean judgment we make and bottle this beverage, you would use it exclusively. It is always the same—conforming to the pure food laws of every state.

LEMON SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY

Fancy large 300 size California Lemons

15c dozen

If the weather remains warm you may expect higher prices on lemons.

Welch Grape Juice Special For This Week

One-half pint bottles, regular price 15c, special 13c
One pint bottles, regular price 25c, special 22c
One quart bottles, regular price 50c, special 40c

MASS MEETING

WELL ATTENDED

The meeting held at Grace church Sunday afternoon, and addressed by Rev. Albert Sidney Gregg, Superintendent of American Civic Reform Union, was well attended.

Rev. Gregg spoke on "A Girl and Her Perils" pointing out the dangers confronting the average girl. Rev. Gregg spoke plainly upon the subject chosen.

O. W. U. GRADUATES FROM FAYETTE

The seventy-first annual commencement of Ohio Wesleyan University will be held June 11-16. A joint concert of the choral and glee clubs will be held on Friday evening, June the 11th, as the opening of the commencement festivities, and they will close with the commencement exercises on Wednesday the 16th.

Fayette county will be represented in the 1915 commencement by three graduates, Winchell McKendree Craig and Morris Sharp Baker, of this city, and Almer Daniel Rittenour, of Jeffersonville.

Winchell Craig and Almer Rittenour take the Bachelor of Arts degree and Morris Sharp Baker the Bachelor of Science degree.

FARMERS ANXIOUS TO KEEP AT WORK

After two weeks delay the farmers of Fayette county are back in the fields once more and hope to have a week or two of uninterrupted work in cultivating their corn and looking after their crops generally.

Prospects for a good corn crop are very bright, and the wheat prospects are splendid in most sections of the county.

Other crops are growing rapidly since the rains.

McFadden's Cash Grocery.

THE WEATHER CALLS FOR ICE TEA

Butter Fly—80c grade 60c per pound
Imperial—60c grade 50c per pound
Mixed—60c grade 48c per pound
English Breakfast—60c grade 45c per pound
Young Hyson 65c. 55c.
Young Hyson in ½-pound boxes 15c. 2 for 25c

Both Phones—Citz. 29 Bell 281 M Union Delivery

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"THE YELLOW FRONT."

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS.

Cantaloupes

We expect our first shipment of fancy California Cantaloupes tomorrow morning.

Price 10c each.

Home Grown Strawberries

Will be at their best this week now is the time for preserving & canning. Our price will be as low as good berries can be bought. Price today 10c and 12½c quart.

Pineapples

are now in the height of their season. Now is the time to buy for canning as they are full ripe and delicious flavors. Price each 15c or 2 for 25c.

Preserving Kettles

Extra large 10 quart size made of Aluminum, you will need one of these during the berry season.

Price each $1 25.

Home grown Veg-tables of all kinds tomorrow morning.

VALENCIA ORANGES

35c per dozen.

MESSINA LEMONS

30c per dozen.

The House that cut the high cost of living in Washington, is open and still doing business at the same old stand but will be known hereafter as

Glenn Allen's Grocery

The spotlight of to day is on the house that gives you Value.

THAT'S WHERE WE SHINE ::::

We will carry at all times a full line staple and fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables.

It Pays to Buy Of

GLENN ALLEN

Because we buy and sell more Fruits and vegetables than any firm in Washington. We buy more because we sell more and we sell more because we sell cheaper, and we sell cheaper because we buy cheaper. Come and see us, it's to your interest

Highest market prices for Country Produce

Corner Main and East Streets.

Union Delivery.

BOTH PHONES